

JACKSONVILLE Post Office Move Scheduled

By MRS. C. S. HOSKINS
 Jacksonville — The Jacksonville post office will move into the new building on Thursday, May 31. The move will be made after closing hours, and the office will be open at the usual time Friday, June 1, at the new location next to Mom's Hideaway on East California st.

The seniors at Jacksonville High school have been bustling with activity since May 1. 'Gay Parade' was the theme for the Prom held on May 4. The Community hall was decorated like a Paris street cafe. Miss Vicki Tweedy was chosen queen and George Perreard, king. Annette Edwards and Sonja Smith were princesses. Before the Prom excitement had ceased, skip day arrived and 26 seniors and four chaperones, the Mesdames Rudy Broadbeck, Donald Wendt, Glen Smith and Merle Tweedy, chartered a bus and took a trip to the coast, leaving here at 5:30 a.m. May 11 and returning home at 9 p.m. the same day.

After taking the week end to recuperate, the class began preparations for graduation. Baccalaureate services will be held May 27 at 8 p.m. in the Presbyterian church, with the Rev. Kenneth Corby officiating. Commencement exercises will be held May 31 in the school gymnasium at 8 p.m. Dr. Roy McNeil will be guest speaker. Everyone is welcome to attend.

On May 25 the eighth grade class at Jacksonville school had a graduation party at an Ashland skating rink. Lunch was eaten later in the park. Chaperones, who drove the pupils to and from the party, were Mrs. Wendell Matheny, Mrs. Pete Zimmerman, Mrs. William P. McNew, Mrs. E. O. Graham and Mrs. Dietrich. D. L. Cox, eighth grade teacher, also accompanied the group.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Kasshafer of Arcata, Calif., paid a surprise visit to Kasshafer's sister, Mrs. Anna Rumley, last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Luy of Medford and their son Paul Luy, from Washington, visited the Jacksonville cemetery last Saturday. The Luys formerly lived here.

Last week end visitors at the Everett Raveron home were Mr. and Mrs. George Hollingsworth of North Bend, Ore.

Leroy Starky, former police chief here, now in business in Medford, was flown a month ago to the Portland Veterans' hospital and is now recuperating there. Mrs. Starkey paid him a visit there last week end. The Starkys' daughter Pauline, well known in Jacksonville, will graduate this May from Eagle Point High school.

Rebekah Ruth lodge No. 4 will hold Friendship night June 4 at 8 p.m. in the Jacksonville IOOF hall. All Rebekahs are invited.

The Jacksonville Rebekah club's May meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Albert Hackert last Tuesday. Potluck refreshments were served and preparations for friendship night were discussed. Those attending were the Mesdames Jack McDaniels, Kindred Thomas, Everett Raveron, Peter Fick, E. E. Evans, P. E. Matheny, Carl Hoskins and Pearl Kitchen; the hostess, Mrs. Albert Hackert, and two guests, Mrs. Milton James and Mrs. Michael O'Shea. The June meeting will be held at the IOOF hall, and plans will be discussed for the official visit of the Rebekah president on July 11.

Two interments were held last week in the Jacksonville cemetery, for Mary Bell (Molly) Ray, a resident of the Ruch-Applegate district for many years, and James A. Wilson of the Bishop creek area north of Jacksonville. Here for the services and staying at the home of Wilson's sister, Mrs. C. E. Lindemood of Jacksonville, were his daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Jenner Jr. of Etna, Calif.

A Girl Scout neighborhood leaders meeting was held last week at the home of Mrs. Pete Zimmerman. Present were Mrs. Albert Griffin, Mrs. Al Powlowski, Mrs. H. Peterson, Mrs. W. H. Dunlap.

Girl Scout leaders wish to thank the mothers for their cooperation during the past year and to express their enjoyment in working with the girls. They also wish to let it be known that they will not be able to serve the Girl Scout and Brownies next year, and ask that mothers of the respective troops volunteer their leadership, or there will be no Girl Scouting in Jacksonville next year. Anyone interested may telephone Medford 3-3345. There will be Girl Scout training for leaders next fall.

