

BUTTE FALLS

Families Attend Graduation

By JUNE TAUTON
Butte Falls — Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hartlerode spent the week end with their son, William "Red" Hartlerode and family, in Klamath Falls, Ore.

They attended the commencement exercises of the Oregon Technical Institute, from which their son was a graduate. It was the eighth annual commencement of OTI and there were 363 graduates.

Baccalaureate and commencement exercises were held June 3rd in the field house on the campus.

Mrs. Hartlerode also attended the Mothers' Tea with her daughter-in-law. The tea was given by the Faculty Wives club of the OTI at the home of Mrs. Winston Purvine, on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Elga Abbott and son Raymond, also of Butte Falls, joined the Hartlerode families Sunday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Abbott are the parents of the younger Mrs. Hartlerode.

The Abbotts returned to Butte Falls via Crater Lake, and the senior Hartlerode came home via the Green Springs, where they visited with Hartlerode's mother, who is convalescing from recent surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Arnold also attended the graduation services at Klamath Falls, in honor of their son, Harold L. Arnold, who graduated.

Mrs. F. L. Brown was present to watch her son, Don Brown, get his diploma.

On May 30, a resident of Butte Falls, Lafayette B. Preston, celebrated his 100th birthday, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mina Wright.

Among those who were present to celebrate the occasion were his son, Benjamin Preston, and family of Gerber, Calif.; a daughter, Martha Jensen and family, of Bremerton, Wash.; a daughter, Ida M. Tyrell of Stockton, Calif.; a nephew, Earl Stockdale, and wife of Cottage Grove; and two grandsons, Charles and Floyd McCabe of Butte Falls.

Mrs. Burrell Facey and daughters, Patsy and Vanessa, have gone to visit friends and relatives in Toledo, Ohio. They plan to be gone for several weeks. They hope to spend most of the time with Mr. and Mrs. Harley Frye and family.

Due to the death of his brother-in-law, L. E. Stack, Alva Webster went to Los Angeles a couple of weeks ago, to be with his sister, Mrs. L. E. (May) Stack.

Mr. and Mrs. Jewell Reddell and family of Kansas City, Kan., visited for a couple of days with his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Reddell and family.

David Jenkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jenkins, was a lucky lad a couple of weeks ago. The Butte Falls town baseball team was playing Ashland, when one of the balls was hit up on the roof of the high school gym. Younk Jenkins went to retrieve the ball, and in doing so, he fell to the ground, a distance of about 20 feet. He was taken to Sacred Heart hospital where x-rays showed no bones were broken. He was advised to stay in bed a day or so, and considers himself a lucky boy.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Irwin, have purchased a home in Butte Falls. They bought the place of John Henshaw, and are in the process of moving. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hodge of Oakridge, Ore., visited Mr. and Mrs. Page Stauffer last week end. Mrs. Stauffer then motored to Forest Grove, Ore., where she visited the home of a little blind friend of hers, Darryl Henry. Darryl is a student of the Oregon School for the Blind.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Leatherman of Butte Falls, and brother Irwin, of Camp Mather, Calif., went to Eugene where they visited old school mates.

Ralph Conard, brother of Mrs. Floyd Mattern, was seriously injured in a dynamiting accident on May 31. Also injured was Noah Husky, a newcomer to Butte Falls.

Ralph Conard is reported to be in fair condition, and Husky has suffered a broken jaw.

On June 3 a "Jalopy breakfast" was held in the Butte Falls city park. Hotcakes with sausage or fried ham and coffee were served from 6 a.m. to 10 a.m.

Proceeds from the breakfast go to the Butte Falls Lions club, which sponsored it.

In May 24 neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. McNulty called to wish him happy birthday. Mr. and Mrs. McNulty, and son Keith, are newcomers to Butte Falls. McNulty is the diesel mechanic for Medford Corporation.

Butte Falls has welcomed many newcomers these past few weeks. Many people are beginning to realize how nice our little community is. It is above the fog, and beyond the flood regions. Our new highway is nearing completion, the fish are biting in Butte Creek, the lakes and in Willow Creek dam.

On June 1 in the Butte Falls High school gym, eight seniors graduated from high school. The three girls were Patricia Irwin, Mickey McConochie, and Mary Ann Wright. The five boys were Vernon Arnold, Lee Owens, Terry Edmondson, Dale Ray Smith, and Jim Berg.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis S. Cramer of Butte Falls celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary May 27 at a dinner given in their honor by her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Slim Clason of Central Point, Ore.

Several cards were presented by relatives who could not attend the celebration, each card containing a silver dollar. Also received were a silver salad set, a silver pie server and a silver pierced serving spoon.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Bebb of Grants Pass, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Burton of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Duane Burton of Butte Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Slim Clason of Central Point, and Mr. and Mrs. Doug Cramer of Butte Falls. A three-tiered cake with ice cream and coffee were served as refreshments.

LESSON BACKFIRES
Kearney, Neb.—(U.P.)—Acting Police Magistrate Dewayne Wolf thought he was teaching his wife a lesson Friday when he fined her $2 for parking overtime. But Mrs. Wolf didn't show up in court, and Wolf had to pay the fine for her out of his own pocket.
