

Many Campus Honors Awarded To Students

End of the year activities at schools and colleges have brought many Medford students into the news in recent weeks. Miss Janet Coyle and Miss Sally Harris were two of 131 students chosen for membership by Phi Kappa Phi, national all-school scholastic honor society at Oregon State college.

The top scholastic 10 per cent of the senior class, 3 per cent of the junior class, and selected graduate students and faculty members are eligible for membership. Emphasizing scholarship and character in college students and stimulating mental achievement are purposes of the organization.

Miss Coyle, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles L. Coyle, 708 Park street, is a senior majoring in agriculture. Miss Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester O. Harris, 707 South Oakdale street, is a junior in elementary education at OSC.

Both honor students are graduates of Medford high school.

Gordon P. Ashby is one of 17 students at Oregon State college to receive OSC Mothers' club scholarships of $195. The scholarship funds are raised by various local OSC Mothers' club units throughout the state and are presented annually at Mothers' weekend to deserving college students.

The student, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ashby, 830 Bennett avenue, is a sophomore majoring in business and technology at OSC. He is a 1954 graduate of Medford high school.

Miss Melissa Jennings, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George S. Jennings, Saginaw drive and Miss Viola Russell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Russell, 204 North Ivy Street, have been tapped for membership in Sacajawean, sophomore women's honor society at Lewis and Clark college. The tapping was a part of the annual May fete ceremonies at the college.

Formal initiation and election of officers were held May 21, and Miss Russell was elected president of the group.

Jerry Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry O. Peterson, 3857 Jacksonville highway, is an honor student in chemical engineering at Oregon State college. The young man, a sophomore, was recently announced winner of an award for having the second highest grades of any member of his national social fraternity, Sigma Pi. The fraternity has about 50 chapters in all parts of the nation.

He is also a member of the mathematics honor society, Pi Mu Epsilon, and of Phi Eta Sigma, scholastic honor society at OSC. He has been on the scholastic honor roll each quarter since enrollment. He is vice president and rush chairman of his fraternity and a member of Silver Wings, ROTC drill team.

He has been selected by Weyerhaeuser Timber company to work in the company laboratory at Springfield, Ore., this summer.

Miss Ann Padgham, sophomore student in the University of California college of letters and science at Davis, has been awarded an activity pin for her work in the student body organization.

The award was presented at the final student assembly of the spring semester last week. More than 135 students received honors based on participation in athletics and other activities.

Miss Padgham is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Padgham, 2707 Springbrook road.

Miss Margaret Huson was awarded an honors certificate at the annual awards convocation at Willamette university this week. Miss Huson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Darrall Huson, 45 Lindley street, is a member of the graduating class. She recently was named May queen, has served as president of Associated Women students and of Mu Phi Epsilon, music fraternity. She served as song leader of her sorority, Delta Gamma, and was a member of various music groups on the campus. She attended college on an Elks Lumber company scholarship.

Kenneth Piland, a freshman at Lewis and Clark college, has been elected to Phi Mu Alpha (Sinfonia), men's national honor fraternity for music majors. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Piland, 834 West Thirteenth street.

Medford students were honored during the traditional Junior Weekend activities at the University of Oregon. Those chosen for membership in honor groups were Darrell Brittan, James Perry, Michael R. DeVore and Richard Johnson.

Young Brittan received the Maurice Harold Hunter Leadership award and was also tapped by Friars, senior men's honorary. He is president-elect of the student body.

James Perry was tapped for Druids, junior men's honorary, while young DeVore was chosen for membership in Skull and Dagger, sophomore men's honorary.

Asklepiads, honorary for pre-medical students, tapped Richard Johnson, a sophomore in pre-medical studies.

Family Arrives From California

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wilson and daughters, Deborah and Nancy, arrived Saturday from San Jose, Calif., to visit with relatives for a week. They are houseguests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Green on Sunset court. Mrs. Wilson is the former Miss Betty Green, and is a former secretary to the late Mayor Diamond L. Flynn.

They will visit Mr. Wilson's mother, Mrs. Helen Holt Wilson, and his grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. William W. P. Holt, 11 Corning court. This is Mr. Wilson's first visit home in four years. He is associated with the San Jose branch of International Business Machines.

They also will visit numerous friends.

Chopped avocado, tomato and green onion make an excellent relish to serve with hamburgers. Season with salt, coarsely ground pepper, oil and vinegar.

Student Receives PTA Scholarship; Others Awarded

Miss Sharon Lee Whitlock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Whitlock, of 1425 Crater Lake avenue, has been awarded a four-year scholarship in elementary education to Oregon State college by the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers. She is a member of the graduating class of Medford High school, and plans to attend OSC beginning next fall.

In addition, Miss Whitlock also received a one year award from Pacific university at Forest Grove, with honors at entrance which is the highest recognition that a graduating senior can acquire upon admission to a college. She also was presented with a one year full tuition scholarship to Southern Oregon college by the Oregon State System of Higher Education.

Miss Whitlock is a member of Torch Honor society, Future Teachers of America, is secretary of the high school band and has been a majorette in the same organization for the past two years. After school hours, she is employed by Medford branch, First National bank. For several years she has entertained in the valley and in many other cities throughout the west, both with dancing and with accordion music.
