

Travel Bureau Sets First Russian Tour

Newton, Mass.—A non-profit travel bureau here is organizing its first Russian tour since pre-war days.

The Bureau of University Travel is signing up a group of 20 travelers for a 35-day European jaunt, including 23 days in Russia.

Dr. Dewey Lord, president of the bureau, says he anticipates no trouble getting passports for the party. Once behind the Iron Curtain, the American party will be in the hands of Intourist, the Russian government travel bureau.
