Clubs Plan Events for All Riders

With the coming of warmer weather, riding clubs of the valley have increased their activities.

Ladies Mounted troop, auxiliary to the Jackson County Mounted Sheriffs posse, is planning an overnight ride for June 16 and 17. The ride will originate at the John McCabe ranch, 1 1/2 miles up Ward creek road near Rogue River. Signs will point the way at different intervals, those in charge state.

To start the event a steak dinner will be served Saturday evening about 7 p.m. Everyone is to take their own steak and table service.

A moonlight ride will lead up into the surrounding hills later in the evening, and a midnight "snack" will be served. An early morning ride will precede a big breakfast of ham and eggs. The committee promises plenty of room and plenty of feed for all the horses, and plenty of soft ground for sleeping bags.

All members of the Jackson and Josephine County Sheriffs' posses and their auxiliaries, Medford Trail Riders, and friends are cordially invited to attend. Chairmen for the ride are Miss Beverley Nelson, Miss Verna Dudley and Miss Montana Emerson.

Medford Trail Riders will conduct a play day today at the Jackson county fair grounds beginning at 11 a.m. All horseback riders and anyone interested are invited to attend.

Small fees will be charged for entry into the various events and ribbons will be awarded. Hamburgers and other refreshments will be available. Junior posse members made final plans at a meeting Thursday evening for a week end trip to Montague, Calif., to participate in rodeo events. The rodeo will be held Sunday, June 24 and many of the group plan to leave Saturday to attend the Queen's dance that evening. They will return Sunday evening.

They will present their precision drill at the rodeo and will take part in the parade which precedes it. Also at Thursday's meeting members received new uniforms which will be worn at this year's activities.

Meeting Announced For Gorsline Circle
Gorsline circle of First Baptist church will meet Monday, June 11, at 7:45 p.m. at the home of Mrs. R. J. Higdon, 415 Experimental Station road. A program on Haiti will be presented by Mrs. Howard Patrick.

White Cross articles to be brought are biscuit mixes, tinned meats, fish or powdered coffee. Visitors are welcome.

Prom-Neumann Ceremony Held at Catholic Church

Miss LaDel Jean Neumann became the bride of Gary Prom in a ceremony held May 12 at 9:30 o'clock in the morning at Sacred Heart Catholic church. The Rev. Nicholas Deis officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Neumann, 1108 Withington street, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Prom, Central Point.

Miss Mary Prom, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid and Miss Jeanette Purdy, cousin of the bride, was maid-of-honor.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin and lace, ballerina length, and her shoulder-length veil was trimmed with pearls. She carried pink carnations.

The attendants wore matching frocks of blue and yellow nylon, ballerina style, and carried nosegays of carnations.

Best man was Duane Prom, brother of the bridegroom, and ushers were Don Prom and Richard Stark, both cousins of the bridegroom.

The reception was held at the Griffin Creek Grange hall with about 75 guests attending.

Miss Judy Morris served punch and Miss Ruth Miller cut the wedding cake, assisted by Miss Darlene Smith.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a gold colored suit with Navy accessories and an orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a blue suit with white accessories and her corsage was an orchid.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Penwell from Eugene, Ore., Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Gulde and their daughter, Delora Guch, Lawrence Prom, Don Prom, Hilde Prom and Richard Stark, all from St. Cloud, Minn.

After a trip to the coast, the newlyweds are now living at the Plaza apartments.

The bride is a member of the 1956 class of Medford High school, which was graduated Thursday night, and the bridegroom was graduated from Central Point High school. He is employed by Double Dee mill in Central Point.

Reunion Attended By Six Cousins

A family reunion was held recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Miller, 615 West 13th street. Mrs. Miller, the former Miss Dot Berry, entertained five cousins, all granddaughters of the late James A. Cardwell, a Jacksonville pioneer.

It was the only time that all six of the cousins have been together at one time.

The cousins are Mrs. Frank Davis, the former Miss Ruby Bilger, of Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. Jean Branson, the former Miss Edith Cardwell, Tulelake, Calif.; Mrs. Vivian Cardwell Coffin, Pomona, Calif.; Mrs. Edna Cardwell Eriksen, San Francisco, Calif., and Mrs. Helen Cardwell Hammock, Roseburg.

Miss Frances Kenney, who is a cousin of Mrs. Branson and Mrs. Coffin, and Frank Davis, and Willard Smith, also attended the event.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Jean Branson had just returned from trips to Europe and Mexico and entertained the group with slides taken of the scenes they had visited.

