

Un-American Group Will Probe Issuance Of Delegate Passports

Washington — (AP) — The House Un-American Activities Committee has directed its passport investigation at U. S. delegates to so-called international peace conference.

The committee summoned three witnesses, two of them alleged Communists, to testify how they obtained passports to attend such conferences in 1952. The committee identified the witnesses as: Louis Wheaton of New York, chairman of the U. S. delegation to the Asiatic-Pacific Peace Conference in Peiping; Mary Russak of New York, chairman of the U. S. delegation to the Intercontinental Peace Conference at Montevideo, Uruguay, and Dr. John A. Kingsbury of New York, chairman of the National Council of American Soviet Friendship. The committee said Kingsbury also attended the Peiping conference.

William Wallace of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., former Communist and FBI undercover agent, told the committee Wednesday that Wheaton and Miss Russak were Communists.

He also told the committee he obtained a passport to Moscow while still a Communist in 1951 by telling the State Department he was going to France and England.

The State Department has forbidden the issuance of passports to Red China. It also has discretionary authority to deny passports requested by Communists.

Dr. Willard Uphaus, New Haven, Conn., told the committee it is "ancient history" that the right to travel freely from country to country transcends the laws of individual countries.

Uphaus is executive director of World Fellowship, Inc., and has a doctor's degree in religious education from Yale University. He was professor of religious education at Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn., from 1925 to 1928.

Orphans Frolic in Tokyo Hotel Suite

Tokyo — (AP) — Korean war orphans stranded in Tokyo with the measles romped through their hotel today, breaking a window and hurling toys the length of the room.

"They're happy, all right," said the Rev. Dr. Robert Pierce, harassed transpacific chaplain of 16 mixed-blood orphans traveling to new homes in Hawaii and the United States.

Seven of the children are in a Catholic missionary hospital with the measles or suspected measles, which struck them shortly after they arrived in Tokyo from Korea Monday.

FIRESIDE CHATS

Washington — (AP) — President Eisenhower disclosed Wednesday he has "often" considered reviving the system of "fireside chats" to explain complex government problems to the people.

He told his news conference that so far he "just doesn't know" whether they would be helpful.

He noted that he already appears nearly once a week before reporters to answer their questions and to discuss government issues.

can evangelist Billy Graham, and three nurses are keeping watch over the children, who are quarantined in a four-room suite in a downtown hotel.

Plane Wreck Found; Passengers Missing

Hilo, Hawaii — (AP) — The wreckage of a missing private airplane was found on the slope of Hawaii's famed Mauna Loa Volcano Wednesday and reports indicated its two occupants were attempting to walk to civilization.

The flyers, both Air Force enlisted men, were Airman Ellis L. Stuart Jr., 18, Springfield, Mo., and Airman Donald Draam, 20, St. Peter, Minn.

They vanished Wednesday on a 180-mile flight from Honolulu to Hilo, capital of the island of Hawaii.

A helicopter pilot reported finding their broken single-engine Aer-coupe at the 7200-foot level of the volcano cone, but said a close inspection revealed no sign of the men.

A land search party was working up the rugged slope after a forest ranger reported seeing what was believed to be a signal fire several miles below the crash scene.
