Steve Bilko Gets Mad, Hits Homers

By SCOTT BAILLIE
United Press Sports Writer
"Don't get Ty Cobb mad," used to be the fearful watchword in the American League and the same might be applied today to Steve Bilko, the larping first baseman of the Los Angeles who is driving toward a new PCL home run record.

Big Steve was cruising along on a streak of five home runs in five straight games before yesterday's twin bill with Seattle. One homer in that opening contest would have tied the mark of six for six recorded by the Cherubs' Gene Lillard in 1935. But Don Fracchia of the Rainiers held Bilko hitless, although the Angels won 4-3.

Came the nightcap and the angry slugger smashed two circuit clouts—his 17th and 18th of the year—to propel the Angels to a 5-4 win and a sweep of the doubleheader.

Mounties Face PCL Leaders
Los Angeles, which meets last place Vancouver on Tuesday, moved three games ahead in the PCL race off yesterday's triumphs and will meet the futile Mounties with a six game winning streak on the fire.

Bob Anderson, who has been credited with three of those six wins, saved the nightcap for Los Angeles and posted his fifth win of the year against no defeats. He has had 23 relief appearances.

In other action, San Diego bounced from sixth place to fourth by topping Portland twice, 9-2 and 4-2, while Hollywood and San Francisco divided. The Seals took the opener, 5-4, on Bob DiPietro's two run homer in the ninth frame. Hollywood won the walkout, 6-4.

Kazak Leads Attack
Eddie Kazak, who flirted with fame 10 years ago as third baseman for the St. Louis Cardinals, was the big man in San Diego's thumping of Portland. The sharp-featured, soft-spoken veteran went four for four in the opener and clubbed a home run in the process to help pitcher John Carmichael post his fifth win.

Kazak's fourth home run of the year in the second game, coupled with five hit pitching by Dave Hoskins, helped cinch the finale.

Seal, Angel PCL Slates Protested
San Francisco — (U.P.) — The mid-week day game schedules of San Francisco and Los Angeles came under fire at a special meeting of the Pacific Coast League directors today.

President Fred Davis of the Sacramento Solons led a fight to force the Seals and Angels to return to a night game schedule or agree to revise the present method of dividing up game receipts.

David said the present method of giving the home club 60 per cent and the visitors 40 per cent of the net receipts does not give the latter club enough revenue when they play before small daytime crowds in Los Angeles and San Francisco.

David said if he fails in his move to force the two clubs to return to night ball, he will propose that the Seals and Angels retain all their home game receipts on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday and allows the Solons to do the same when the clubs are playing in Sacramento on those days.

Four Persons Killed As Truck Hits Train

Ravenna, Ohio — (U.P.) — Four persons were killed and about 15 were injured today when a truck crashed into a speeding passenger train, derailing all its five cars.

The Pennsylvania Railroad said the four victims were the driver of the truck, a brakeman on the train, a passenger and a man in a building near the tracks struck by a derailed car.

The railroad said its "Morning Steeler" en route to Cleveland from Pittsburgh was going through Atwater, 10 miles south of here, about 70 miles an hour. A railroad official said the speed was "normal" for that portion of the trip.

The railroad's public relations office in Cleveland said the truck struck the rear of the train's diesel locomotive, derailing it, a combination mail-express car, a parlor car and three coach cars.

Barbers To Strive for Haircut Price of $2
Des Moines, Ia. — (U.P.) — T. C. MacDuffie of Chicago, general president of the Associated Master Barbers and Beauticians, said last night that barbers will strive for a standard price of $2 a haircut.

"We must continue for this goal, and right today the economy of the situation dictates that $1.50 for a haircut is not enough," he said.

Chair Crashes To Floor; Dinner Guest Sleeps On

Huddersfield, England — (U.P.) — Town recorder John Drabble was concluding a speech at the mayor's inauguration banquet with a toast "to Huddersfield" when a snore tore through the dining room.

The well-dressed guests, comfortably wine and dined, turned all eyes to the snorer's table. There sat Stead Baxter, dead to the world, his chair tipping slowly backward.

The chair capsized with a bang and Baxter landed almost in the lap of a caricature. Ushers quickly carried him away as he snored on.

Hitchcock Meets With Eisenhower

Washington — (U.P.) — President Eisenhower discussed Oregon politics today with Philip S. Hitchcock, defeated recently by former Interior Secretary Douglas McKay for the Oregon Republican U.S. senatorial nomination.

Hitchcock told reporters that, as a loyal Republican, he will back McKay in the November election. He predicted that McKay would defeat Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.).

Hitchcock said he was in the East to attend a meeting of the general assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the U.S.A. He said he was invited to drop by the White House while he was in this area.

Asked what he and the president discussed, Hitchcock said, "I don't play golf so I just had a personal chat with him."

Told that there was some speculation he was under consideration for a federal job, Hitchcock said "nothing was said about a job except the job of beating Morse this fall."

OLCC Officers Arrest 15 for Drinking at Scappoose Drag Race

Portland — (U.P.) — Fifteen OLCC officers were arrested in an Oregon Liquor Control commission raid on drag races at Scappoose yesterday afternoon and the action nearly set off a riot.

OLCC investigators who entered the park as "paying customers" arrested 15 youths. The arrests brought about an afternoon of tension at the improvised racetrack for hot rods.

Arrested officials were surrounded by more than 500 persons at the track and were hard pressed to round up their prisoners. A commission spokesman said five of those arrested escaped when the crowd pressed around the police cars, protesting the arrests.

Several others who escaped during the meet were arrested later on the streets of St. Helens. Ten were lodged in St. Helens jail last night.

OLCC investigators said they were called into the drag race meet by state police at Scappoose after reports of drinking among the teen-age Sunday afternoon crowds.

Old, Young British Nudes Agree to Terms
London — (U.P.) — The old and young nudes who pose for London's artist colony were back on speaking terms today.

They divided into two equally unclothed camps Sunday in dispute over wages but finally decided to agree and accept a raise of 73 cents an hour.

The older nudes, some of them as much as 50, opposed the increase on grounds it would attract younger girls and cost them their jobs.

OLCC raiding force said "When we approached the track we could see kids all over the place sitting on cases of beer and drinking out in the open. McCreary, who had only two officers with him, said 'I didn't know whether we were going to get out of there in one piece or not for awhile. It seemed as if the whole crowd was ganging up on us.'"

He added: "All of the drivers co-operated with us. They have a 'knights of the road' pact which binds them to support the principles we are trying to enforce. Most of our trouble came from the crowd of young spectators."

Willamette Records Radioactive Fallout
Salem — (U.P.) — Sensitive instruments at Willamette University Sunday recorded a double dose of radioactivity, a week after an H-bomb "shot" in the Pacific released particles in the world's wind currents.

Dr. R. L. Purbrick, head of the Willamette physics department, said there was at least twice the normal amount of radioactivity present, but he emphasized there was no danger. He said he was not sure what route the particles had taken from Bikini island which is about 5,500 miles from here.

Purbrick said his geiger counter recorded 44 counts per minute late Saturday. His next reading at noon Sunday was 86 counts, which indicated the fallout had begun. The count dropped to 76 a half hour later and by 4:30 p.m. was back to a normal 46.
