

Redlegs Take Over 1st Place In NL; Buhl Throws 4-Hitter As Braves Bump Dodgers 4-1

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer
Bob Buhl's ability to beat the Brooklyn Dodgers stamped him today as the ace of the Milwaukee pitching staff and the fellow who is keeping the Braves in the tightly-bunched National League race.

The 27-year-old right hander has been rated behind veteran stars Lew Burdette, Warren Spahn and Gene Conley in the Milwaukee mound setup but his 4-1 decision over the Dodgers Thursday added to his distinction of being the only Brave pitcher to beat the world champions this year.

Buhl yielded only four hits and four walks Thursday as the Braves halted the Dodgers' four-game winning streak and retained possession of fourth place—only two games behind the first-place Cincinnati Redlegs. He helped win his own game with a two-run double that capped a three-run rally. Carl Erskine suffered his fourth straight loss since he pitched the second no-hitter of his career on May 12.

Redlegs Take First
The hard-hitting Redlegs, who haven't won a pennant since 1940, took over first place when they came from behind twice to down the Philadelphia Phillies, 8-5. It was the fourth straight triumph and ninth in 12 games for Cincinnati.

Catcher Smokey Burgess snapped a 5-5 tie with a homer to open the eighth inning and the Redlegs sewed up the decision when Roy McMillan's single, Johnny Temple's triple and Frank Robinson's sacrifice fly added two tallies.

The Chicago Cubs vacated the cellar when Bob Rush spun a six-hitter to beat the Pirates, 5-2, and drop the losers into third place. The idle St. Louis Cardinals are in second.

Eddie Miksis walloped a homer, triple and two singles to lead the Cubs' 11-attack which also included a homer by Walt Moryn.

Yanks Trample As
In the American League, the New York Yankees stretched their first-place to 4½ games when they pummeled the Kansas City Athletics, 9-1. Yogi Berra hit his 16th homer of the year and fourth in four games and Hank Bauer also homered for the Yankees. Bob Turley went the route for the first time this year to win his third game.

George Zuverink making his 23rd relief appearance, protected the lead for two innings as the Baltimore Orioles ended a five-game losing streak with a 5-2 decision over the Cleveland Indians. Gus Triandos, Tito Francona and Willie Miranda had two hits each for the Orioles.

Ninth-inning triples by Nellie Fox and Dave Philley plus two sacrifice flies enabled the Chicago White Sox to beat the Washington Senators, 7-5, and Ted Lepcio singled home the winning run in the 10th inning as the Boston Red Sox downed the Detroit Tigers, 6-5, in other AL games.

Girl Sentenced for Attempted Murder
Scranton, Pa. — (U.P.)—Marlene Chomko, the 16-year-old high school girl who seriously wounded her mother in an abortive murder plot last January, was sentenced Thursday to an indefinite term at the state Industrial Home for Women at Muncy, Pa.

Marlene bade her mother a tearful farewell shortly after the juvenile court Judge Otto P. Robinson passed sentence.

Marlene and her mother met behind doors in the house of detention for the first time since Mrs. Margaret Chomko was shot in the back in the kitchen of her home in nearby Taylor, Pa.

Marlene was the state's star witness against her co-defendants in conspiracy. She told authorities she plotted with Salvatore Diana, 21, and John Pitta, 34, to slay her parents and collect their estates.

Diana and Pitta were convicted on charges of conspiracy and assault with intent to kill and are awaiting sentence.

Rogue Valley League Clubs Have Third Games Sunday; Colts Vie at Camp White

Rogue Valley Baseball League has its third round of games this Sunday and with schools having closed their doors, teams may be at their strongest so far this season.

A case in point is the Cheney Colt crew. They'll be joined for Sunday action by Duane Sides, pitcher, and Ed Reinking, outfielder, of the Medford high club, and by Donn Johnson, infielder, and Larry Bigham, outfielder, both ex-Crater high. Johnson has been playing for Oregon State college. Bigham played Linfield college jayvee ball a year ago but wasn't eligible this season at San Jose State college.

The Colts, fighting to establish themselves among the loop leaders, play at Camp White this Sunday at 2 p.m. Camp White, still after its first RVL win, is ambitious to get out of the cellar.

Other tangles on Sunday aft-
Ditmar (4-4) vs. Palica (2-7).

Saturday's Games
Detroit at Washington (night)
Kansas City at Baltimore (night)
Cleveland at New York
Chicago at Boston

ernoon will be Ashland at Glendale, Grants Pass at Cave Junction and Eagle Point at Butte Falls. There'll be considerable attention on the Ashland-Glendale mix. Each of the clubs is unmarried so far in the circuit. Butte Falls and Eagle Point, like the Whittiers, are after their first victory in the RVL, with one of them due for disappointment.

Sides or Kelley
Manager Harry Tonn is expected to choose between Duane Sides and Kay Kelley in naming his pitcher for the Colts Sunday. Catcher will be either Howard Morris, Linfield and ex-Crater high, or Laval Meunier, ex-St. Mary's.

Harvey Tonn, Southern Oregon college and ex-Crater, may be at first base and Morrie Churchman, SOC and ex-Sutherland, at second. Either Vern Parent, ex-Crater, or Keith Johnson, ex-Southern Oregon, is to be at third with Johnson at shortstop. Reinking, Bigham and Bob Serak may be in the outfield. Ray Oakes, ex-Seaside high, could be at first base in either the infield or outfield.

Ex-Medford high men predominate in the possible Camp White crew. They included Dick Wootton, catcher; Ivo McKinney, second base; Norm Loop, shortstop, and Larry Irwin, John Drew and Tom Rodgers, outfielders. Bob Nelson, ex-Prospect high, may do the chucking. Neil Green, from Crater high, may be at first base, and Don Mintz, ex-Eugene high, at third.

The origin of the military hand salute is obscure but it may have been traced back to the time of the Crusades when it was accepted as a substitute for raising the hat or helmet.
