

Two spectacular roses, white bouquet (at right) and golden showers, have won the coveted all-American rose selections award for 1957, according to an announcement by the All-American Rose society. This award is one of the most important in the flower world and brings to 45 the number of rose varieties which have won it. Golden showers is described as a vivid daffodil yellow climbing rose, and white bouquet is a floribunda of sparkling white. Golden showers is the first climbing hybrid tea to win the national award for a climbing and pillar rose since 1941. Annual awards are made on the basis of a total of scores compiled by impartial judges who observe them under actual growing conditions during the two-year testing period.

Bethel 38 Installs New Council

Central Point—Installation of the new guardian council of Job's Daughters, Bethel 38 of Central Point, was held at the May 24 meeting of the Bethel. Mrs. Thelma Schild, Salem, grand guardian of Oregon, conducted the ceremony.

Those taking office were Mrs. Paul Snook, guardian; Melvin McGrew, associate guardian; Mrs. William Askwith, secretary; Mrs. Leonard Warren, treasurer; and Mrs. Lewis Kilbourn, musician.

Also installed were Archie Purdy, assistants; Mrs. Harry Eldon, Mrs. Melvin Burnett and Mrs. N. J. Chausse; guardian of paraphernalia, Mrs. A. M. Setness; guardian of hospitality, Mrs. E. V. Goff and assistants, Mrs. Leo Ghelardi and Mrs. Gay Anderson; guardian of finance, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Noel; directors of transportation, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Abbott; guardian of publicity, Mrs. Eugene Ferrell and Mrs. Scott Hamilton, assistant; promoter of community interests, Robert Stewart, assistant, Mrs. Bernice McCue; director of epochs, Mrs. Richard Stratton; promoter of fraternal relations, Mrs. Melvin McGrew.

Assisting Mrs. Schild with the ceremony were A. E. Stevens, installing associate guardian; Mrs. Wallace Brill, guide; Mrs. Ray Allred, marshal; Mrs. C. D. Elhart, chaplain; Mrs. Gene Snook, musician and Mrs. Charles Clary, secretary.

Preceding the installation, the executive officers of the guardian council and line officers of the Bethel honored Mrs. Schild and Mrs. Elhart at dinner in Medford at the Jackson hotel.

Pin Presented

During the meeting, Mrs. Setness was presented her past guardian pin from the Bethel and she in turn presented the Beulah Faber traveling guardian pin to the new guardian, Mrs. Snook.

Queen Vicki Noel congratulated the new members of the council, as did Mrs. Schild and other guests. Visitors and members introduced were Mrs. Paul Selby, Medford, guardian of Bethel 55 and librarian of the grand guardian council; Mrs. Jean Reed, guardian of Bethel 22, Ashland; Miss Margaret Selby, junior princess of Bethel 55 and grand Bethel marshal; Miss Kay Askwith, chaplain of Bethel 38 and grand Bethel inner guard; Miss Marcia Clary, queen-elect of Bethel 22 and grand Bethel representative to Alberta, Canada; Victor Noel, past associate guardian of Bethel 38; Mrs. Elhart, past grand guardian and past guardian of Bethel 22; Mrs. Melvin McGrew, worthy matron of Nevada chapter, Central Point and Melvin McGrew, associate guardian of Bethel 38 and grand junior custodian.

Spring flowers decorated the Bethel room and serving table. On the decoration committee were Misses Rachel Hamilton and Jeanette Purdy and Mrs. Hamilton. Serving on the table decorations and refreshment committee were Misses Ruth and Maxine Day, Nancy Hopper, Donna Burnett and their mothers.

Bethel 38 will hold initiation June 14 and the event will be formal.

New Large Hats, Parasols Said Practical Beauty Aids

By ELIZABETH TOOMEY
United Press Correspondent
New York—(U.P.)—Nostalgia already has inspired turn-of-the-century hats for women and return-to-the-twenties knickers for men this summer, and now there is a move to get girls to carry parasols again.

The twirling parasol, like the fluttering fan, lost out to the more direct approach such as fluttering eyelashes or the same time men stopped giving up subway seats to ladies.

The new parasol plan has nothing to do with subtle feminine come-on signals to admiring swains. It is a practical keep-off-the-sun technique for beach beauties.

