

Sal Maglie Hurls Bum Victory; Pirates Take 1st Place in NL

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer

Anything can happen in baseball and there was proof of that today in the fact that Sal Maglie, an old-time Giant, pitched the Pittsburgh Pirates into first place while wearing a once-hated Brooklyn uniform.

How's that again?

Well, here's how it all happened. Maglie, making his first start for the Dodgers Monday night, knocked the Braves out of the National League lead by beating them, 3-0, on a three-hitter.

As soon as Maglie retired Hank Aaron for the final out, the Pirates, some of whom had their ears cocked to radios in Chicago, automatically went into first place by a full game.

Regain Top Spot

The Pirates first took over first place by percentage points when they beat Milwaukee in the first game of a doubleheader last Sunday but quickly dropped back to second place when they lost the nightcap. Now with a full game lead, there's a little more authenticity to their front porch perch.

The 39-year-old Maglie, an arch enemy of the Dodgers during the many years he was with the Giants, never was better than he was Monday night. He struck out five batters, walked only one and allowed only one Milwaukee runner to advance as far as second base.

Ransom Jackson singled home Brooklyn's first run in the opening frame off Lew Burdette and PeeWee Reese and Gil Hodges tagged him for homers in the eighth.

Redlegs Trip Phillies

Cincinnati, remaining a game out of first place, defeated Philadelphia, 8-2, as Art Fowler pitched five-hit ball for his fourth triumph. Fowler had a shutout until the ninth when the Phils pushed across a pair of unearned runs.

The Cardinals, also only a game from the top, defeated the Giants, 11-5, with Vinegar Bend Mizell turning in his sixth victory.

St. Louis hopped on starter Don Liddle for five runs in the first three innings and led the rest of the way although Foster Castleman hit a three-run homer in the fourth inning and Bill White hit a two-run homer in the fifth. Ken Boyer paced the Cards' 15-hit offensive with his 13th homer, two doubles and a single.

Chisox Bury Birds

The Chicago White Sox shaved the idle Yankees' American League lead to four games by crushing the Baltimore Orioles, 13-4. Lefty Billy Pierce had a two-hit shutout until he tired in the eighth but he was credited with his seventh victory.

Chicago collected 14 hits and scored 11 of its runs off starter Don Ferrarese. Nellie Fox had four hits for the White Sox and Minnie Minoso hit a two-run homer in the eighth.

Mike Garcia of the Indians turned in his best effort of the season as he struck out 12 batters and gave up only seven hits in defeating the Senators, 7-0. Pete Ramos started for Washington and was nicked for homers by Jim Busby and young Earl Averill.

Studs Start Season On Wednesday Night

Jerry Droscher, product of Roseburg high school and stellar American Legion junior baseball pitcher last year probably will open on the mound for the Medford Cheney Studs Wednesday night when they encounter the Yreka, Calif., semi-professional aggregation at the fairgrounds ball park here at 8 p.m.

His probable chukking rival is Rocky Biscotti.

Manager Jack Cooney will have three other pitchers on hand for the evening and may have one or two of them see service if the opportunity presents itself. The three are Don White, Roseburg high tutor, and Derald Wootton and Jim Kelly, holdovers from the 1955 Studs.

Droscher appears in a Cherley uniform this year after having hurled one triumph for the Roseburg Chiefs over the Studs last season. Roseburg is not fielding a club this year.

Manager Bill Snavelly will have Larry Cummings and Bill Ewing available for pitching relief if Biscotti needs it.

Others In Line-Up

Other possible players in the Yreka line-up are Larry Derushia, catcher; Jack Clark, first base; Butch Pickard, second base; Jim Kutzer, third base; Willie Jones, shortstop; Lew Fasoletti, left field; Jack Behnke center field, and Don Costello, right field.

Frank Roelandt, Medford high assistant diamond coach and Stud player of former seasons, will do the catching for the locals Wednesday. Cooney will start at first base but may give way to Tiger Bob Smith, ex-Grants Pass high and semi-pro player and ex-Southern Oregon college.

