

HORN BROOK News Spotlight on Youth

By MRS. H. H. CHAPMAN
Hornbrook — In this small town, as in the rest of the country, the news spotlight these days centers on the young people, their school activities, their graduations and their plans for the future.

Graduated last week with honors from St. Mary's academy in Medford was Ermin Bear, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bear. Ermin is spending the summer at home helping his father on the ranch, and planning to enter college in the fall.

Also home from St. Mary's for the summer are the two sons of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brunk, John and Mike. They, too, will be helping on their parent's ranch, and for recreation will be active in the Babe Ruth baseball league.

The eighth grade class of the local grammar school held their graduation exercises the evening of June 6. The address of welcome was given by the class president, Shirley Moffett, the class history was read by Geraldine Elmore, and the class will be by Carl Williams Jr.

Penny Barnum, a member of the seventh grade class, gave an accordion solo, and Bobbie Sasser and Lillian Rawhauser sang a duet. The graduation speech was given by Conrad Overstrum. Guest speaker was Richard Lamb, Boy Scout executive from Yreka. He spoke on patriotism and the love of the flag.

Receiving their diplomas from Tom Watt, a member of the school board, were Benny Crawford, Della Sylva, Bobby Sasser, Shirley Moffett, Conrad Overstrum, Geraldine Elmore, Carl Williams Jr., Lillian Rawhauser and Lorraine White. At the close of the graduation exercises, the PTA presented gifts to the teachers. Mrs. Ruth Cummings, Mrs. Kate Smith, Mrs. Mrs. Alice Rutledge, Al Gregory and to the custodian, Mrs. Gladys Jones.

The young people finished out the evening with a dance and party for which the mothers of the seventh and eighth graders provided the refreshments. Due to the overcrowding of the school and the fact that the auditorium and even the stage have had to be converted to class rooms, the graduation exercises had to be held at the Grange hall.

A special election will be held July 17 to vote on a bonding issue to provide additional rooms to the school building.

A sidelight of the graduation was the fact that the departure of Della Sylva from the grammar to high school marks the first time in 19 years that Mr. and Mrs. John Sylva will not have had a child attending the local school.

Graduating from high school at the Seventh Day Adventist academy at Milo, Ore., was Eddie Mason, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mason. Eddie is working temporarily at the mill, and has tentative plans to enter college at Walla Walla, Wash., in the fall. Also home for the summer is the Mason's older daughter, Linda Rawhauser. She has been attending school at Columbia academy in Battleground, Wash., where she will enter her sophomore year in September. Her sister, Lillian, who was among the graduates of the local grammar school this year, will enter the same school as a freshman.

Graduation exercises at Yreka High school on June 7 saw three Hornbrook young people receive their diplomas. They were Arlene Burns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ardon Burns, Robert (Butch) Pickard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Pickard Sr., and Darrell Crawford, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Crawford, and a former Hornbrook girl, now at Yreka, Myrna Cummins, daughter of Carl Cummins of Hornbrook, and Mrs. Mae Windsor of Yreka. Miss Joanne Burns, who is employed at a clinic at San Mateo, Calif., returned home June 7 to attend her sister's graduation, and spend a few days with her family.

At graduation exercises at Chico State college on June 8, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Jeter saw their daughter, Sally, receive her degree of bachelor of science in teaching. Sally will be home during the summer, and next fall she will be teaching third grade at Themolito, Calif. Bill Jeter, who is completing his freshman year at Chico State, will be employed by the U.S. Forest Service this summer. Bob Payne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lauran Payne, was elected president of next year's senior class at Yreka high, and Sharee Walsh was chosen secretary of the Girls' Athletic association. Sharee is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Walsh.

Tom Watt Jr., will resign his position as clerk of the local school board when he takes office as a member of the newly formed Siskiyou County Board of Education. The first meeting of the new board will be July 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles LeBrun and three children of Portland, Ore., were visitors this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bear.

Mrs. Bear gave a party June 4 for members of the Catholic class of instruction. Present were Alice, Maxine and Arthur Freitas and their month, Mrs. Louis Freitas, Danny Metzner and his grandmother, Mrs. Grace Quigley, Eddie Lemos and his grandmother, Mrs. Mary

SHADY COVE-TRAIL Five Generations at Dinner

By EVALYN P. WATSON
Shady Cove-Trail—Five generations were represented at a dinner given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Williams of Shady Cove June 2. Here for the event was Mrs. Gertrude Jory of Oakland, mother of Walter Cross of Shady Cove and great-great-grandmother of Michael Andrews of Medford, baby son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Andrews of Medford and the youngest member of the family.

