Scratching Noise Turns Out Turtle
Cincinnati, O. — (U.P.)—James Hasset, answered a scratching noise at his door and discovered a snapping turtle that apparently wanted to go inside.

Hasset wasn't convinced it was a real snapper until it bit a broom handle shoved its way. Then Hasset summoned county police.

Nobody knows where the snapper came from, but police mentioned something about "turtle soup" as they escorted it away.

HORN BROOK First Hay Cutting Starts

By MRS. H. H. CHAPMAN
Hornbrook—The soft, sweet smell of new-mown hay fills the air in the valley these days and nights, as farmers get under way with their first cutting.

Indications are the crop will be a good one, what with the plentiful spring rains and ample supplies of irrigating water.

The entertainment committee of the Grange was gratified at the turnout for the dance recital presented at the Grange hall last Friday. Twelve of the 63 students of the Jackie Locke school of dancing in Medford were on hand. One of them was Miss Patty Wright, grand-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wright of Hornbrook. The audience was appreciative of the efforts of the children and their teacher, and expressed the wish that they would present a return engagement later.

Week end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bear were a nephew of Mrs. Bear, George Klontz, with his wife and four children who were en route from their home at Auburn, Wash., to visit Mrs. Klontz' parents at Bell, Calif.

There were swimming, eating and games Tuesday when the grammar school children enjoyed their annual picnic at Jackson Hot springs in Ashland. Transportation for the 120 youngsters attending was furnished by Howard Trivelpiece who provided the school bus and who also treated the entire group to ice cream, and by Mrs. E. L. Carter, Mrs. Jack Cross, Mrs. William Farmer, Mrs. Henry Johnson, Mrs. Elmer Rue, Mrs. Bill Maynard, Mrs. Alec Rutledge, Mrs. John Silva, Oscar Barnum, Mrs. L. Hutchins, Mrs. Ralph Bennett, Mrs. Kate Smith, Mrs. Bill Maynard, Mrs. Hayes, and Al Gregory. All food for the picnic was donated by the mothers of the children.

Mrs. Carroll Funk and Mrs. Al King drove to Altura, Calif., last week end, where they attended the high school graduation.

Mr. and Mrs. Chapman attended graduation exercises last Friday at the Canyonville Bible academy. Miss Joyce Rimell, fiancée of their son, Oliver Fick, was one of those who received their diplomas. She returned to Hornbrook with the Chapmans where she remained until Memorial Day when Oliver took her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Breceda of Ashland were Memorial Day visitors at the home of Gene's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Breceda.

Mrs. Jan Cozzallo was one of the graduates who received her bachelor of science degree at

MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—SEVEN

Fairview Home Bids Opened; Too High

Salem — (U.P.)—Bids for construction of three buildings at Fairview Home for the mentally retarded here were opened by the State Board of Control Friday, but they all appeared too high.

Low bid on the multi-purpose administration and non-ambulatory buildings was $834,000 submitted by Viesko and Post of Salem. Board members said $839,000 was available for the structures, but that figure should include $40,000 in furnishings plus architects fees.

The board will meet again in a few days to decide whether to go ahead with two of the three buildings or to ask the State Emergency Board for enough

Two Boys Arrested On Driving Charges

Two Medford boys, ages 16 and 17, were lodged in the Jackson county jail Friday night in lieu of funds to pay a $55 fine imposed on each of them in district court after they were arrested during a "speed contest." They were charged with reckless driving.

Oregon state police arrested the two earlier Friday on Merri-man rd.

The 17-year-old boy's drivers' license was suspended in district court for 30 days and the 16-year-old's right to apply for a drivers license was suspended for the same length of time.
