Voters Favor School Budget in Roseburg

Roseburg — Voters of the Roseburg school district last week approved the proposed 1956-57 budget the third time it came up for a vote. They had turned it down the two previous occasions.

The budget, as submitted for the third time this year, was only slightly smaller than when submitted before. The second defeat followed a hot campaign by both supporters and opponents. Afterward, the many opponents joined in a study of budget needs, and finally came out in support of the slightly-trimmed proposal, which calls for the expenditure of $1,045,774.72 outside the 6 per cent limitation.

A proposal that $15,000 be spent for a "reevaluation" of the school program, which also appeared on the ballot, was decisively defeated. Margin of approval of the budget, and defeat of the reevaluation, were both almost 2 to 1.