The five generations represented are, great-great-grandmother, Mrs. Gertrude Jory of Oakland, great-grandmother, Mrs. Walter Cross of Shady Cove, mother, Mrs. W. Andrews of Medford, and baby son, Michael Andrews.

Other guests were the paternal grandparents of the baby, Mr. and Mrs. Andrews of Camp White, and the great-grandparents of the baby, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Williams of Brookings, Ore., as well as Miss Billie Andrews and Gary Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Arley Spain, former residents of Shady Cove, are on a brief visit from their home in Phoenix and are staying at their home on Rogue River dr. while here.

A silver tea to benefit the Red Cross will be held at the home of Mrs. Ernest Segessenman on Friday, June 29, from 2 to 4 p.m. It will be open to the public and representatives of several branches of the Red Cross and the executive board will be present to explain various phases of Red Cross work.

We wish to correct an item of recent date which stated that a Mr. and Mrs. Bill Yancey of Menlo Park, Calif., had been visiting in this area. Lee Yancey is correct instead of Bill.

An addition to the teaching staff of the Shady Cove school is Mrs. Arthur Greenley of Shady Cove, who has taught in the primary grades for several years at the Elk-Trail school. She will teach in one of the primary grades.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hicks of Pasco, Wash., are visiting with Hick's brother, Loren Christene of Shady Cove.

Mrs. Isabelle Wunderlich of Shady Cove is vacationing in Portland where she is visiting with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Thompson of Monrovia, Calif., who are spending some time at their summer home next to the Dolf Larsons on the River rd., took a short trip into Washington as far north as Port Angeles. On their trip they saw a great deal of the damage caused by the flood in the Columbia river area. They took the ferry trip across the Columbia from the Washington side to Astoria. Coming back they went down the coast as far as Tillamook where they visited the famous Tillamook cheese factory.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Stalker of Medford recently purchased the Cove Drug store and are now operating the business. Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Jones, who formerly operated the drug store, have moved back to their home in Grants Pass. The Stalkers and son David, 16, have been residents of the Rogue River valley for the past two years and Stalker has been employed by the Rexall Drug store and McLains Drug center of Medford. Prior to moving to the valley, Stalker, a registered pharmacist, owned and operated pharmacies in Council, Idaho, and Prairie City, Ore. Their son has been attending a military academy in San Diego. Mr. and Mrs. Stalker have exchanged their property at 133 Willamette st. in Medford with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cook for their property in Shady Cove, and both couples are moving into their new homes over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Blair of Shady Cove have moved to Eagle Point, and the new owners of the Blair residence, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kennedy and son of Walla Walla, Wash., are now installed in Shady Cove. Mrs. Kennedy and son, Bill Jr., arrived last week. Kennedy has been here for some time.

Art Greenley of Shady Cove is still confined to his home with a badly sprained and injured ankle which seems to be improving.

Mr. and Mrs. George Storey of Seattle are visiting with Mrs. Storey's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dolf Larson of Shady Cove, for a few days. They spent some time visiting with the Larsons several weeks ago and then made a trip into California. They are now on their way home and Eda Larson will accompany them for a vacation.

The Bloodmobile which was scheduled to visit Shady Cove June 12 has been cancelled due to conflicting dates. It will be in Medford on June 13 and anyone from this area who had planned to give to the Bloodmobile here may do so in Medford at that time.

Ivan Hale of Shady Cove is confined to Forest Glen hospital at Canyonville following a recent appendectomy. At last reports he is improving. Mrs. Hale drove to Grants Pass Thursday and picked up Ivan's mother, Mrs. Mary Hale and made a trip to Canyonville to the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Segessenman of Shady Cove returned the first part of the week from Portland where they visited Sharon Callahan of Medford who graduated as a nurse at St. Vincent's from the University of Portland. Miss Callahan is the daughter of William Callahan who was employed for a long time as bookkeeper at the Segessenman mill. They attended both the graduation exercise at the University of Portland in the morning, at which Bishop Conley of Spokane was the speaker, and the commencement exercise in the afternoon at the Civic auditorium. They also made a trip to Newburg where they tended family graves at the cemetery. On the way home they visited Mrs. Segessenman's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Vossion, of Eugene.
