

World's Greatest Tennis Aces Will Display Talents Tonight

This is the night for which valley sports fans have been waiting — when five of the world's greatest tennis players display their wares in the Jack Kramer national tennis tour at Hedrick junior high school. The program, sponsored by the Medford Lions club, starts at 8 o'clock and gym doors will open at 6 o'clock.

Australia and they're all good boys." Kramer said the tour is doing about 40 per cent more business than last year, when a short tournament was held in each city.

A return to the northwest is like "old home week" for Traber. Although this is his first visit to the area, Traber's parents lived in Portland for a number of years and he is named after a Vancouver, Wash., couple and he has a cousin living in Beaverton. Traber was born in Cincinnati.

To be seen in action, besides Kramer, considered to be the all-time greatest star, will be Pancho Segura, world doubles champion, Rex Hartwig, Australian Davis Cup star, Pancho Gonzales, world singles champion, and Tony Trabert, world amateur king.

Playing for Bonus
Traber and Gonzales are playing for a $25,000 bonus, which already has been clinched by Gonzales. However, Traber realizes that his tennis future is dead unless he can improve his showing in the waning weeks of the tour and every night he goes after Gonzales with renewed zest. He failed in Portland last night when he fell before Gonzales, 7-5, 6-3, for the 72nd loss against 23 wins, before 1,500 fans. Segura beat Kramer last night, 6-2, and Gonzales and Kramer defeated Traber and Hartwig, 7-5, 6-4.

"We didn't realize Gonzales was so good when we paired him with Traber for the tour," Kramer said. Traber had won every amateur title in the big tournaments and looked like a sensation but he had been unable to match strokes with Gonzales, whose serve has been clocked at 112 miles per hour, faster than anyone in the tennis world. He is fast making tennis enthusiasts forget Kramer, who is now getting in shape for a try in the upcoming national professional tournament at Los Angeles.

"Right now I couldn't come close in the tournament," Kramer said. "We'll have such stars as Gonzales, Traber, Segura, Hartwig and Frank Sedgman of

Stan the Man, Young Hurlers Shine as Cards Subdue Cubs

By FRED DOWN

United Press Sports Writer
Old pro Stan Musial shared the credit with a pair of kid pitchers today for keeping the St. Louis Cardinals breathing down the Milwaukee Braves' necks in the bunched up National League pennant race.

The 35-year-old Musial knocked in a total of seven runs and had four hits in six at bats Sunday to swing the "big stick" in the Cardinals' 11-9 and 12-2 triumphs over the Chicago Cubs. But Stan's slugging might not have been enough except for the fine hurling of 20-year old Lindy McDaniel and 25-year old Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell.

McDaniel, a $40,000 bonus baby from Hollis, Okla., stopped the Cubs with one run in the last 4 2/3 innings of the opener to gain credit for his fourth victory without a loss. Then Mizell, back after a two-year hitch in the Army, fired overpowering five-hit and 10-strikeout ball in the nightcap to increase his season's record to 4-2.

Braves Beat Redlegs
The victories left the Cardinals 12 percentage points behind the first-place Braves, who beat the Cincinnati Redlegs, 7-2, although St. Louis has a theoretical half-game bulge in the "games behind" column.

Musial, who increased his average to .292, had two singles in the opener and broke an 8-8 tie with a single in the fifth. In the nightcap, he blasted a double and a three-run homer, knocking in four runs.

The Braves clung to first place by beating the Redlegs for the fifth time in seven meetings on the strength of a 14-hit attack that chased Art Fowler in four innings. Frank Torre had four hits and Hank Aaron three to lead the Braves' assault. Lew Burdette, with relief aid from Dave Jolly, picked up his third win of the season.

In the American League, the New York Yankees were rained out but maintained their 3 1/2-game first-place lead when the three other first-division teams split doubleheaders.