We're over-scorching our skins each summer, skin experts warn repeatedly. The healthy glow that turns to a dark tan and finally fades to a disappointing pallor takes a serious toll.

The parasol, says skin expert Georgette Klinger, would save a lot of faces.

"Never, never, never lie in the sun with the face directly exposed to it," she said emphatically. "Despite popular belief, sun tanning the face does not help the skin and it can hurt it. Skin on other parts of the body can be sun tanned more safely, but the face should be protected."

Miss Klinger says all women should observe the same face-protecting rules, whether their skins are dry, oily or normal.

"Sunburn acts as a temporary coverup of some face blemishes and blackheads," she continued. "But it is misleading. They still are there and can be even more prominent after the sunburn fades."

Miss Klinger, who created her own cosmetics line and also has a skin-tending salon on Madison avenue, advises women to "take your face sun under a parasol."

Society To Hold Annual Meeting

Southern Oregon Historical society will hold the annual meeting Monday, June 4, in the Masonic hall, Jacksonville. Miss Claire Hanley, president, states that election of officers and a visit to the Jacksonville museum are on the program for the day.

Dinner will be prepared and served by members of Adarell chapter, Order of Eastern Star, at 6:30 o'clock.

Reservations may be made by calling the president at Medford 3-2675; Mrs. T. J. Gifford at Medford 2-6487, or Miss Mary Hanley at the Jacksonville museum, 9-8322. June 1 is reservations deadline.

Diffused Sun Rays

Parasols won't bring back the pink and white complexions that went with their owners half a century ago, she admits. Even sitting under a parasol in the hot sun allows plenty of diffused sun rays to color the skin.

"But they will help avoid the freckles and dark spots that never leave the face after too much sun," she said. "And they will prevent the struggle to soften and smooth the top layer of skin which almost all women have after a summer in the sun."

The parasol makers are all for the plan, naturally, but they say progress is a stumbling block to a boom in their business.

Officers Elected By Mothers' Club

Ashland—New officers of the Mothers Club of Southern Oregon college are Mrs. Elmer F. Wade, Grants Pass, president; Mrs. John W. Bailey, Central Point, vice-president; and Mrs. George Adler, Klamath Falls, secretary-treasurer.

They were voted into office during the recent Mothers Weekend annual meeting. The group donated $112 for gifts to the campus dormitories, and a committee of two, consisting of Mrs. Fred Carr, Medford and Mrs. F. C. Bowerman, Springfield, was appointed to assist in the selection of the gifts.

Retiring officers are Mrs. G. W. Bonney, Grants Pass, president; Mrs. Ralph Gilbert, Roseburg, vice-president; and Mrs. Herman Renfro, Grants Pass, secretary-treasurer.

According to Mrs. Mabel Winslow, college registrar, women leaders from nearly every city in southern Oregon were represented at the meeting.

Unsurpassed appetizers are achieved by offering 2-inch celery pieces, cauliflowerettes alongside a bowl of this cheese dunking mixture. End two 3-ounce packages cream cheese, 1/4 cup rich milk or cream and add 1/2 teaspoon salt, freshly ground pepper and 1/4 cup finely cut chives or green onions, tops and all.

Boy Scouts

Hobo Party
Twenty-five Cub Scouts and one den chief from Dens 5 and 7, Pack 40, Central Point, held a hobo party at TouVelle State park, Saturday, May 26.

John McNeel was elected and crowned King of Hoboes and was presented several gifts from his subjects by Bill McNeel Jr., David Grissom and Billy Buckholtz, the losing candidates, were given consolation prizes by King John.

Royal Harger was judged the best costumed hobo and received his awards from Bill McNeel Jr.

The Cub Scout hoboes ate and drank from tin cans. Many used spoons they had made themselves. Hotdog sticks made from wire coat hangers were used for roasting weiners and marshmallows. Relay races, tag, and baseball were played during the afternoon.

... is a priceless gift that everyone can possess... a source of love, comfort and strength which is sorely needed in these troubled times. Only you and I, as parents can give this gift of Faith to our children. If we want them to know the joy of Faith tomorrow... we must give our children the gift of Faith today."