Dinner Announced By Townsend Club

A turkey dinner will be served Wednesday, June 13 from 5 to 7 p.m., by members of the Townsend club at the Carpenters union hall, 123 1/2 West Main street.

Music and entertainment are planned and the public is invited.

A business meeting for members will be held from 3 to 5 p.m., preceding the dinner.

The club sponsors a dinner once each month and all members and friends are invited.

At a meeting of the group held June 6, 19 members attended. Mrs. Maud Arnold, vice-president, conducted the business session. Mrs. Josephine Whaley, Central Point, is acting as secretary, while Mrs. Lulu Stringer is in Portland on a visit.

Members Attend Sorority Meeting

Alpha Lambda chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority is well represented at the international convention being held in Albuquerque, N. M., this weekend.

Mrs. Chester Jines, junior past president, has been nominated for first vice president of the international council. Mrs. Jines was chosen Oregon's outstanding sorority member at the state convention in April. She now is president of Gamma Rho chapter, Grants Pass.

Mrs. Fred Stammen, a charter member, will receive a 10-year membership pin. Mrs. Stammen also is a past president of this chapter and at the present time is a member of Beta Beta chapter, Eugene.

Mrs. Tom Makris and Mrs. Robert Shangle also are attending. They will give a report on the convention during a meeting June 18 at the home of Mrs. Lyman Smith, 317 Howard street.

College Students Married In Methodist Church Rites

Ashland — Miss Patsy Nell Roberts and Robert Anglim, Grants Pass, both students at Southern Oregon college, were married June 3 in a three o'clock afternoon ceremony at First Methodist church. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Roberts, Smith River, Calif.

The Rev. Rose Knotts officiated. About 75 guests witnessed the ceremony, held in a setting of white gladiolus, roses and columbine arranged in baskets. Candelabra held lighted tapers.

The bride wore a gown of net and lace over satin designed with long sleeves and very full skirt. Her fingertip length veil was held by a small cap trimmed with pearls and she carried sweet peas.

Mrs. Charles Quinowski, Ashland, attended the bride as matron-of-honor. She wore a gown of blue taffeta with scoop neck and elbow-length sleeves and carried sweet peas.

Janney McCarley, cousin of the bride from Smith River, was flower girl. She wore a frock of lavender dotted Swiss and carried a basket of flowers.

Mr. Roberts gave his daughter in marriage, and Richard Roberts of Sacramento, Calif., brother of the bride, was best man. Jay Raymond Roberts, Smith River, another brother, and Jim Womack, Ashland were ushers.

The reception was held at the church. Pouring and assisting with serving were Mrs. William G. Gist, Medford, Mrs. H. W. McCarley, the bride's aunt from Smith River and Mrs. Frank Gordon, cousin of the bride, Ashland.

Both Mr. Anglim and his bride are well known for their student activities at SOC. Mr. Anglim was president of his class his sophomore year and both have appeared in college plays. The bride was queen of the 1955 Winter Forest formal dance, and was named Betty Coad for 1956. Both are education majors, and will return to school in the fall.

Artist Displays Work at Store

Three pieces of modern art work done by John Rock, who has been art instructor at Crater high school, are on display this week at Frake and Smith store.

They consist of two prints and a woodblock just returned from an exhibit at the Seattle Museum.

Mr. Rock, who has had these and other prints shown at the Portland Museum of Art, the Seattle Museum, the Denver, Colo., Museum and at Brooklyn, N. Y., this year, is leaving soon for Oakland, Calif., to complete work toward his master's degree at the California College of Arts and Crafts.

The exhibit at the store will be held only for one week. If public reaction is favorable toward such displays more of this type of work will be shown, those in charge of the display have announced.

For a surprise flavor, float lemon slices on top of bowls of hot tomato or lentil soup.

C.

A—From the Couturier Collection: CELEBRITY... A swimsuit makes a career of fashion, while it goes to any length to fit you. Its secret is in its shirring, that stretches to just the right length for you. And if there's a curve you want to conceal... why, speaking figuratively, "Celebrity" has everything! Laton taffeta. 22.95

B—"RHAPSODY"... Makes fashion its theme song, while it rhapsodizes about your figure! Light shirring trims your hips, slims your waist, soft-pedals any figure faults, as it curves you into a jewel-twinkled, boned twin bra for double the fit and flattery! Elasticized bengaline. 19.95

C—"JUBILEE"... A swimsuit event to celebrate... this joyous new version of the hourglass! It takes a long line to taper you, shape you... as subtle shirring conceals where it means the most, reveals only the newest, the loveliest fashion. Elasticized bengaline. 19.95
