HERSHEY PROMOTED

Washington —(U.P.)—President Eisenhower Wednesday nominated Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, director of selective service, for the permanent rank of lieutenant general.

Bonneville Opens Bids on Projects

Portland —(U.P.)—Bonneville power administration announced opening of bids for one Oregon project yesterday and the award of a $25,411 contract for another project.

The announced bid opening was for tower steel to be used in construction of two 115,000 volt transmission line river crossings from the Big Eddy substation to serve the Harvey Machine company aluminum plant near The Dalles.

Apparent low bid on the steel was $72,981, submitted by Bethlehem Pacific Coast steel, San Francisco.

The contract awarded yesterday went to the John L. Nichols construction company, Grandview, Wash., for construction of a four mile tap from Keeler substation to the St. Johns-Oregon City line and a one mile St. Johns-Forest Grove loop line to Keeler substation.

Fire Fighters Urge Competitive Scale

Salem —(U.P.)—The Oregon State Fire Fighters association adopted a resolution urging a competitive wage scale on a level with other industries at the closing session of the association in Salem Tuesday.

State benefits for firemen's occupational diseases were proposals in another resolution that will be referred to the 1957 Legislature.

Continuance of the annual muscular dystrophy campaign by the association was approved.

The group elected Edward Whelan, Portland, as president; Richard House, Oregon City, as first vice president; Earl Nobel of Salem, second vice president; Fred O'Sullivan, Eugene, secretary-treasurer; and Doyle Edwards of Klamath Falls, trustee.

UHF Radio Telephone Circuit in Operation

Ontario —(U.P.)—The second of the only two ultra high frequency radio telephone circuits in the Northwest was put into service this week between Ontario and Jordan Valley.

Repairs had to snowshoe in during the winter to maintain the old magneto circuit which this telephone circuit replaces. The new circuit, which covers about 100 miles, gives Jordan Valley direct service with the rest of the country.

Hilton To Discuss Hotel in Portland

Portland —(U.P.)—Conrad Hilton, hotel chain operator, is scheduled to be in Portland next week to discuss with Portland business leaders the prospects of building a convention size hotel in the downtown section of the city.

Leaders of the committee interested in acquiring the large downtown hotel for Portland reported they felt that the construction was nearer at the present time than at any time in the past several years.

Committee spokesmen said that the group planned to listen

Injured Ensign Dies In Rescue Accident

Anchorage, Alaska —(U.P.)—Attempts to evacuate a seriously injured Navy ensign from a Naval supply ship anchored off Nakhik, Alaska, ended in tragedy yesterday when an Air Force float plane crashed after taking off with the patient.

Air Force officials at Elmendorf Air Force Base here said the ensign died in the crash but they did not know whether death resulted from injuries received earlier aboard the USS White Marsh or from complications following the crash.

The pilot of the float plane, Capt. Clarence L. Harrington of the 5039th Air Transport Squadron, and two crewmen escaped injury in the crash.

Man's Body Sighted At McNary Dam

Umatilla, Ore. —(U.P.)—A locks tender at McNary dam yesterday sighted the body of Frank Clevenger 67, who drowned in the Columbia river in the Tri-City area last week.

The coroner from Benton county, Wash., was called and recovered the body.

The ensign was a crewman aboard the White Marsh which has been engaged in the annual "Mona Lisa" supply operation to far north ports. The ensign was not identified.

Teacher Education Programs Approved

Salem —(U.P.)—Several programs in teacher education were approved here yesterday by the State Board of Education.

The programs cover a five-year period and include Marylhurst, Lewis and Clark, Oregon State College, University of Oregon, and Mt. Angel women's college.

The teacher education program at Portland State College is restricted to the school year 1955-56. Approved for the 1957-59 biennium were budgets for general education, vocational education and the Oregon Technical Institute in the Klamath Falls area. Final consideration

Klamath Gets Higher Dairy Products Prices

Klamath Falls —(U.P.)—Higher prices for dairy products have gone into effect here. Milk will be given these budgets in the 1957 legislature.

Vancouver, Wash. —(U.P.)—The Vancouver city council has unanimously acclaimed Dr. H. L. Schumacher as new mayor.

prices were up one-and-a-half cent a quart and bulk ice cream was up 13 cents a gallon.