Mrs. Pete Zimmerman's, Girl Scout Troop 158, a group of 11 fifth grade girls, held a "backyard camp-out" during last week's electrical storm and record-breaking rainfall. The campers took refuge in the Zimmerman garage and were forced to eat their "camp supper" around the fire in the kitchen. But breakfast next morning was eaten and cooked "buddy burner" style out of doors. The girls were working toward camp

The Woman's Missionary Council of the Assembly of God church held an all-day meeting last week in preparation for Vacation Bible school, which will begin at the church on June 11. All children from 3½ to 16 years are welcome to attend each day from 9 to 11:45 a.m. This is an annual service provided by the church which in the past has been thoroughly enjoyed by the children and appreciated by their parents.

At last week's Thursday evening Jacksonville Lion's club meeting new officers named for 1956-57 term were president, Dr. Albert Griffin; first vice-president, Leon Matheny; second vice-president, John Keaveny; third vice-president, Merle L. Tweedy; secretary-treasurer, Charles Young; tail twister, Bruce Blew; Lion tamer, Joe Cabler. Two new directors selected were Fred Edens and Carl Totman.

Mrs. A. W. Henning returned this week after a week's visit in Salem as a delegate from the Ashland Guild to the Lutheran Women's Missionary league convention held there.

Jacksonville's newly reestablished library in the Native Daughters Brunner building will be open on June 4.

SHADY COVE-TRAIL Mrs. Collier Returns Home

By EVALYN P. WATSON
 Shady Cove-Trail—Mrs. Audrey Collier of Laurelhurst rd., Trail, has returned home after spending about 10 days in Creswell with her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Collier, and taking care of the new granddaughter who arrived at the Collier home recently. The baby, who has been named Lois Josephine, is the couple's third child and third girl. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Warner of Oakland, Ore.

Mrs. Glenn Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ranald Axtell of Trail is ill at her home in Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Elston Baker, former residents of this area, were through the Shady Cove-Trail area last week on a business trip, and stopped off to call on many old friends here. The Bakers now live in Portland where he is employed by Dant and Russell.

Mr. and Mrs. William McDowell of Sebastopol, Calif., are visiting with their daughter and husband, Dr. and Mrs. Howard Ferguson of Shady Cove.

Mr. and Mrs. Scottie Parrick are spending a week at their home at Trail before returning to Lucerne, Calif., where Mr. Parrick will stay for awhile. Scottie plans to be on one of the lookouts this summer.

Jim Cassal of Trail, who has been ill, was greatly improved at last report.

Newcomers to Shady Cove are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bower of Phoenix who have lived in the area for about 15 years. The Bowers are employed as caretakers for the Ernest Segessenmans.

Following the Monday night instruction classes that have been held at the homes of Mrs. Ernest Segessenman and Mrs. Dick Bartuss of Shady Cove, a number of those who have attended will be confirmed at the regular confirmation exercises to be held in Medford soon. Any high school students who wish to receive instruction for confirmation may do so at the Monday night classes. Starting June 4 the Holy Name Sisters of St. Mary's academy in Medford will have a two week course of religious instruction for Catholic children of the area. The classes will continue through June 15. Our Lady of Fatima club will meet at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, June 7, at the home of Mrs. Carroll Watson of Shady Cove.

There is considerable building and remodeling of houses now under way in the Shady Cove area. Mr. and Mrs. Al Cooper of Shady Cove are building a pumice brick addition to their house, with Dick Johnson and his son-in-law, Von Williams of Shady Cove, doing the work. Jerry Smart of the Rainbow motel is building a brick building which will be a four unit motel. Johnnie Minor is remodeling and building onto his house and has two bedrooms ready for occupancy. Howard Ash has been building a house next to the Clayton Knotts' for Carl Hanson, brother of Oscar Hanson of Trail.
