Securities Subject Of Discussion by Robert E. Daniel

Robert E. Daniel of the Pacific Northwest company discussed investment securities and investing the conservative way at the Rotary club luncheon here this week.

Daniel said that the "conservative course" in the investment business can be profitable, and many of the better securities are available here in the northwest. He noted that "many of the big endowment funds of the east" are "attracted to our corporations and are taking the market for them away from us."

He cited investment trusts of Great Britain and Switzerland as buying in the northwest, especially investing in banks, public utilities and independent telephone companies.

Daniel said many eastern endowment funds have been buying in Weyerhaeuser Timber, Puget Sound Pulp and Timber in addition to industrial firms. He said investors do not have to go to the stock market in New York to purchase good securities.

Daniel also discussed financial need necessary to invest in securities, pointing out that if a person is able to save money, he can afford to invest in securities. He also discussed which securities are more desirable for a return on the investment, and pointed out that to have an investment return "a long-range program should be obvious."

Applications for Police Patrolman Are Being Received

Medford Police Chief Charles Champlin said today the department is receiving applications for patrolmen to fill present and future openings.

Applicants must be between the ages of 21 and 35, a high school graduate, have no arrest record, and should be of good moral character, he said. A knowledge of typing is desirable, he said, but not a qualification for the position.

Champlin said he would prefer applications from Medford residents.

Salary for patrolman ranges from $300 to $350 per month with increases based on the merit system. The position includes an annual paid vacation and seven holidays annually, he said.

Two Present Vacancies — Champlin said applications will be received for two existing vacancies and for four new vacancies which will be created July 10. The 1956-57 budget is based on the 40-hour week, which was approved by the city council this week.

The vacancies include the addition of one patrolman which was cut from the present budget last year, and three patrolmen under the 40-hour week.

Additional information may be obtained from Champlin at police headquarters.

Damage Suit Filed In Circuit Court

Orrin L. Morse, route 2, box 42, Central Point, has filed a $46,070, suit in Jackson county circuit court charging Oakdale Market, 401 South Oakdale ave., with negligence in failing to provide safe working conditions for the purpose of delivery.

The complaint states that Morse, in delivering dairy products from Snider's dairy, slipped on the delivery entrance because of drainage and garbage across the entrance making it slippery.

Morse said the fall aggravated a pre-existing spine condition and wrenched his back causing him permanent stiffness and limitation of motion in his back, hip and legs.

Morse is asking the court award him $40,000 general damages, $1,571 special damages and $4,500 for loss of wages.