Early Wynn pitched a five-hitter to give the Cleveland Indians a 4-2 decision after the Chicago White Sox pulled out a 15-inning, 5-4 triumph in the first game. It was the fifth victory of the year for Wynn, who topped Tribe jinx pitcher Jack Harshman. Jim Wynn, obtained last week from Baltimore, scored his first victory for the White Sox in the opener when he singled in the winning run in the 15th frame for a four-hour and 52-minute struggle.

Tom Brewer homered and hung on for his sixth win as the Boston Red Sox won their opener, 9-7, but Roy Siegers drove in four runs including the game-winner in the 10th inning as the Senators won the nightcap, 11-10.

Art Ditmar pitched his second shutout of the year in giving

Racers Try Bumping for Auto Chase

Indianapolis, Ind.—(U.P.)—The pressure was on a dozen or so speed demons today in their race against the weather and the clock as they attempted to crash into the lineup for Wednesday's 500-mile Memorial Day classic.

The speedway set aside 63 minutes of qualifying time for "dumping." The trials were scheduled to end Sunday, but when rain washed out Saturday and most of Sunday, the management decided on an extra two-hour period.

Five cars were qualified and one of them eliminated in 57 minutes available to complete the 33-car field Sunday. Twelve other racers, including Nino Farina's Ferrari, remained lined up near the starting apron overnight so they would not lose their turn.

Griffith Fastest
Veteran Cliff Griffith, 40-year old Indianapolis industrialist plant foreman making a racing comeback, was the fastest qualifier Sunday. He averaged 141.471 miles an hour in the same car which the late Jerry Hoyt put on the pole last year.

Other qualifiers were Johnnie Tolan, Denver, Colo., 140.061; Eddie Johnson, Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, 139.093; Duke Dinsmore, Dayton, Ohio, 138.430; and Eddie Sachs, Indianapolis, 137.373. The latter's car was ousted by Johnson.

Joey Giardello, Cotton Contend
New York—(U.P.)—Joey Giardello of Philadelphia, ex-middleweight contender, is favored at 2-1 to turn the tables on Charley Cotton of Toledo, Ohio, tonight in their return 10-round TV fight at St. Nicholas Arena.

Cotton, 26, won an upset, unanimous decision over 25-year-old Joey at St. Nick's three months ago.

Don January Golf Champ
Dallas, Tex.—(U.P.)—Dallas Centennial Open champion Don January and a couple of other 26-year old comparative newcomers to the golfing tour offered living proof today that collegiate golf is spawning the "comers" along the golfing gold dust trail.

January, a hometown lad who registers out of Abilene, Tex., after three years as a member of the national collegiate champion North Texas State College golf team, picked up his first pro championship Sunday — a rich $6,000 — by winning the open with a 12-under par 268.

Dow Finsterwald, who primed for his pro career at Ohio University shared second and third place money of $5,400 with national PGA champion Doug Ford of Mahopac, N.Y. at 269, while still another graduate of that fine North Texas State team, Billy Maxwell of Odessa, Tex., finished fourth at 272 and won $1,800.

Washington Net Titlist
Corvallis—(U.P.)—The University of Washington piled up 15 points here to handily win its 17th consecutive Northern division tennis title yesterday.

The Huskies had piled up an insurmountable lead in Saturday's action before rain washed out the final matches.

Washington's Doyle Perkins trounced OSC's Norm Merrill, 6-1, 6-0, for the singles crown. Perkins then teamed with Gary Linden to beat Washington team-

Latin American Leagues Warned
Detroit—(U.P.)—Latin American baseball leagues have been warned that if they don't sign agreements with organized baseball they'll get no more major league players.

The notice came from Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick after the quarterly meeting of major league club owners and executives.

Frick said the majors have an agreement, with the Caribbean baseball Federation governing play of major league players in the winter season.

Glendale Trips Colts In Rogue Valley Loop

Glendale's defending champions spoiled the debut of the Cheney Colts at the fairgrounds here yesterday afternoon by edging the loop's newest entry 6 to 4 in a Rogue Valley League 1956 baseball inaugural.

In other starters in the semi-pro circuit, Ashland tripped Butte Falls 13 to 3. Cave Junction downed Camp White 10 to 4 and Grants Pass topped Eagle Point 16 to 8.

