

Summer Schedule To Begin Sunday At First Baptist

A wide variety of activities for every department will be available next week at the First Baptist church in a new summer schedule. All of the evening services during the summer months will begin at 7:45 o'clock.

On Sunday morning, the Rev. James Neely will base his sermon on, "How God Meets Man's Needs," on the 51st psalm.

The sermon will be another in the year-long series based on the Bible reading program of the church. The aim of the program is to read through the scriptures in a year.

On Monday morning, the annual Daily Vacation Bible school will begin. The school will be divided into two sessions with the nursery through the junior departments to meet at nine a.m., and the intermediate department meeting will be at 7 p.m.

On Friday at 8 p.m., the film "Facts of Faith," produced by the Moody Institute of Science, will be shown, and is open to anyone interested.

The First Baptist church is located at North Central ave. at Fifth st.

Children's Day Services Slated

Children's day will be recognized in the First Presbyterian church, when a number of children will be baptized at the 11 a.m.

Dr. D. K. West will speak on the subject, "Children Are People, Too," a part of a series of sermons on, "What Makes Our Homes Truly Strong."

Twenty-five senior high students will leave in the afternoon for the week-long Presbyterian Youth conference, at the Lake of the Woods.

Allan Lehl will conclude his services as director of the choir of the First Presbyterian church, and will lead the Chancel and Westminster choirs.

Bruce Weber, who has returned from San Francisco Theological seminary will speak at the evening service on, "The Wonders of God." Robert Brewer will conduct the worship service at 7 p.m.

Friends To Open Vacation School

Daily Vacation Bible school will open Monday at the Friends church, to be held for two weeks, each week day from 9 to 11:30 a.m.

Two buses will furnish transportation, one route to run through Medford and the Lone Pine area and the other out Table Rock rd. and through Central Point. Parents may call telephone 2-6926 to arrange for children's transportation.

The school is for children from four years up through the 8th grade. A staff of 25 is prepared to handle administration and teaching in four departments. Any child is invited to attend.

The day's schedule will include Bible teaching, memory work, music, handicrafts, workbooks and games. All departments will be coordinated under the theme, "Adventuring with Christ in the King's Adventure-land."

Couple To Speak Of South American Missionary Work

The Pioneer Missionary broadcaster, located in the Andes mountains of South America, will be the topic of talks and films at a meeting at Free Methodist church today at 7:45 p.m.

Mrs. and Mrs. Kermit Beougher, former Medford residents, now working with the broadcasting system, will speak of their experiences and work of the station.

The station is the oldest missionary broadcasting system in the world, according to church officers. It has been operated since Christmas day, 1931, on a 50,000 watt short wave transmitter with world coverage.

The couple were personal friends of the five missionaries who were killed Jan. 8 in Ecuador and will also speak of them.
