Wall Street

New York — (U.P.) — Prospects of a cutback in steel operations in the third quarter chilled what started out to be a substantial stock market recovery today.

Some issues turned gains into losses. Steels held part of gains that had ranged to a point.

Oils, motors, and rails held well. Coppers fell on a cut in the copper price. Kennecott lost two points. DuPont dipped to a loss from an early 1 1/4 point gain.

Dow-Jones final stock averages: 30 industrials 480.16, off 3.97; 20 railroads 169.07, off 0.40; 15 utilities 65.79, up 0.07, and 65 stocks 173.61, off 0.84.

Sales today were about 2,140,000 shares compared with 2,290,000 Tuesday.

Car, Building Are Damaged by Fire

Central Point — A 1946 convertible automobile was damaged extensively and a building by which it was parked received minor damage about 7:53 p.m. yesterday on Blackwell hill, Central Point rural firemen reported.

The car, owned by Guy Ellison, route 1, box 596, Gold Hill, was enveloped in flames when fire fighting equipment arrived, firemen said. Trucks were dispatched on both the new and old highways in order that the scene of the fire could be located quickly. The Ellison place is on the old route.

Cause of the fire was not determined, according to firemen.

Gondolas on Chicago River Mayor's Idea

Chicago — (U.P.) — Mayor Richard J. Daley, in an understandable burst of civic pride, said today he'd like to see gondolas ply the Chicago river some day.

Good idea, said city officials. But the chairman of the county Clean Streams Committee pointed out that the turgid old river first would have to be cleaned of industrial sewage—or smell like Venice.
