

Mississippi, Minnesota Win at Omaha

Omaha, Neb. —(U.P.)—Mississippi and Minnesota looked like the teams to beat in the NCAA world series of college baseball today.

The Rebels and the Gophers each scored their second victories without a loss in the double elimination tournament Sunday and dominated the four other teams still in the running.

Two more teams are sure to be knocked out today as Wyoming faces Bradley and New Hampshire plays Arizona. All four have one tournament loss. Mississippi and Minnesota buck heads in the evening windup.

Washington State and New York University were ousted Sunday as each absorbed its second defeat.

Minnesota chalked up its second straight win while handing Arizona its initial loss 3-1 in a tight pitchers' duel which saw 21 batters take a third strike. Jerry Thomas struck out 10 Arizona batters while posting the victory. Carl Thomas fanned 11 and suffered the defeat.

Buddy Wittichen hurled a net one-hitter as Mississippi blanked Bradley, 4-0.

New Hampshire staved off a late inning rally to defeat Washington State, 6-4. Relief pitcher Joe Kazura took over the mound chores in the fifth and limited Washington State to two safeties the rest of the way.

Wyoming exploded for seven runs in the first two innings and went on to defeat New York University, 8-2.

Oregonians Top Skiers

Timberline Lodge —(U.P.)—A Portland skier, racing under the banner of Sun Valley, Ida., and a Bend girl captured top honors in the Golden Rose downhill race here yesterday afternoon.

A blinding snow storm which cut visibility to 100 feet forced officials to shorten the course to a mile and a quarter as top skiers from throughout the Northwest took part in the annual Rose Festival race.

Ron Funk won the men's race in 1:54.2 while Rhona Gillis of the Bend Skyliners took top place in the women's competition with a time of 2:26.

Four seconds behind Funk and in second place was Gardner Smith of Reno, Nev. Bob Elmer, Cascade finished third with Seattle's Don Gassaway in fourth. Behind Miss Gillis in the women's division came Nonie Foley, Sun Valley and Dorothy Campbell of Seattle.

The loss from worthless checks offered for payment in the U. S. in one year runs as high as $300,000,000, according to banking estimates.

Mantle, Schoendienst Lead As Fans Choose All-Stars

New York —(U.P.)—First returns from the nation's baseball fans in the All-Star balloting today pegged Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees and Red Schoendienst of the St. Louis Cardinals as the top vote-getters for their leagues.

Mantle, far out front for the American League center field post, had a total of 3,258 votes in the tabulations being compiled this year by the office of Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick.

AL Balloting
 Schoendienst, leader in a run-of-the-mine crop of second basemen in the National League, had a total of 2,330 votes.

The balloting for American League players in the early going was running true to form with seven of the eight early leaders the ones who were voted on to last year's team. The other leaders behind Mantle were catcher Yogi Berra of the Yankees, 3,120; shortstop Harvey Kuenn of the Tigers, 2,519; left fielder Ted Williams of the Red Sox, 1,745; right fielder Al Kaline of the Tigers, 1,669; second baseman Nellie Fox of the White Sox, 1,646; first baseman Mickey Vernon of the Red Sox, 1,318; and third baseman Ray Boone of the Tigers, 921. All but Boone were voted on to last year's team by the fans. NL votes

However, there was quite an upheaval in the early returns from the National League where Schoendienst, shortstop Ernie Banks of the Cubs and center fielder Duke Snider of the Dodgers were the only 1955 winners out in front thus far.

Runner-up to Schoendienst in the early voting was his teammate, right fielder Stan Musial of the Cardinals with 2,237 votes. Roy Campanella, the Dodger catcher, led his post with 2,160 votes. Other early leaders were Dale Long, the slugging first baseman of the Pirates with 2,099; centerfielder Snider with 1,721; third baseman Ken Boyer of the Cardinals with 1,520; shortstop Banks with 1,421 and left fielder Rip Repulski of the Cardinals with 714.

Fans are voting for the All-Star candidates to be the starters in the game at Washington on July 10, through newspapers, radio and TV stations and other agencies in all parts of the nation. Pitchers will be selected by the rival managers, Walt Alston of the National League and Casey Stengel of the American.

Parent tossed three-hit ball at the Millers. Two of the singles were in the third inning by Gene Stein and Wayne Berg. Glendale combined them with a walk, error and groundout by Miller for its two runs.

Miller fanned 11 and Parent six.

Butte Falls had to subdue a ninth inning uprising by Eagle Point. BF led 7 to 0 going into the frame. A bases-loaded double by Dick Osborne highlighted the big try by the Eagles. John Harbort homered for Grants Pass.

The Colts will play Grants Pass here Wednesday night in a non-league ruckus.

Eugene Near Lead in NW League Race

By RAY ANDREWS
 United Press Sports Writer

The Eugene Emeralds tightened the Northwest League baseball race yesterday with 9-3 and 7-2 victories over league-leading Yakima.

Eugene got four runs in the fifth inning of the opener on a solo homer by Bill Girdley and a three-run homer by Gene Marinacci. The Emeralds polished it off with five in the seventh.

In the nightcap, Leroy Han set the Bears down with eight well-scattered hits while his mates were collecting 12.

Lewiston moved to within game of the lead on 13-11 and 12-6 victories over Spokane. Joe Riney belted a three-run homer in the sixth inning of the opener and Lewiston won it in overtime with three runs in the eighth on five consecutive singles.

In the second game, the Broncs tallied eight runs in the final two innings for the decision. Gene Klingler helped himself to four hits in six trips in the nightcap and Riney collected three more bingles in that one.

Salem tripped Tri-City 9-3 and 2-0. The opener actually was a continuation of a game which was called at the end of three innings Saturday night with Tri-City ahead, Salem got three in the fourth and five more in the fifth and coasted in.

