Trujillo Critic Declared Thrown In Ship Furnace

New York—(U.P.)—A Dominican revolutionist insisted today that the body of scholar Jesus de Galindez was burned in the furnaces of the freighter Fundacion despite failure of police to find a single clue aboard the vessel.

Police including detectives fluent in Spanish, boarded the vessel for four hours Wednesday, inspected the furnaces and questioned the 36 crew members.

Case Still Open
Detective Lt. Martin Meyer said though no clues were found the case was still open.

The investigation was ordered following charges by Nicholas Silfa, Dominican Republic revolutionary leader in exile, that Galindez, who mysteriously disappeared on March 12, was thrown alive into a steaming boiler.

Police investigation of the ship's engine room revealed that the blast of flame and hot air would burn persons close by to a crisp if any one of the three boilers were open while they were steamed up.

Body Said Burned
"I want to repeat again," Silfa said, "that on orders of Dictator Rafael L. Trujillo and his experts in political assassination, the body of Dr. Jesus de Galindez was thrown into the firebox of a boiler of a Dominican steamship Fundacion and burned to a crisp to remove any trace of this outspoken critic of the Trujillo regime."

Galindez was the Spanish Basque lecturer at Columbia University. He was last seen on March 12. The instructor had written a dissertation critical of Trujillo, for 25 years ruler of the Dominican Republic. Various Dominican officials have vehemently denied the charges.

Cancellation Threat Ends for Met Opera

New York—(U.P.)—The Metropolitan Opera Association and the American Guild of Musical Artists announced agreement on "critical matters" Wednesday night, ending a threatened cancellation of the 1956-57 opera season.

No details of the last minute agreement were disclosed. Anthony Bliss, president of the association, said he was "sufficiently optimistic" about the agreement to go ahead with plans for a new opera season and to borrow $500,000 of needed funds.

The guild was reported to have sought an increase in the $1.70 and hour rehearsal rate for choristers. The Metropolitan had argued it could not afford the increase.

LETS HER GUESS
Los Angeles—(U.P.)—Mrs. Norma C. Howard, 50, was granted a divorce Wednesday on testimony her husband Joseph, 54, made no effort to explain lipstick and powder marks on his clothing. Mrs. Howard told the judge that when she asked her husband what he had been doing, he replied, "What do you think I've been doing?"

COLUMBIA GETS LOANS
Bogota, Colombia—(U.P.)—The World Bank has agreed to grant Colombia two loans totalling $32,400,000 for railway and highway construction. Finance Minister Carlos Villaveces said Wednesday.

Human hair grows about one-quarter of an inch in two weeks.

ON DARN!—Tommy Bolt of Houston shows his disappointment on missing a putt on the 13th hole during the opening round of the $70,000 Texas International Open Golf tournament at Dallas.
