

Robinson, Post Spur Redleg Triumph; Cubs Top Pirates; Race Tight in National Loop

By FRED DOWN

United Press Sports Writer
The Cincinnati Reds may not pick up all the marbles in the National League's five-team scramble but it's a cinch they've got the "rookie of the year" in 20-year-old Frank Robinson.

A mere 263 hitter with Columbia in the Sally League last season, the powerful left-fielder is banging big league pitching at a 299 clip and Tuesday night walloped his 11th homer as the Redlegs romped over Philadelphia Phillies, 9-4. At his current pace, Robinson will challenge Wally Berger's 26-year old mark of 38 homers by a rookie.

With Wally Post driving in four runs with his 12th and 13th homers and Robinson collecting two hits for the third time in four games, the Redlegs made it seven victories in 10 contests. In the process they helped throw the NL race into a knot as tight as Jack Benny's purse strings.

The Pittsburgh Pirates bowled to the Chicago Cubs, 7-3, but remained atop the circuit with a .585 percentage. The Redlegs follow with .581 and the St. Louis Cardinals, who beat the New York Giants, 3-1, are next at .578.

The Brooklyn Dodgers further tightened matters when they whipped the Milwaukee Braves, 6-1, dropping the Tribe into fourth place a game off the pace. The world champions are fifth with a 22-19 record but in easy striking distance of the lead, only two games behind the Pirates.

The Pirates suffered their second straight defeat when the Cubs kayoed Bob Friend with a five-run rally in the third inning. Warren Hacker limited the Pirates to seven hits and had a shutout until the ninth when Frank Thomas belted his 10th homer with two aboard. The loss ended Friend's six-game winning streak and the win was the Cubs' fourth in five games.

Willard Schmidt held the punchless Giants to five hits in scoring his third victory and first since May 8 for the Cardinals. Wally Moon's two-run triple in the sixth inning and Ken Boyer's 14th homer of the year accounted for St. Louis' runs.

Towering Roger Craig hurled a two-hitter to win his fifth game and give the Dodgers their second straight decision over the Braves. Southpaw Warren Spahn was lifted when the Dodgers scored two runs in the second inning and lost his fifth game. Randy Jackson and Junior Gilliam had three hits each to lead Brooklyn's attack.

In the American League, the onrushing Detroit Tigers achieved the longest winning streak of the season when they outslugged the Boston Red Sox, 14-1, for their seventh straight triumph. Ray Boone knocked in five runs with two singles, a double and a homer and Frank House homered and drove in three runs to lead Detroit's 17-hit assault.

The Kansas City Athletics handed the first-place New York Yankees their fourth straight loss, 7-4, with the aid of three unearned runs. The Yankees committed five errors. Mickey Mantle hit his 21st homer of the year for the Yankees.

The Cleveland Indians moved into second place 3½ games behind the Yanks when Bob Lemon's eight-hitter gave them an 8-3 victory over the Baltimore Orioles. Chico Carrasquel had three hits and rookie Earl Averill a homer to lead Cleveland.

Chuck Stobbs' four-hit pitching enabled the Washington Senators to beat the Chicago White Sox, 3-1, and drop them into third place. Stobbs fanned seven and walked only two in squaring his season's record at 4-4.

Portlanders Subdue San Diego Pads 5-3

By DON THACKREY

The Los Angeles Angels may have most of the delegates to win the Pacific Coast league pennant election, but Seattle and Sacramento are not conceding a thing.

The Solons spotted the Angels four runs last night and then came back to beat them 7-6. Seattle also gave away four to the San Francisco Seals but wound up with a 5-4 decision in 11 innings.

Portland kept the first division a closed corporation for a while by turning back San Diego 5-3 and Hollywood dumped Vancouver 6-5 in a cellar series game.

Two of the winning pitchers in the games did enough damage at the plate to help their cause along.
Wade Homers
Ben Wade, pitching in relief for Hollywood, smacked a tie-breaking solo home run, his third of the season, in the eighth to insure his winning the game.

The Stars outbit the Mounties 14-13.
And Bill Werle, who went the route for Portland, brought his team from behind with a homer that made the score 3-3 in the seventh.

