

Trabert, Hartwig Tough Foes For World Doubles Champions; To Play Here Tomorrow Night

Rex Hartwig, the Australia "wrecker," and Tony Trabert, world amateur champion, will continue their efforts for a special cash bonus when they meet Pancho Gonzales and Pancho Segura, world doubles champions, in the big tennis program at Hedrick junior high school tomorrow night, starting at 8 o'clock. The show is sponsored by the Medford Lions club.

Hartwig and Trabert, chosen in a recent tennis poll as the perfect doubles combination, have been dealing the Panchos a rough time on Jack Kramer's current cross-country tour. Kramer has offered a big bonus to the winning combination at the end of the 100-match trip. The doubles will be for two out of three sets.

The feature singles match will send Gonzales against Trabert in two out of three sets. Although Trabert has been outclassed by the great Gonzales, who has already cinched their $25,000 bonus in the 100-match series, he never quits trying and gave Gonzales a sound thumping at Spokane last week.

Kramer, considered by many to be the greatest professional player of all time, returns to the wars here, probably against Segura in the one-set singles opener. Kramer is getting in shape for the coming national professional tournament in Los Angeles and his addition to the program gives local fans a chance to see five of the world's best net aces.

Lions club spokesmen said tickets will remain on sale through Monday afternoon at Lampert's Sporting Goods Store, 226 East Main st. Good seats also will be available at the box office at the school, they said. Doors will open at 6 p.m.

Finsterwald Leads Open

Dallas, Tex. — (U.P.) — Dazzling Dow Finsterwald turned on a red-hot putter Saturday to wrest the Dallas Centennial Open golf tournament lead away from young Don January with a birdie-putting exhibition that gave him a 31-35—66 and a 54-hole total of an even 200.

The 26-year-old former Ohio university links star, who showed a gallery of 6,000 why he is the season's top money winner, ramed down birdie putts of 8, 18, 10, 15 and 12 feet and another three-inch tap-in after his 40-yard chip shot for an Eagle died short of the hole on No. 12.

While Finsterwald added his 66 to two earlier rounds of 67, January ran into trouble early and lost his three-stroke lead after only two holes of today's third round. He pulled even later, on the backside of Preston Hollow country club's tight but treacherous par 35-35—70 layout, but could not hold his game together.

Milwaukie Hits Stop Red No Hitter in 11th

By United Press
The Milwaukee Braves missed winning a nine-inning no-hitter by only one putout today before finally beating out the Cincinnati Redlegs, 2-1, on an 11th inning single by Rookie Frank Torre.

The Braves didn't make a hit off Johnny Klippstein or Joe Black but held a 1-0 lead away with two out in the ninth. Then Ted Kluszewski singled and scored on a double by Wally Post.

Jack Dittmer singled in the 10th for the Braves' first hit and then Hank Aaron tripled with one out in the 11th. Black purposely walked the next two batters filling the bases and then Torre connected for the game-winning single. Torre had driven in the Braves' first run in the second inning when he hit a sacrifice fly after Klippstein loaded the bases with a hit batsman and two walks.

Ray Crone went the route for the Braves, limiting the Redlegs to seven hits and gaining his third victory of the season.

First-baseman Dale Long set a Major League record when he homered in his seventh straight game and led the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 6-2 triumph over the Philadelphia Phillies. Lou Gehrig, Ken Williams, Willie Mays, Walker Cooper and George Kelly shared the previous record of homering in six straight games.

Vernon Law spaced out nine Philadelphia hits to win his second game.

Roger Craig turned in a three-hitter and Sandy Amoros, Randy Jackson and Carl Furillo homered to lead the Brooklyn Dodgers to a 6-0 victory over the New York Giants in the other N.L. game. Chicago at St. Louis was postponed.

In the American League, Harvey Kuenn hit two doubles and two singles to lead the Detroit Tigers to a 12-6 decision over the Kansas City Athletics. Southpaw Billy Hoelt went the distance for the Tigers to win his fourth game while Jack Crimian suffered his third loss.

