Two Medford Girls Receive Top Honors at Graduation

Two girl graduates of the 1956 class at Medford high school who received top honors in their class attended Medford schools their entire lives. They entered Roosevelt elementary school together and were close friends throughout their school years. The girls are Miss Meredith Foote, daughter of Mrs. Ruth Foote, 18 Portland avenue, and Miss Carol Denman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. G. Denman, 104 Geneva avenue.

Miss Foote was valedictorian for the 1956 class and Miss Denman was given the honor of being named outstanding senior girl. Miss Denman received an Oregon State college honors at entrance award and Miss Foote received a tuition scholarship to the same college.

Miss Foote has been identified with numerous high school activities. This year she was secretary of the Pep club and the International Relations league, was a member of the Chi Rho, Girls Athletic association, Girls league, HECA club, Latin club, Quill and Scroll, honorary journalistic group, was a member of the prom committee, Phy Chem society, and Tri-Hi-Y.

Miss Foote was an usher for three years, was a member of the Torch honor society and sales manager for this year's Crater year book.

Miss Denman was queen of the rally squad this year and was a member of the squad as a junior; she received the Daughters of American Revolution good citizenship award this year, and was given honorable mention in the 1956 Elks lodge readership contest.

At student government day activities in Medford city hall she was city recorder for the day and this year was a member of the student council.

Miss Denman was a member of the Torch Honor society for three years, and as a sophomore student held membership in the International Relations league, the ski club and HECA, the history, economics and civics association.

Couple To Wed In Summer Rites

Eagle Point — Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Clymer, Eagle Point, announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Louise Clymer, to Woodrow Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Wilson of Santa Barbara, Calif.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Eagle Point High school and a former student of Westmont college in Santa Barbara. She is now employed with Hardware Mutual Casualty company of that city.

Her fiance attended Santa Barbara High school and works for Audio-Vision Company in Montecito, Calif.

The wedding is scheduled for Friday evening, July 20, at the Neighborhood church in Santa Barbara with the Rev. Roy Peterson officiating.

Parties Given For Nebraska Couple; Son in Michigan

Mr. and Mrs. George Rasmussen, Omaha, Neb., are in Medford as guests of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Rasmussen Jr., 21 Acorn way.

Friday evening the Rasmussens were hosts for an open house which honored the visitors, and a number of other small parties are being given to compliment the visitors. They are leaving Tuesday.

Bob Rasmussen, son of the Medford couple, is spending several months in Holland, Mich., with relatives. This summer he is enrolled in summer classes at Hope college and is employed part-time in a bank. He will return to Stanford university in the fall.

Miss Denman was her selection as a junior to make a Freedom foundation trip to Valley Forge, Philadelphia and Washington, D. C., when the school had been awarded the honor from the foundation. Miss Denman also received an award from the Elks lodge for leadership.

College Dean Reads Service For Lewis-Hanson Marriage

Among early June brides is a cousin from Medford and the former Carol Yvonne Hanson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Hanson, 863 Marshall avenue, Medford, whose wedding to Charles Roland Lewis took place June 3. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lewis, Grants Pass.

The ceremony was held at Valley View Seventh Day Adventist church, with Elder Paul C. Heuback, College Place, Wash., officiating. He is dean of theology at Walla Walla college in College Place and is an uncle of the bridegroom.

Soloists were Vern Hill, Mrs. Harvard H. Breese and Joe Hoyt.

For her wedding the bride wore a gown of white satin with overskirt of tulle and Chantilly lace designed with chapel length train and bodice of the lace. A pearl-trimmed headdress held her short veil of illusion net, and she carried a fan of white satin with staphanotis and an orchid.

Miss Dolores Shollenburg, foster sister of the bride, was honor attendant. Miss Rose Marie Beltz, Miss Kathy McCarty and Miss Kathy Bernston, Coquille, Ore., were bridesmaids. Miss Shollenburg's gown was of pink frosted satin, ballerina style and the bridesmaids wore frocks of blue frosted satin. All three attendants wore matching head-dresses of net and carried net fans with pink roses and staphanotis.

Karen Lewis, Grants Pass, cousin of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She wore a frock of white dotted Swiss over blue, and carried a tiny fan with pink roses. Her headdress was of net.

Richard Hanson, Medford, nephew of the bride, was ring-bearer.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and Mervin Lewis, Grants Pass, was best man for his brother, Henry Martin, Grants Pass, Leonard Lewis, Floyd Lewis, cousin from Grants Pass, were groomsmen. Seating the guests were Milton and Richard Hanson, brothers of the bride, Zouhri Derhalli and Earl and Hendrickson.

The bride's mother wore a gown of mauve faille with white accessories and a white and pink orchid. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a light blue linen frock with lace bolero, white accessories and white orchid.