There was no scoring and only one hit in the final four innings at the fairgrounds yesterday. Glendale put its seven hits off hurler Kay Kelley together with bases on balls and Colt miscues to score one run each in the first, second and fifth innings and three in the fourth.

Cheney's nine used two of its three hits allowed by chucker Duane Miller with bases on balls for two scores each in the third and fourth stanzas.

Strikes Out
Miller along with his three-hitter struck out 14 batters and he walked Colts nine times and hit one batter with a pitch. Kelley fanned seven Millers and gave up six bases on balls.

Jack Snellings got on base for the Millers in the fifth and toured the paths on two passed balls and a ground out.

Kay Kelley drew a walk in the second inning for the Colts. Bob Serak doubled to left field. The throw home was in time to tag Kelley but Miller dropped the ball in the collision of the two pitchers and the Colt chucker was safe. Serak reached third on the play and then swiped home. Kelley and Serak drew walks in the fifth inning and Harvey Tonn blasted a long fly to center field for a triple.

Few balls were hit into the outfield at the fairgrounds. The Colts got three past the infielders and Glendale five.

At Cave Junction the Camp White team got all of the four runs and five of their eight hits in the third inning. Larry Irvin, John Drew, Norm Loop, Dick Wooton and Bob Nelson got the raps and an error helped the score.

Ron Maurer homered for Cave Junction with two on in the first inning.

Stevenson Picked For Wilson High
Portland — (U.P.) — Chuck Stevenson, basketball coach at Baker high school, was named Saturday as head hoop mentor at Portland's new Woodrow Wilson high school.

Stevenson has been head basketball coach at Baker since 1952 after serving as an assistant at the school for two years.

Hughes Nabs Golf Mantle

Roseburg—(U.P.)—Ben Hughes out of Portland's Eastmoreland, captured the annual Roseburg Invitational Amateur golf championship here yesterday by nosing out 17-year-old Joe Hallmark of Roseburg, 1 up.

Hughes took a 2-up lead at the turn but Hallmark evened the score by winning the 13th and 14th. Hughes took the lead again for keeps with a par 3 on the 17th while Hallmark hit a trap.

Cal Relays Mile Taken By Dellinger
By HAL WOOD

Modesto, Calif.—(U.P.)—The tune-up for the late-June Olympic trials was in full swing today and the favorites started to shape up for the world's biggest track meet.

In the wake of record-smashing Saturday performances at the California Relays here, the IC4A, the Big Ten and other meets, these are the men to watch when it comes time for the showdown on the U.S. Olympic chances.

100-yard dash—Bobby Morrow of Abilene Christian Texas, who ran the distance twice at Modesto in 9.4 and looked so powerful that it would take a jet plane to beat him.

220-yard dash—Dave Sime of Duke, who already has set the world mark in this event.

Lea Cracks Record
440-yard dash—Jim Lea of the U.S. Air Force, who cracked the world mark at Modesto with a clocking of 45.8, compared with the eight-year-old mark of 46 flat set by Herb McKinley of Jamaica.

Half mile—Don't overlook old Mal Whitfield of Los Angeles State. Whitfield, a whiz in two previous Olympics, is rounding into form. However world record holder Lon Spurrier, of San Francisco, is the man to beat.

Mile—Oregon's Bill Dellinger was timed in 4:07.5 in the California Relays—with no competition closer than 70 yards. Dellinger also is the country's top two-miler.

Hurdles—Jack Davis of the U. S. Navy is the lad who may come closest to breaking the world record in the highs.

Pole vault—Bob Gutowski of Occidental won the California Relays with a leap of 15 feet 3/4 inch, the same time as Don Bragg of Villanova was clearing 15 feet in the IC4A meet.

The meet at Modesto was won by USC with 39 1/2 points, followed by UCLA, 38. San Diego Navy, 28 1/2; San Francisco Olympic Club, 27 1/2; and Abilene Christian, 25.