Carlos Paula hit a two-run double and Chuck Stobbs pitched an eight-hitter as the Washington Senators beat the Boston Red Sox, 4-1. Ted Williams, appearing as a pinch-hitter, drove in the Red Sox' run with a single in the seventh inning.

Cleveland at Chicago was postponed but New York was at Baltimore in a Saturday night doubleheader.

Seals Halt Star Rally

San Francisco — (U.P.) — The San Francisco Seals built up a solid lead yesterday and then withstood a four-run ninth inning by Hollywood to win their Pacific Coast League game 6-4.

Jerry Casale went the route for the Seals despite the ninth inning flurry and chalked up his sixth win with one loss as he stopped a San Francisco losing streak at three games.

Today the Stars will use Fred Green (2-1) and Cholly Naranjo (3-4) and the Sals will use R. G. Smith (2-3) and Jack Osborn (2-4).

Pin Trophies Awarded at Dinner Meet

Champions and awards winners were recognized and trophies and certificates were presented last week at the Medford Bowling association's dinner and annual meeting.

William W. McCulloch, Portland, executive director of the American Bowling congress was a special guest and speaker at the dinner at the Elks lodge in Ashland on Monday evening. The meeting was attended by 198 bowlers and sponsors from 70 teams participating in league play at Medford Bowling lanes during the 1955-1956 season.

Each of the six league championship teams received a trophy and a certificate for the sponsor. Individual trophies went to team members. Men who rolled 81 games or more in their respective circuits and had high average, high game or high series also were presented trophies.

In addition the Classic league made an achievement award to Bob Stevens for a 10-pin improvement in his average over the previous season. The loop also made awards for high team game and high team series.

Awards of Merit
Paul Dimick and Hal Schroeder currently have high game and high series, respectively, in the association for the year and their scores will stand for awards of merit if they are not bettered in the Southern Oregon tournament or in the summer leagues before July 31.

McCulloch, who is a member of the ABC new equipment committee, described the ABC tourney just completed in Rochester, N.Y. He said his committee meets three or four times a year to inspect new equipment developments and to check field testing.

The ABC official stated that fully automatic pinspotters probably won't be used in the ABC tourney for many years because scorers cannot see pins through the machine to permit scoring on boards used at the rear of a building.

ABC is the parent body of local associations. The executive committee consists of a president, 10 vice-presidents and 44 executive directors.

Medford Bowling association officers for 1956-1957 with terms beginning on August 1 are H. A. (Buz) Green, president; Frank Chapman, vice-president; Les Schneider, T. R. (Dick) Spain, Stan Strauss and Ray Wise, executive directors, and Paul Dimick, secretary-treasurer.

Bowlers and teams gaining honors during the season were:

Dale Long Sets Mark in Homers

Philadelphia — (U.P.) — Dale Long, Pittsburgh Pirates first baseman, became the first major league player ever to hit home runs in seven consecutive games Saturday when he hit a homer over the right field wall in the eighth inning against the Philadelphia Phillies.

Long, who now leads the National league in homers with 13, hit one of reliever Ben Flowers' pitches out of the park to break the home run record of six straight games held by only five other players.

Mobbed at Home
The strapping lefthanded swinger was mobbed at home plate by the entire Pittsburgh team as he crossed the plate to make the score 5-2 in favor of Pittsburgh. The Pirates won the game 6-2. He was the leadoff batter in the eighth inning.

Long just missed a homer in the first inning when he doubled high on the rightfield wall. In the third, he flied deep to Richie Ashburn and in the fifth he smashed a long line drive which Elmer Valo speared.

Pirates manager Bobby Bragan had moved Long up from clean-up to number three batting position to give him a chance for more appearances at the plate.

Title Bout Now Sought By Fullmer

New York — (U.P.) — Brawny Gene Fullmer, inspired by his bloody victory over European champion Charles Humez, offered $100,000 today for a shot at the world middleweight crown.

