Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Franklin Goodin (Brainard Photo)

Goodin-Pence Ceremony Held in Meeker Chapel

Among late spring weddings was that of Miss Joan Marie Pence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray H. Pence, 33 Willamette avenue, to Weldon Franklin Goodin, Grants Pass. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Goodin of Caddo, Okla.

The ceremony was held in the newly dedicated Meeker Memorial chapel of First Methodist church Sunday, May 20, with 50 guests attending. The Rev. J. Thomas Dixon officiated for the double-ring service at two o'clock in the afternoon.

The bride wore a gown of white nylon chiffon, waltz-length, with a pearl-decorated bodice. Her waist-length veil was held by a cap of lace trimmed with iridescent sequins and tiny pearls. She wore a pearl necklace and matching earrings, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried a cascade bouquet of white gardenias. She was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Carole Pence was honor attendant for her sister. She wore a frock of yellow net, ballerina length, with white slippers and gloves and a headband of white flowers. Her bouquet was of orchid colored sweetpeas.

Miss Rosalie Pence, another sister, and Miss Joanne Simpson, were bridesmaids. They wore ballerina frocks of orchid colored net with white accessories and headbands of white flowers. Their bouquets were of yellow sweetpeas. All three attendants wore pearl earrings and necklaces which were gifts from the bride.

Maureen Donaldson, cousin of the bride, and Cecil Pence, her brother, lighted the candles. Maureen's frock and accessories were identical to those worn by the honor attendant, and Cecil's clothing matched that worn by the best man.

The bride's mother wore a pink sheath dress with white accessories and a corsage of small white roses.

Richard Axe was best man for the bridegroom, and ushers were David Axe and Eugene Whitely, Jacksonville.

Dr. Gerald A. Dierdorff was soloist, and Mrs. C. R. Adamson was at the organ.

The reception which followed the ceremony was in the church reception hall. Orchid and yellow flowers of many kinds were arranged in baskets and vases to decorate the table and room, and the tapers were of matching orchid and yellow. Miss Marilyn Myhre cut the wedding cake, Miss Marcia Houghton poured coffee and Miss Jonnie Vail poured punch. Miss Helen Read took charge of the gifts, and Miss Evaloy Bates the guest book.

The church decorations were of orchid and yellow gladiolus in tall baskets, and vases of sweetpeas in these same colors.

Mr. Goodin and his bride traveled to Texas and Oklahoma to visit his family, and will be at home in Grants Pass after June 4. The bride attended Southern Oregon college after graduating from Medford High school and has been employed at Ralph's in recent months. The bridegroom attended school in Oklahoma, and is employed by Grinnell company, Portland.

a bride will extol a gift that says Towle!

Small wonder Towle solid silver is so often thought of as the perfect gift for brides! Towle is famous for "The Towle Touch"—superb craftsmanship, devotion to fine details, even to a special kind of polishing that gives Towle a glowing, cherished patina—and many other little things that set Towle apart from ordinary sterling. But Towle costs no more. Teaspoons start at $3.70 and six-piece place settings at $29.75.
