REFUSE PLANE LANDINGS

London (UP)—Russia has refused permission for two British airliners to land in Moscow, it was disclosed today. There was no explanation. One was a Viscount turbo-jet that was to have carried a party of British tourist chiefs to Moscow Wednesday. The other was a propeller-driven Viking that was to have flown a fashion show and six models to Moscow on Thursday.

Weekend Traffic Accidents Result In Two Citations

Roland Albert Maurer, 4246 Hilsinger rd., Medford, was cited by state police Saturday night for being intoxicated on a public highway following an accident on highway 99 near the Lithia theater.

State police said Maurer's car, traveling north on the highway, hit a vehicle operated by Clyde Leonard Gwaltney, 397 Terrace st., Ashland, while Gwaltney's car was stopped in preparation for a left turn.

Gwaltney's two daughters, Susan, 9, and Carol, 12, both passengers in the car, suffered minor injuries and were taken to Ashland General hospital. Gwaltney and his wife, who was also riding in the car, were apparently uninjured, officers said.

Maurer was treated at Community hospital for a cut lower lip.

State police also reported that Jack Milhoan, 1403 East Main st., Medford, was cited for reckless driving Sunday afternoon when he apparently lost control of his car on a curve as he was travelling in the northbound lane of traffic on highway 99 at Phoenix.

MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—FIVE

Officers said his car skidded several feet and went off the road. Milhoan was treated for minor cuts and bruises at Sacred Heart hospital. None of his passengers were injured. No other car was involved in the accident.

NAMED PRESIDENT—Clifford A. Woodward, Cambridge, Mass., today was named president of The Oregon State Motor Association, in Boston, Mass. His appointment was announced at the Christian Science board of directors annual meeting. His term of office is one year.

About 462 million acres in the U.S. are capable of growing commercially valuable forest lands, according to estimates of the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

London (UP)—Two Russian warships were spotted off Dover at dusk Sunday. They ignored a "what ship?" call from a signal station and turned west.
