

SHADY COVE-TRAIL Visitors Frequent in Area

By EVALYN P. WATSON
Shady Cove-Trail—For most local people, the coming of summer also means the entertaining of old friends and out-of-town visitors. Recent visitors to Shady Cove have been Mr. and Mrs. Les Graffis of Gold Hill, who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Williams; John McIver of Ashland, Wis., who spent some time visiting with his daughter and family, the Martin Guslands, before going on to Clearwater, Ida.; Gene Chapman, Pleasanton, Kan., former Shady Cove resident, who stayed overnight with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sheppard; guests of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Kelley have been Mr. and Mrs. F. X. Jantzer, Mrs. Kelley's brother and sister-in-law, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peterson, all of Medford; and Mr. and Mrs. Vic Helgesson of Salem who spent the week end visiting with the Carroll Watson family.

For others the coming of summer means trips and vacations. Taking vacations recently have been Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Paulson of Shady Cove who drove to Cave Junction to visit relatives; Mrs. Zella Tullis, who vacationed and visited friends at Siltcoos Lake and Newport, Ore.; and Mrs. Isabelle Wunderlich and daughter, Gail, who spent the week end visiting Mrs. Wunderlich's son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Wunderlich of Klamath Falls.

A short trip that has proved attractive to many local people is the one to Lilac Acres, beauty spot of several acres of lilacs and many other flowers, all in bloom, owned by Ernie Dahack at Tiller. The comments from those who have had the opportunity to view the flowers makes one eager to see them. Mr. and Mrs. George Pfeifer, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Collins, Mrs. Mary Chapman and Mrs. Desiree Fryling made the trip Friday. Dahack has provided picnic tables so that people may also enjoy an outdoor lunch.

Ricky Bergren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Bergren of Shady Cove, underwent major surgery in a Medford hospital but is now recovered and has returned to school.

Rhododendron Festival Scheduled at Florence

Florence —(U.P.)— Tomorrow starts Rhododendron Days in this coastal town and officials predicted that the colorful blooms will be at their peak for the celebration.

The pink blooms decorate the Oregon Coast highway and Florence has prepared a festive four-day celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Willson, Eagle Point residents, who formerly lived at Trail, have moved back to Oakridge where Willson is employed. Miss Carol Wilde, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Millard Wilde of Elk Creek, Trail is renting their house in Eagle Point. Miss Wilde is employed as a nurse in Medford.

Albert Estin has gone to Alaska where he will be employed during the summer months, returning in the fall.

A newcomer to Shady Cove is Mrs. Mary Chapman of Long Beach, Calif. Mrs. Chapman has been here before and bought a lot from O. L. Williams next to the Glenn Collins for building purposes. Now she is back in Shady Cove and starting to build.

Floating Island Bothers Residents

Dundee, Wis. — (U.P.) — Dundee's floating island rode safely at anchor today, but high winds kept residents from towing it away from their front yard.

The three-acre island, carrying four or five large trees, came visiting from the west shore of Kettle Moraine Lake.

Residents turned out in motor boats Tuesday and dragged it off the beach. They moored it 15 feet from the shore, but a stiff 30-mile-per hour wind stymied further efforts to get rid of the island.

Further plans to tow the island somewhere else were postponed until Sunday.

The island had floated aimlessly about the lake for a time after breaking loose from the west shore 10 days ago. Wind and waves eventually pushed it up on the beach of one of the resorts which ring the lake.

Resort owners complained that the wandering island was a threat to their beaches as long as it was allowed to drift aground at one point and then another.

Mother, Son Drown As Car Leaves Road

Yakima, Wash. — (U.P.) — A mother and her 11-year-old son drowned in a gravel pit south of Sunnyside yesterday afternoon when a truck driven by the woman's husband plunged off a road.

The victims were Mrs. Hazel A. Carmen, 31, and her son, Danny, 11, of Mabton. The father, John Carmen, managed to save himself. When the truck was pulled out of the 20-foot deep pit the bodies were not inside. They were recovered later.

Conservation experts say they shoot the cocks and save the hens when pheasant hunting. Each male pheasant harvested during the open season leaves room for a hen to make it successfully through the next winter.
