

Church Rites Marry Couple

An 8 o'clock evening ceremony June 1 wedded Miss Malinda Jane Robinson of Grants Pass and Alfred N. Johnson of Medford. The ceremony took place at the Wilderville Methodist church and was read by the Rev. Gerald Smith of the Reese Creek Community church. About 120 guests attended.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Robinson, route 3, box 402, Grants Pass, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Johnson, 804 Crater Lake avenue, Medford.

Miss Melba Carol Robinson, Oakland, Calif., was her sister's honor attendant.

Truman Dean Collins was best man and ushers were Bob Minter and Floyd Burg.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a nylon tulle dress, waist length, with rhinestone trim. Her flowers were white carnations centered with an orchid.

The honor attendant's gown was of pink taffeta with a white lace overskirt and was waist length. She carried pink and white carnations and wore matching flowers in her hair.

Bouquets of roses decorated the altar.

Mrs. John Brunner furnished the wedding music and Miss Barbara Yost the songs.

The reception was given at the church rooms. Roses were used to decorate the bride's table and gift table.

The couple made their wedding trip to the coast and will live in Medford.

The bride attended Grants Pass high school and is a beautiful. The bridegroom is employed by Austin King in the logging industry. He attended Eagle Point high school.

Medford Student To Be Graduated From Whitworth

Mr. and Mrs. George Witter, 843 West Second street, are in Spokane, Wash., this week end and will attend graduation ceremonies Monday, June 11 at Whitworth college. Their daughter, Miss Donna Witter, is to graduate with this year's class. She has been a major in education and will teach this fall in the Parkrose school district, Portland.

Miss Witter was cochairman of the May day festivities at her school this year and was selected as a princess in the queen's court which ruled over the event.

She is a 1952 Medford high school graduate.

Medford Woman Makes Tour of Foreign States

Mrs. S. D. Earhart, 11 North Peach street, arrived home Tuesday evening after being away since February 28 on a tour of Europe. She left Amsterdam, Holland on June 2 and arrived June 3 in Portland by way of the polar flight. Flight time was 18 hours.

Before arriving home Mrs. Earhart visited in Portland with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Earhart, and arrived here by plane.

The traveler embarked from New York City on the HMS Queen Elizabeth and arrived at Southampton, England. She toured London for five days and then crossed to Holland to visit The Hague and Rotterdam. From there she traveled to Brussels, Belgium, and Stuttgart, Germany, to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Herbert, and children, Lawrence Leslie, newly born, and Katie. While Mrs. Earhart was there her granddaughter observed her second birthday.

Mrs. Earhart rejoined her tour party at Lucerne, Switzerland and continued into Austria, crossed the Brenner pass, visited at Innsbruck, Austria and then went to Venice, Italy where she stayed at the New Bauer hotel.

The group with which she traveled arrived in Rome from Florence and spent five days in Rome, being there for Palm Sunday. Leaving there they traveled along the Italian and French Riviera and visited Monaco. They made a tour of the palace of Prince Rainier, then being put in order for the arrival of Miss Grace Kelley and her wedding to the prince. They also visited the famed Monte Carlo casino.

The group arrived in Paris, France, in time to observe the Easter holiday and that day visited the Notre Dame cathedral.

Mrs. Earhart then went again to Stuttgart to visit the Herberts and from there continued to Zurich, Switzerland to see friends she had known 26 years ago while living in Pennsylvania. Mrs. Hulda Aither and daughters.

She also made a trip to Berchtesgaden, Germany, and she visited Adolf Hitler's famed Eagle's nest, and made trips to Salzburg, Austria, Chiemsee, Garish and Oberammergau. In the latter city she saw the well-known site of the Passion plays. After visiting again at Stuttgart she left by plane for Amsterdam to make the flight home.

An interesting event while visiting the Herberts was meeting Mrs. Rosalie Murray, the former Miss Rosalie Ackley who was born and raised in Medford.