Second base and shortstop are choices among Dick Toney, from Lewis and Clark college, Don LaBeau, who has played Army ball, and Jim Taylor, from Arizona State college. Wootton may be at third base. In the outfield the probabilities are John Kovenz, Medford high coach and ex-Coos Bay-North Bend lumberjack player, Jim Steffen, from University of California at Los Angeles, and Doy Gatlin, from Arizona State. Bill McLean is a coach and reserve outfielder.

At last report Yreka had played at least six games, making it considerably farther along in shape for the season than the Studs, who have yet to take the field as a team. Because of the games behind it, Yreka is expected to be a tough rival for the Medford nine. A record of four wins and two losses listed for the Californians did not include possible games last week end.

Tom Hamlin, Gary Harrington Low on Jaycee Links Qualifying

Gary Harrington and Tom Hamlin were low qualifiers in the district competition at Rogue Valley Country club and won the right to represent this area in the state Junior Chamber of Commerce Golf tournament June 29 and 30 and July 1 at the Dalles.

Harrington had a 77 last Saturday to put with his 83 of the previous week for a 36-hole count of 160. Hamlin added an 80 to a previous 82 for a 162 score. They headed a field of nine who started out on the second lap last Saturday.

* Tony Monroe had 82-89-171 and Pete Rasmussen 84-88-172. Phil Mongrain who had an 82 and Dick Copple who had an 83 after the first round picked up after nine holes on Saturday.

Club Title Qualifying

Club Pro Al Williams has announced the start of two activities on the Rogue Valley links this weekend. Men will start qualifying on Saturday, June 9, for the annual club championship tourney. George Harrington is defending champion. On Friday girls golf classes will start and will continue on Friday's for six weeks. Beginners will have their instruction at 9 a.m. and advance class members at 10 a.m.

Play for the two-ball partnership title likely will be on Sunday.

Valley Finance Takes Leadership In Southern Oregon Bowlig Mix

Valley Finance, Grants Pass, took over women's team leadership and Clarence Lincoln and Frank Roll, Roseburg, went in front in men's doubles during the week end in Southern Oregon Handicap tournament competition at Medford Bowling lanes.

Biggest changes to tourney positions took place in women's competition. Valley Finance tabulated a 2833, highest women's total in the history of the tourney.

Robertson's Flying A Service, Roseburg, gained No. 2 position with 2789 and Daugherty Lumber company, Medford, now ranks fifth with 2737.

Martha Pocklington and Velda Ellison, Roseburg, went into second spot in doubles with 1212 and Doris Sieder and Flo Ann McDonald, Roseburg, took over third with 1196. Betty Minger and Teddy Farrar, Medford, now rank fourth with 1146. Eleanor Parr and Helen Mentzler, Roseburg, are now sixth with 1114 and Vivian Knox, Medford, and Eleanor Anderson, Roseburg, seventh with 1111.

In singles Vivian Knox is now fourth with 599 and Martha Pocklington seventh with 585. Helen Mentzler is third in all-

Glendale Tops Butte Falls 12-3

Glendale kept its Rogue Valley League baseball record clear Sunday by whacking Butte Falls 12 to 3. It was the second league win for the Millers. After two week ends of play Glendale shares the loop lead with Ashland and Grants Pass.

1345 In Doubles

Lincoln and Roll carded 1345 in doubles. A 1263 by Lloyd Knapp and Cot Hampton put them in seventh place.

First eight places in men's team play were unchanged by the latest assault on the Medford maple, Ocean Drive-in theater, Crescent City, Calif., took over ninth with 3036. Del Norte Feed store, Crescent City, slipped in one pin behind with 3035.

Wes Boyer, Crescent City, made it into fifth in singles with 676 and Gordon Schulz, Medford, with 673 has eighth standing. Lincoln's 1930 puts him at second in all events while Schulz is sixth with 1908.

