

Local and Personal

From Vacation—Mr. and Mrs. Swayne A. Jensen, 1036 West 13th st., arrived home last week end from a three-week vacation trip to Iowa, Illinois and Missouri. They visited relatives. The Jensens formerly lived in Iowa.

Mercy Flight—George E. Terry, Agness, was flown from there to Grants Pass yesterday for treatment of a heart condition. The flight was made in a Mercy Flight, Inc., air ambulance from Medford. He was the 494th patient flown by the non-profit air ambulance corporation.

Clothes Fire—Firemen were called to the Richard Fanger home, 7 Windsor ave., about 7:20 yesterday when contents of an automatic clothes dryer were ignited. Damage was confined to the dryer, firemen said. Seven gasoline pumps were flushed from around parked cars in downtown Medford during the week end.

Gets Office—Sally J. Harris Medford has been named senate secretary of the Associated Students of Oregon State college. The senate is the main governing body of ASOSC and includes members, representatives, and leaders of all major campus activities. Miss Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester O. Harris of 707 South Oakdale ave., Medford, is a junior majoring in elementary education at OSC. She is a 1953 graduate of Medford high school.

Blind School Students On Summer Vacation

The two Medford students who attend the Oregon State School for the Blind arrived home Thursday for summer vacation. They are Jeanne Levitzow, 9, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Levitzow, 517 Daniels ave., and Douglas Daniels, 6, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Daniels, 560 Charlotte Anne rd.

The Levitzow's daughter has just completed the fourth grade and has attended the school during the full four school years. The Daniels' son, entered the school as a kindergarten student last fall when he was 5½, the age at which they accept students at the school.

8th Graders Set Promotion Event

Central Point—Promotion exercises will be held for 121 eighth grade students of Central Point Junior High school at 8 p.m., Tuesday, at the school gymnasium.

Scholarship awards will be presented by Don Patterson, chairman of the board of directors of school district 6. School Supt. H. P. Jewett will present diplomas to the 121 graduates.

Principal C. A. Meyer will deliver the graduation address. The Rev. Donald Whitney, pastor of the Church of Christ, will give the invocation. Four band numbers will be presented during the evening by the junior high band directed by Harry Meyers.

Crater High school held its baccalaureate exercises for the class of 1956 yesterday in the school gymnasium.

The Rev. Whitney delivered the baccalaureate sermon and The Rev. Paul O. Kroon gave the invocation and benediction.

The varsity choir and the high school band presented four numbers.

Driver Gets Citation Following Accident

Edward Edward Greenwood, 31, Crater hotel, Medford, was cited for failure to operate on the right side of the highway Sunday after his vehicle collided on highway 60 with another car operated by Thomas Clayton Anderson, 31, of 709 West Jackson st., state police said.

The accident occurred at 8:22 p.m.

State officers said Greenwood was traveling north on the highway when he apparently went to sleep, crossed the center line and collided head-on with Anderson's southbound car.

Polly Anderson, 31, a passenger in Anderson's car, suffered minor cuts and bruises, but was not taken to the hospital. No one else was injured, state police reported.

Woman Aids Police In Capturing Husband

Middlebury, Vt.—(U.P.)—A pretty waitress who aided police in the capture of her husband today debated whether to stand beside him when he faced murder charges.

William E. Boswell, 36, was captured here Saturday by state police who were tipped about his arrival by his wife, Arlene.

Boswell's arrest ended a 12-state hunt which began after the body of blonde Philadelphia heiress Mrs. Anne Harris Van Ryne, 23, was found in his Carson City, Nev., apartment.

Police said Mrs. Van Ryne had been strangled and stuffed in a closet. The woman, about four months pregnant, had apparently been choked with a belt found beneath her partially-clad body.

Two Added To FBI's List of Most Wanted

Washington—(U.P.)—Two vicious gunmen, one of them who will "kill without provocation," were added today to the FBI's "ten most wanted" list.

The fugitives are Carmine di Biase, a New York City killer, and Eugene Newman, a "trigger-happy" bandit who shot his way out of a police trap in Buffalo, N. Y., last year.

The pair replaced two members of the Boston Brink's robbery gang, James Faherty and Thomas Richardson, who were captured by FBI agents two weeks ago in Dorchester, Mass.

Di Biase is wanted for the killing of Michael Errecciello in a lower east side social club in 1951 as the victim slept in a chair.

Newman was one of three men who attempted to hold up an armed car in Buffalo last August.

Bulgarian Expects Tito Visit To Be Fruitful
Moscow—(U.P.)—Premier Nikolai Bulganin said Sunday at a diplomatic reception the Soviet Union has the "best expectations" for the forthcoming visit of Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia.

The premier told newsmen, "We expect this visit will serve to strengthen the development of relations between our countries."

The Yugoslav president arrives here early in June.

A false fire alarm resulted in panic that cost 72 lives in a hall at Calumet, Mich., on Christmas day in 1913.

Nine Forest Fires Sweep Over England

London—(U.P.)—Nine forest fires swept through England's parched thatched-roof country yesterday and today, threatening towns and blocking communications.

The worst blaze laid 2,000 acres waste in Dorset, some 1,000 miles southwest of London and famed as the "Wessex" country of Thomas Hardy's novels. Some of the fires were expected to burn for several more days.

