

Rock Field Trip Attracts Many; Club Session Set

Officers of Roxy Ann Gem and Mineral club report that about 100 cars carrying members of the All-American Rock Hounds Pow Wow club were in the county last week end for a field trip. The visitors collected petrified wood, jasper and dendritic (moss) agates on a large ranch not previously opened to collectors.

The trip was led by Dwight McCorkle of Eagle Point. Ben Wood, Chehalis, Wash., is president of the Pow Wow club.

Saturday night Roxy Ann club sponsored a program at Camp Corral for the visitors. John Ross showed slides of agates and refreshments were served. About 125 attended.

Today "rock hounds" of the valley will be in Roseburg to attend the annual Southern Oregon Gem and Mineral exhibit. Among those attending are Mr. and Mrs. Leland Mentzer, Mr. and Mrs. John Dodge and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crump. Roxy Ann club has entered an exhibit in the show.

A meeting of Roxy Ann club is set for Wednesday, June 13, at Redman hall, Fourth and Apple streets. The display is to be of cabochons and agate jewelry.

Scout Day Camp To Open Monday

The Medford district Girl Scout day camp will open its two-week eight-day session Monday, June 11, at 9 a.m. The camping program takes place at the day camp site on Bear Creek, off Barnett Road, behind the county shops.

Camp hours are from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m. Evergreen buses will provide transportation, and will leave from five schools at 8:30 a.m. each morning, returning to the schools around 2:30 p.m. The schools are Jefferson, Washington, Roosevelt, Lincoln, and Jackson. The $1.25 bus fare for the entire eight day session must be paid by the camper on the first morning to the bus driver, headquarters has announced.

Mrs. Lynn Hayes, Medford day camp director, emphasizes that no child can be accepted at the bus or at the camp who has not already registered earlier in the school registration in May. Registrations have had to be restricted because insufficient workers volunteered to handle a larger camp.

Swedish Visitor Now in Portland

Central Point—Miss Doris Florin of Detlanda, Sweden, who has been visiting in Central Point at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Burkhart, left this week end for Portland to visit relatives there. She and Mrs. Burkhart are cousins. Miss Florin arrived in Central Point on May 22 after visiting other relatives in Minneapolis, Minn.

Miss Florin is spending about a year in this country studying for missionary work in New Guinea.

Mrs. Burkhart's mother, Mrs. Joe Berglund, accompanied her to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce P. Ryan (Bruno studio—Hillsboro)

Ryan-Germeroth Ceremony Held in Hillsboro Church

Miss Ardith M. Germeroth of Hillsboro, a teacher in Ashland high school the past year, and Bruce P. Ryan of Medford, were married June 2 in 8 o'clock evening rites at Hillsboro. The ceremony was read by the Rev. George Reule at Trinity Lutheran church.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Germeroth, Hillsboro, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Ryan, 938 Grant street, Medford.

The couple made a wedding trip to Colorado and will live at Boulder while the bridegroom, who has been teaching the past year at Bellview school, Ashland, will work toward his master's and doctor's degrees in speech. The bride will teach commercial subjects in a Boulder High school.

Mr. Germeroth gave his daughter in marriage. Her gown was fashioned with a lace bodice and taffeta cummerbund, with a lace point overskirt. The full floor length skirt was of pleated net. She wore a fingertip veil held by a headpiece of seed pearls and orange blossoms which had been worn by her mother. Her bouquet was of daisies.

Miss Eunice R. Germeroth was honor attendant for her sister, and another sister, Mrs. Elaine L. Potthoff, was bridesmatron. Miss Ann M. Molek, Portland, was bridesmaid.

The bride's attendants were dressed in princess style in gowns of pale blue satinated cotton embroidered with blue rose designs and they carried yellow daisy bouquets. Miss Pebble DeSart was vocalist.

During the reception held in the church, Miss Trudy Rossman and Mrs. Vic Suhola presided at the punch bowl and Miss Shirley Hagen and Miss Marilyn Butler poured coffee. Mrs. Jack Forell had charge of the gifts and Miss Mary Ann Lubich assisted about the church rooms. Mrs. Lewis Thanos and Mrs. William Stoughton served the cake and the Thanos' son, Peter, and daughter, Catherine, served the bridegroom's cake.

The mother of the bride wore a pale blue lace dress over taffeta with navy blue and white accessories. Her corsage was a pink cymbidium orchid. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in cream colored lace over satin worn with brown and beige accessories. Her corsage was of yellow cymbidium orchids.

Lewis Thanos, a brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man. Seating the guests were William Stoughton of Ashland; Ron Apodaca, Pueblo, Colo., and Howard Wilson, Salem.

The church was decorated with yellow and white gaidolius with white tapers.

The bride attended Oregon State college and the bridegroom attended Los Angeles City college and Southern Oregon college.

Scheel Family Holds Reunion

For the first time in 18 years the Scheel family met for a reunion June 1 and 2 at the family home in Central Point. Attending were the eight children of Mrs. C. H. Scheel and the late Mr. Scheel. They moved with the family from Wisconsin to Medford in 1927. Six of the children are Medford high school graduates.

Mr. Scheel died in November, 1953.

Thirty-three persons attended including 12 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren. The group picnicked, boated and swam for diversions on Friday and on Saturday evening they met for a banquet at Henry's dining room.

The children and the husbands and wives who attended are Mr. and Mrs. Arnold F. Kornstad, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Scheel, all of Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Joe W.