Then the Beavers got the idea and whacked John Carmichael around for two more runs and

Moore Stops Pompey In 10th To Keep Hold Of Light-Heavy Toga

London — (U.P.) — Ancient Archie Moore, more annoyed by a "very rude" referee than any efforts put forth by Yolande Pompey, may tackle Canadian heavyweight champion James J. Parker next in a possible tune-up for a heavyweight title fight.

The finish came like a whirlwind, after eight lackluster rounds. Pompey, of Trinidad, was simply swept away by Moore's power punching and referee Jack Hart drew the curtains of mercy at 2:50 of the 10th. Thought Hart Rude
Hart, rather than Pompey was the first person Archie spoke about when he reached his dressing room.

Moore, somewhat weakened by the loss of 37 pounds to make the light-heavyweight limit, successfully defended his 175-pound crown Tuesday night by flooring Pompey three times in the 10th round for a technical knockout.

TOMORROW'S SLUGGER—"Wow!" reads the expression on the face of pitcher Larry Suzuki as he admires the arm of first baseman Jimmy Blair. Jimmy had just hit his second home run in Vancouver, B.C., for their Bnai Brith team in the Little Mountain League.

MADDOX SELECTED FOR ND ALL-STAR BASEBALL SQUAD

Corvallis — (U.P.) — Washington State college, champion of the Pacific Coast conference, and Oregon each placed four men on the 1956 Northern division all-star baseball team chosen by coaches and publicity directors.

Those on the squad from WSC were Catcher Bill Rich, Second Baseman Gordon Horsey, Third Baseman Bill Mashburn and Pitcher Jerry Bartow. On the squad from Oregon were First Baseman Dick Schlosstein, Shortstop Johnny Keller, Outfielder Terry Maddox and Pitcher Don Lane.

Rounding out the 10-man squad were Outfielders Jerry Exley of Oregon State and Ron Braden of Idaho.

Beavers Ink Jerry Exley

Portland — (U.P.)—The Portland Beavers announced yesterday the signing of Jerry Exley, captain of the Oregon State baseball team this spring.

Exley, hard hitting outfielder for Oregon State, will take up quarters with his new Beaver mates at San Diego tomorrow.

Although two Brooklyn scouts were involved in the signing of Exley, Portland General Manager Joe Ziegler made it plain that the former Grant high school star was the property of the Beavers, not Brooklyn.

Cody Resigns Olympic Post

Portland — (U.P.)—Word was released here today that Jack Cody, coach of Portland's famed Cody Kids, has been forced to resign as coach of the U. S. 1956 Olympic women's swimming team. Ill health was given as the reason for the former Multnomah Athletic club coach's resignation.

Wildlife Group Chooses Yeater

Bend — (U.P.)—Bruce Yeater, Roseburg, yesterday was elected president of the Oregon Wildlife Federation at the group's semi-annual meeting at the Circle M Ranch on the Metolius river.

Charles Collins was named executive vice-president and Lloyd Hayes as secretary. Both men are also from Roseburg.

TRACK PURCHASED
Tampa, Fla. — (U.P.)—A group headed by Frederick E. M. Ballon, a New York attorney, has purchased Sunshine race track. The 29-year old track — well known as the late Grantland Rice's favorite track — is situated 17 miles from Tampa and 22 from St. Petersburg.

Second largest fresh water lake in the U. S. is Lake Okechobee in Florida. It is about 35 miles long and 32 miles wide and despite its size has a depth of only about 14 feet.

Milo Savage Fights Boyd

Chicago — (U.P.) — Milo Savage was a 7-5 underdog for his middleweight television fight with Bobby Boyd tonight, but he predicted today the odds would be wrong "if Boyd'll just stand toe to toe with me and not run."

The pair meet in the Chicago stadium in a revenge scrap for Boyd, who now has won eight straight fights since he was last beaten, by Savage, April 18, 1955.

"I don't think Boyd is of championship caliber," Savage snapped. "Gene Fullmer and Holly Mims are far superior to him. Boyd runs too much."

Savage's ranting perhaps was intended to anger his foe, for both Fullmer and Mims were victims during Boyd's winning streak, and he has offered to tangle with Fullmer again and beat him to "prove" he is more entitled to a chance at Ray Robinson's championship than Fullmer.