A 60-foot wall of flame swept up to the little village of Wareham in Dorset early today but a sudden shift in the wind averted disaster and the village was saved.

Nearly 400 firemen, airmen, soldiers and townspeople turned out to beat down the last flames that had cut off the picturesque little village on three sides.

Winds, sometimes of gale force, swept the flames over the hills with the sound of a jet plane.

Work Catches Up With Ex-President

Florence, Italy—(U.P.)—Harry S. Truman's former job caught up with him today.

America's No. 1 European tourist had to go to work at a desk piled high with the letters that came to a former president.

He planned to get his work done through the morning, later turning once more to sightseeing.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman drove Sunday to Fiesole, a town overlooking Florence and stopped briefly at the baptistry of the Florentine cathedral.

The cathedral is famous for its beautiful door known as "the door of paradise." Mr. Truman looked at it and told his group, "I hope to get in some day."

Communist Paper OKs 'Robinson Crusoe'

Berlin—(U.P.)—The Communist party newspaper Neues Deutschland has given its approval to Daniel Defoe's "Robinson Crusoe" as a progressive tale.

Although Neues Deutschland criticized the novel as "utopian," it said Crusoe was progressive in that he outlawed cannibalism.

Washington—(U.P.)—The House Committee on Un-American Activities announced it has summoned Paul Robeson, left-wing Negro bass, to testify Tuesday in its investigation of passport irregularities by Communist sympathizers, Henry Wilcox of New York and Otto Nathan, executor of the estate of the late Albert Einstein, also will appear as witness.

Corvallis—Fifteen students from the Medford area will receive degrees at Oregon State college's 87th annual commencement on June 4.

OSC will confer 1106 degrees this year, including a record of 68 doctor's degrees, 179 master's degrees, 858 bachelor's degrees, and one professional civil engineering degree. Six students will get two degrees.

President A. L. Strand will confer the degrees and deliver his annual message at 10 a.m., to assure maximum seating for relatives and visitors.

Students from this area and their degrees include: Janet Louise Coyle, bachelor of agriculture; Sue Carolyn Harris, bachelor of business and technology; Fidelia J. Boone, bachelor of home economics; Ruth Ann Hart, bachelor of home economics; Michael Webster Wood, bachelor of agriculture; John Louis DeZell and George Raymond Ditsworth, bachelor of science; Jack Duane Pfeifer, bachelor of education; William Glover Padgham, bachelor's degree in forestry; Frederick Wilson Moeller, James Ellis Lattie, and James Miller Hutchison, receive bachelor of agriculture degrees; Jack Pratt, bachelor of engineering degree; and William Walter Smith, master's degree of education.

Roy Lee Rogers will graduate with honors and will receive a bachelor of engineering degree.

Driver Credits Belt In Injury Escape

The George Polski family, 913 King st., Medford, today credited a safety belt with their narrow escape from a serious accident at 5:30 p.m. Sunday on their return from a beach trip.

Polski, his wife and their sons Robert, 5, and Richard, 8, were riding in their new station wagon when it collided with another car. Driver of the other car in the accident was apparently trying to avoid a head-on collision with a car passing the Polskis, reports indicated.

Polski said he believed the impact of the crash would have caused him to lose control of the car if a safety belt he was wearing had not held him behind the steering gear.

No one was seriously injured. Both cars received extensive side damage.

The car passing the Polski vehicle when the accident occurred was lodged in a ditch without injury to its occupants, reports stated.

Celilo Indians Given New Homes

Portland—(U.P.)—Five Indian families who lost their traditional homes at the Celilo fishing site because of The Dalles dam today were given new homes by the federal government.

Keys to four new houses and one remodeled residence overlooking what will be the pool behind The Dalles dam were presented to the families at a ceremony this afternoon by Don C. Foster, Portland area director of the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

Foster said that families moving into the new buildings units are the only ones who will be permanently located at the Celilo site. About 28 families will be relocated in areas of their choice near Yakima and Toppenish, Wash., Warm Spring, Ore., and Lapwai, Idaho.

Taxi Driver Hurries Back To Home Base

Des Moines, Ia.—(U.P.)—Delbert Holson, 35, Napa, Calif., visited here for the first time, but left after about 40 minutes.

"I'm in a hurry," he said.

He had just driven a woman here from Napa and collected a fare of $300.

Holson said the woman arrived at Napa from Sacramento by taxi, decided to go to Salt Lake City by cab and when she got there decided to continue here with Holson as the driver.

MORE INFORMATION ASKED
Washington—(U.P.)—Rep. John E. Moss (D-Calif.), said on Sunday the Republican and Democratic parties should adopt platforms emphasizing "the people's right to know." Moss, the chairman of a House government operations subcommittee investigating suppression of public information, call for a freer flow of public information from government agencies.

MORE FOR HAIRCUTS
Des Moines, Ia.—(U.P.)—T. C. MacDuffee of Chicago, general president of the Associated Master Barbers and Beauticians said Sunday night that barbers will strive for a standard price of $2 a haircut.

"We must continue for this goal, and right today the economy of the situation dictates that $1.50 for a haircut is not enough," he said.

The green turtle of the West Indies, from which wet get soup and turtle steaks, sometimes reached a weight of 600 pounds.