About 300 guests attended the wedding and the reception which followed. White peonies with woodwardia ferns and candelabra holding white tapers decorated the church. The Rogue River academy gymnasium where the reception was held, was decorated with pink peonies and greenery. Pink candles in silver holders stood on the refreshment table. Roses encircled the wedding cake.

Mrs. George Beltz took charge of the reception and Mrs. Vern Hill, cousin of the bride, had arranged the reception program. Roy Parmenter and Elder Edwin F. Coy sang, Mrs. Alvy L. Bowman gave a reading and the Misses Rose Marie Beltz, Patty Kenneday and Sally Jo Lindgren played accordion trio selections.

Mrs. Macel Cartwright cut the wedding cake, assisted by Mrs. Wallace Bradley, and pouring punch were Mrs. Richard Morgan and Mrs. Donald Olson, twin aunts of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis made a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe, Yosemite National park and San Francisco and will live in Grants Pass. Both young people have lived their entire lives in southern Oregon, the bride in Medford and the bridegroom in Grants Pass.

The bride was graduated from Rogue River academy with the class of 1955, and the bridegroom, a graduate of Laurelwood academy, is now attending Walla Walla college.

Family Attends Yale Graduation; Wedding Day Set

Mr. and Mrs. Miner T. Boshears and son, Gary Lee Boshears, 408 South Grape street, are to arrive here Tuesday from New Haven, Conn., where the son will be graduated Monday, June 11, from Yale university. Mr. and Mrs. Boshears and son, Kenneth Boshears, who recently received his discharge from the Army, left two weeks ago for the east.

Kenneth Boshears will drive back the car in which they made the trip and his parents and brother will return by plane. They will arrive first in Portland where Miss Fidelia Boone, fiancée of Gary Lee Boshears, will meet them and return with them to Medford. Their wedding will be an event of June 17 in Medford.

Miss Boone is in Portland this week end and last evening was maid of honor for Miss Janet Woolcutt at her wedding to Charles Heinrick. The young women are sorority sisters and all are Oregon State college graduates.

Recent events held in honor of Miss Boone include a dinner party and shower given by Miss Woolcutt and her mother, Mrs. Victor Woolcutt, in Portland; a shower given here by Mrs. Kenneth Hulbert, and an outdoor party and shower for which Miss Martha Boshears and Mrs. James Blalock, both aunts of the bridegroom, entertained at the Boshears home on Grape street.

Couple to Marry In June Service

Mrs. Juanita White, 331 West Sixth street, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Dolores Ann White, to Eddy Hugh Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baker, 825 East Ninth street.

The wedding date is set for June 24. The couple will live at Burny Falls, Calif.

Prentice Family Visits in Medford

Mr. and Mrs. John Prentice and twin daughters, Lela and Lee Ann, returned to their home in Bend Thursday after a visit here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Prentice, Dakota avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Kline, 953 Jasper street.

Mr. Prentice, visual aid instructor for the public schools of Bend, is also a major in the United States Air Force reserves and will go to Salem this week for two weeks active duty.

Betrothal News Told Last Week

Announcement was made last week of the engagement of Mrs. Constance Stokes Skinner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stokes, Foothills road, to Charles Allan Sams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Sams, 208 Vashti way.

The bride-elect formerly lived in Pasadena, Calif., and attended school there. Mr. Sams was graduated from Medford High school in 1947, and has served in the United States Air Force for the past four years.

Nielsens Observe 25th Anniversary With Open House

Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Nielsen, Central Point-Jacksonville highway, observed 25th wedding anniversary Sunday, June 3 at open house held at their home between 2 and 6 p.m.

The refreshment table was decorated with pink roses and white candles and Mrs. Nolan Biehler and Mrs. Robert Mulligan served the guests. About 6 friends called on the couple who received many gifts, numerous telephone calls and congratulatory messages from relatives in Upland, Neb., and Tucson, Ariz.

The Nielsens have two sons, Allan and Randall Nielsen, students at Central Point schools. Here for the occasion from distant points were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mulligan, Miss Caroline Kay Nielsen, Okanogan, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon, Bolin, Omak, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Biehler and daughters, Janice and Connie, Portland; and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jordan, Linden, Neb.

Couple Honored At Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. Yngve S. Christianson, who were married last month at St. Mark's Episcopal church, have returned from their wedding trip to the Hawaiian islands. Mrs. Christianson is the former Dorothy Myers Peirce.

Shortly after their return home, the Christiansons were honored at a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Ben Trowbridge, Mr. and Mrs. Justin Smith and Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Lageson at the Trowbridge home on East Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Christianson will divide their time between their home here at 37 Valley View drive and their apartment in Oakland, Calif.

Tell Engagement Of Two Students

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Archibald, 2451 Roberts road, announce the engagement of their daughter, Phyllis, to Eugene Richard Morse, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Morse of Nampa, Idaho.

Miss Archibald, a graduate of Medford High school is a freshman at George Fox college, Newberg, Ore.

Mr. Morse is a sophomore at the same school. No date has been set for the wedding.
