Report of Yreka Water Supply Given

Yreka—Yreka Water Commissioner Jim Cummings reported Tuesday on the city's water resources as of June 1, 1956, as compared to June 1, 1955, during last year's drought. Boston Shaft stands now with only 61 feet of water as compared with 76 feet last year. At Greenhorn Well, the creek is reported still running, with a full head of gravity, and with a continuous pumping capacity of 24 hours per day. At the same well last year, pumping capacity had been reduced to 12 hours per day, and the creek bed was totally dry. North Well is at the 12 foot mark, and may be pumped 24 hours per day, as compared to a seven-foot level last year. The old reservoir is full, Cummings said, while a year ago it contained only three feet of water, and Steele reservoir is also full, with one pump running.

Sen. Morse Pledges Stevenson Support

New York—(U.P.)—Sen. Wayne More (D-Ore.) who bolted the Republican party in 1952 to support Adlai E. Stevenson, said yesterday he would back him with as much enthusiasm as he did four years ago. Morse pointed out that as a convention delegate he is bound by the decision of the Oregon delegation which is declared for Stevenson, and that he has "no regrets" over that decision. He praised Stevenson highly, but said he would devote equal efforts to the election of any other "great Democrat." Morse spoke at a convention of the United Hatters, Cap and Millinery Workers Union.

Man's Body Found In Portland Debris

Portland—(U.P.)—The body of a man was found yesterday in the burned warehouse of the Gilbert Brothers Company here. Fire Inspector C. W. Stickney reported.

The man was tentatively identified from papers in a wallet as Ralph Randall Cummings, 46, Portland. The body was found by a Gilbert Company workman, Arnold W. Jensen, who was cleaning up debris from a Memorial Day fire. Stickney said that apparently stored merchandise equipment had fallen on Cummings and buried him.

PAYS FINE—WANTS FARE

Chicago—(U.P.)—Cab driver Frank Leonard paid a $40 traffic fine without a whimper Thursday, then demanded a 55-cent fare from the policeman who arrested him. Leonard said he drove Policeman Thomas Clifford to the station after his arrest. Clifford said the ride was Leonard's idea, and besides, the cabbie would have had to go to the station anyhow, to pay the fine.

A FAMILIAR FACE

Bordentown, N.J.—(U.P.)—William F. Helmacy, 17, was forced to write a thesis on the proper care and operation of a bicycle when he was brought into court a year ago on charges his bike had "improper lights." Thursday Helmacy was back before Magistrate Gordon Phillips, charged with driving a pickup without lights, allowing a youth to ride on the fender, and improper parking. Phillips revoked Helmacy's license and gave him a lecture.

Those who should know say that all-male conventions make the most noise in a hotel but all-female conventions do the most damage. The women break more things and burn more holes in the room equipment than men. In addition to that, they are always complaining about the service and harassing the help with unreasonable demands. To top it all, the females are notoriously poor tipplers.

Wasp Waist

Note it said Catherine De Medici, who introduced the corset to France, aspired to have a 13-inch waist measurement. Or the appearance of having it. History does not tell us whether or not Catherine realized her ambition. However, among the acts that appeared at Hammerstein's Victoria music hall in Manhattan in the yesteryear was one Mlle. Polaire, billed as having the "world's smallest waist measurement," which was 13½ inches.

Irma Thomas. The distaff side of America's greatest ice skating act, namely "The Old Smoothies." Irma freely admits she is 52. Her clever and agile partner, Orrin Markus, is 64. . . . Ruby Goldstein. Justly celebrated boxing referee. A former ringman, he once won 22 straight fights. His winning streak was stopped by that picturesque pugilist, "Ace" Hudkins, the Nebraska Wildcat. . . . Paul Winchell. Versatile ventriloquist. Achieved his start in show business by taking a correspondence course in ventriloquism. As a boy, Paul was crippled by polio. He cured himself of that crippled condition by taking a correspondence course in muscle building.

Salad

Any salad including lettuce should be served after the entree. The value of lettuce is that it aids digestion. If your wife or your favorite restaurant is serving the lettuce before the entree, do your stomach a favor by calling this fact to their attention.

Briefly

Beautiful women who are vegetarians are rare. However, Gloria Swanson is one. Her diet consists mainly of fresh fruit, vegetables and whole wheat bread. . . . In Paris the bartenders expect a 20 per cent tip on the price of every drink served.

Noted

New York is the largest city in the world. Don't let anybody tell you London rates that spot. The five largest cities in the order named are New York, London, Tokyo, Paris and Moscow reports of a number of recent robberies in Monaco recalls that a few years ago this type of criminal activity became so prevalent in that principality that it was referred to by those given to wisecracks as "a sunny place for shady people."

Hangtown Fry

A Chicagoan, who prides herself on her knowledge of the culinary art says she was "frightfully embarrassed" when asked what hangtown fry is and was unable to answer. The hangtown fry, which originated in Hangtown (now Placerville), Calif. is a combination of oysters, bacon, eggs, hot peppers, chili sauce and milk dumped into a skillet and fried.

Among the Married

How does your wife rate you as a husband? Or do you really know? The six complaints most registered against husbands are: 1. He is selfish and inconsiderate. 2. He's not affectionate. Does not understand the facts of love. 3. He's a liar. 4. He's too critical. 5. He won't talk things over. 6. He is rarely complimentary. Never offers praise as to wife's appearance, housekeeping or cooking.

Sidelights

Do you want to develop your staying power? At intervals, 12 times daily, take a deep breath and hold it for one minute. That was the average favorite exercise of six-day bicycle race riders. . . . Is your son fonder of you than he is of his mother? It has been claimed that whenever couples are happily married, the son is always fonder of his father. The opposite is true in unhappy marriage.

Montgomery Ward Workers Get Raise

Chicago—(U.P.)—The Teamsters Union said yesterday more than 20,000 Montgomery Ward employees won pay boosts averaging 10½ cents an hour under a newly ratified contract. A statement by the company, however, said the pay increases averaged 9½ cents and included not more than 17,000 of its 55,000 workers.

The one-year pact covers employees in mail order houses, stores, warehouses and retail outlets in 19 cities, according to the union. A spokesman said the contract provides pay hikes ranging from 4 to 36 cents an hour.

He reported the boost gives Chicago workers hourly wages ranging from $1.30 to $3.17. More than 4500 of the employees affected work in Chicago.

Cities covered by the contract include Oakland, Portland and Los Angeles.