Holding their leads in men's play were McNamara and Peepe Lumber company, Crescent City, 3113 for teams, and Buster Forney, Ashland, with 709 in singles and 1981 in all-events. Staying in front of women entries were Sally Hadden and Skip Newell, Grants Pass, with 1245 in doubles, Jean Runtz, Medford, with 677 in singles and Skip Newell with 1824 in all events. The tourney ends June 24.

BEARS SIGN CAROLINE

Chicago — (U.P.)—J. C. Caroline, former University of Illinois star halfbacks, has signed a contract with the Chicago Bears of the National Football League. Caroline played with the Montreal Alouettes of Canada's Big Four Union last season after being declared ineligible at Illinois.

IN NAIA MEET

Linfield College, McMinnville, — Linfield's fine sophomore 440 runner, Bill Machamer, will leave Wednesday, June 6, for San Diego and the chance to add the national NAIA title to his list of winnings in the 400 meters, athletic director Paul Durham disclosed today. Machamer, the slim speedster from Madras who has been beaten only once this year, ran the fastest quarter of his career in winning the District 2 title in Portland recently, and may be considered a definite threat at San Diego. His time in the district meet was 49.4.

Culys To Enter Ogden Endurance Bowling Tourney

Mr. and Mrs. Gale Culy, Medford, will try their luck again in the Maxie Kosof bowling classic at Ogden, Utah, and are urging other Medford keglers to participate.

The endurance tournament runs through the month of July and the Culys will roll on July 3 and 4.

Men in the tourney bowl 40 consecutive games and women roll 20 straight.

The Culys say the endurance test should be tried at least once by all good, long-winded bowlers.

Culy is being sponsored in the Utah event by Ross Lumber company and Mrs. Culy by Ross Lumber sales.

Bills for Bill Bowerman Campaign Begun To Send Oregon Coach To Olympics

A "Bills for Bill" movement has been started here. Purpose is to obtain a large number of small donations to send Bill Bowerman, University of Oregon track coach, to the Olympic Games in November at Melbourne, Australia.

The action here follows the move instituted in Portland by Omar C. (Slug) Palmer. Bowerman, despite his work in developing three great distance runners, was overlooked by the U. S. Olympic committee in its assignments of coaches and the university reportedly cannot afford to pay his expenses.

Through his coaching here before taking over the Oregon post, Bowerman brought the Medford high Black Tornado to No. 1 prominence in track and field on the Oregon prep scene, a place the Tornado has kept under Bowerman's successor Bob Newland. Bowerman was a star athlete at both Medford high and U of O.

A group of seven men have the campaign underway here. Dick Finch is treasurer. He will accept donations at Home Appliance company. Others of the group are Dr. Edwin Durno, Bill Barker, Newland, Tom MacLeod, Everett McGraw and Otto Frohnmayer.

Mrs. Bowerman, Too

The plan as reported by L. H. Gregory, sports editor of the simple justice," he also states, "there can be no question that Bowerman should be at the games."

Ken Reiser in the two-mile, Jim Bailey in the mile and Bill Dellinger in the mile and two-mile are the three great performance men who have developed under Bowerman along with other fine performers.

The Portland effort is to collect $1 or larger bill from anyone who feels like giving. Gregory reports that Eddie Hogan, golf pro at Portland's Riverside links, started the bills coming in with a substantial contribution.

U.S. to Have History's Best Team

San Francisco — (U.P.) — The United States is in the process of building the greatest track and field team in history, Harold Berliner, vice-chairman of the Olympic Track and Field committee said today.

While defeatists bewail the fact that Russia is going about the business of conditioning a team that could win the Olympics in Melbourne in December, Berliner isn't worried.

"We won 16 out of 24 Gold Medals in track and field in 1952 Olympics at Helsinki," said Berliner, "and this team appears to be shaping up as even stronger."

"In 11 of the 24 events we are going to be stronger than we were in 1952; in 11 more I think we will be just as powerful; and in two events we may be a bit weaker."