Fullmer of West Jordan, Utah said a millionaire friend would underwrite a $100,000 guarantee to Sugar Ray Robinson if necessary to entice the 35-year-old champion into the ring.

The 24-year-old mining welder stood out as unquestioned challenger today because of the power and durability he displayed in Friday night's nationally televised and broadcast 10-rounder with blood-smeared Humez of France at Madison Square garden.

Plunging in and out against the persistently advancing French veteran, Fullmer not only won a lopsided decision but he staggered him three times and appeared a certain kayo victor had the bout been slated for 15 rounds.

Gene's fourth straight victory of 1956 was achieved against the champion of Europe, the world's top-rated contender and the 13-10 favorite at ringside. Fullmer had been ranked second to the Frenchman among contenders. Moreover, 29-year-old Humez had a slight pull in the weights. He scaled 159 3-4 pounds to Gene's 158.

Death Takes Grid Coach Red Strader

Berkeley, Calif. — (U.P.) — Norman (Red) Strader, 53, former head coach of the San Francisco Forty Niners of the National Professional Football League, died in his sleep early Saturday at his Berkeley home.

The former grid great from St. Mary's College was named All-American fullback on Walter Camp's third team in 1924—although he weighed less than 150 pounds.

Strader's death came unexpectedly, although he had been under a doctor's care for a heart condition. His wife, Helen, heard him moan in his sleep shortly before midnight. He was rushed to Herrick Memorial Hospital where he was pronounced dead on arrival.

After graduating from St. Mary's in 1926, he signed with the Cleveland Indians and was farmed out to baseball teams in Hollywood and Wheeling, W. Va. During his professional baseball career he also played professional football with the Chicago Cardinals and the Chicago Bulls.

Back to SM
In 1928 he took a coaching job at Regis college, Denver, but returned to St. Mary's in 1932 as Madigan's chief assistant. After Madigan's resignation, Strader assumed head football duties at St. Mary's.

In 1945, he joined the New York Yankees of the new All-American Football Conference as backfield coach. He became head coach in 1948 and continued with

New Faces On Cheney Stud Roster

New faces in the line-up of the Medford Cheney Studs baseball team this season will include Dick Toney, Don LeBeau, Jim Steffen and John Koveny, player manager Jack Cooney has announced.

Toney is a Lewis and Clark college player and was with the Grants Pass entry in the Southern Oregon League last season. He plays second base or shortstop. LeBeau, second or third baseman, is just out of the Army. He played service ball.

Koveny, an outfielder, is serving his first year as Medford high head baseball mentor. An ex-University of Oregon diamond, he has a background of pro ball in the old Western International League, and has played three seasons with the Coos Bay-North Bend Lumberjacks, appearing against the Studs.

Steffen, also an outfielder, is from University of California at Los Angeles.

Roelandt Returns
Back with the Studs this season will be Frank Roelandt, catcher. Roelandt, head basketball coach and assistant baseball mentor at Medford high, has played for Boise in the pro Pioneer League and the Williston, N. D., in the Mandak League, since his previous service with the Studs. He is an ex-Oregon State college diamond star.

Cooney will hold down the first base spot. The skipper, who took the managerial post in mid-season of 1955, has served several years of pro experience. He was with the Medford Rogues of the Far West League in 1950.

Don White and Jerry Droscher, from Roseburg, and Bob Selsor, Jim Kelly, Derald Wooton and Terry Maddox have previously been listed as pitchers the Studs will have this year. Selsor is an infielder but is slated to see duty mainly as a pitcher this season. Maddox and Wooton are ticketed for outfield duty.

the club when it became the Yanks of the NFL in 1950. When the Forty Niners established a nationwide scouting system in 1952 they asked Strader to take charge.

In 1955 he took over the head coaching chores when Buck Shaw was fired after a mediocre season. But Strader lasted only through the 1955 schedule.