Ad Satalich tossed a 3-hitter to subdue the Braves in the second game. The Senators tallied both their runs in the first frame on a one-run single by Chuck Essegian and an infield out which tallied Mel Krause from third.

IHAROS WINS
 Warsaw, Poland —(U.P.)—Sandor Iharos of Hungary won the 3,000-meter race in 7:59.4 Sunday during an international track meet. Lazlo Tabori of Hungary was second in 8:00.8.

SERVICES HELD
 McColl, S. C. —(U.P.)—Funeral services will be held today for Mrs. Jessica Tatum, mother of University of North Carolina football coach Jim Tatum, who died Sunday. She was 79.

Chicago Beats Phillies Twice; Cubs Rank as 'Surprise Team'

By FRED DOWN
 United Press Sports Writer

The Chicago Cubs have discarded their "patsy label" and rank today as the new "surprise team" of the major leagues.

Off to a dismal start, Stan Hack's fangless Bruins seemed doomed to the National League cellar as recently as Memorial Day. But now they're traveling at a .727 pace that's the best in either league for the month of June, and they've been doing it by beating the cream of the circuit's pitching talent.

The Cubs made it eight victories in their last 11 games when they beat the Philadelphia Phillies 2-1 and 5-2 Sunday. It was their second consecutive sweep of a double-header and recalled Hack's pre-season promise that the Cubs "would give everybody trouble before the season is over."

Miksis' Bat Stars
 Eddie Miksis, who's been hitting close to .400 in the surge, broke up the 11-inning opener with a single that scored Pete Whisenand from third base. Miksis had homered in the first inning to give the Cubs their other run off Curt Simmons. Vito Valentini, who took over for Warren Hacker in the ninth, picked up his third win and second in three days.

San Jones, an early disappointment after his fine rookie campaign of 1955, came through with his best game of the season in the nightcap when he struck out nine batters and yielded only six hits in 8 1-3 innings. Jones ran into trouble in the ninth when the Phillies loaded the bases but Turk Lown came on to get Stan Lopata to hit into a double play.

The Cincinnati Redlegs bowed to the Brooklyn Dodgers, 8-6 but retained first place by three percentage points when other contenders either split double-headers or lost.

ROEBUCK STALLS REDLEGS
 Rookie Charley Neal's two-run homer provided the Dodgers with their margin of victory but it was Ed Roebuck's seven innings of one run relief pitching that held the Redlegs at bay. Ransom Jackson homered and drove in four runs for Brooklyn, while Ted Kluszewski and Wally Post homered for the Redlegs.

The Pittsburgh Pirates held first place briefly when they walloped the St. Louis Cardinals, 11-3, but Herman Wehmeier came back to pitch the Redlegs to a 3-0 triumph in the nightcap. Luis Arroyo fanned five to beat his former mates in the opener while Wehmeier also struck out five and allowed only one runner to reach third base.

The New York Giants, now only a half-game ahead of the Cubs, rallied for four runs in the seventh inning to beat Milwaukee, 5-3. Johnny Antonelli earned his fifth victory in relief. Warren Spahn suffered his fifth straight loss since May 17, when his record was 3-1.

Yanks Widen Lead
 In the American league, the New York Yankees restored their lead to 3 1/2 games when they downed the Cleveland Indians, 6-0. Johnny Kucks limited the Indians to nine hits for his seventh win while Joe Collins blasted a three-run homer off Bob Lemon for the big New York blow of the contest.

Billy Pierce won his eighth game to tie Jim Wilson and Tom Brewer for the individual lead and give the Chicago White Sox a 3-2 win over the Boston Red Sox. The White Sox scored all three runs off George Susce in the third.

Enos Slaughter's pinch double snapped a 2-2 sixth-inning tie and the Kansas City Athletics streak with a 7-3 decision over the Baltimore Orioles. Art Ditmar won his fifth game.

The Washington Senators beat the Detroit Tigers, 6-5, on Jim Lemon's two-run ninth inning single and then Lemon and Roy Sievers homered as the Nats won the nightcap, 12-9. The Senators had lost six straight games to the Tigers before Sunday.

Bousman Nabs Main Again; Miller Wins Four Events

Allen Bousman, Klamath Falls, drove his K25 car to its third straight main event victory in the feature hardtop race speedway but Bernie Miller, Saturday night at Valley View, skipping G4, took the lion's share of the laurels.

Miller won the special event, a 15-lap winner-take-all scamper in which 19 cars entered. He drove to triumph in the semi-main, the trophy dash and the first heat. To top off the evening he took fourth in the main. Bousman won the main at Valley View on June 2 and at Klamath Falls on June 3.

Victors in the other heat races were Jim Shippy in P88, Cecil James in M1 and Brock Hunter in 15X.

Pollard Point Leader
 Hunter captured second place in the main and James came in third. Fifth place went to Wayne ford, 623; Nita Misco, Klamath Falls, 621; Frances Knudsen, Roseburg, 616; Fredene Doty, Medford, 606, and Vivian Knox, Medford, 599.

Women's all events was headed by Skip Newell, Grants Pass, 1824. Frances Knudsen was second at 1808; Joan Cornutt, Roseburg, third at 1750; Sally Hadden, fourth at 1744, and Helen Mentzer, Roseburg, fifth at 1737.

Ken Bushey, Roseburg, led western singles with 1357. Charles Sullivan, Medford, was next with 1352; Rex Morgan, Medford, third with 1314, and Ed Willits, Roseburg, fourth with 1307.

ROAD LOSES
 Lugano, Switzerland —(U.P.)—Beverly Baker Fleitz of Long Beach, Calif., won the women's singles crown in the Swiss tennis championships by defeating Jennifer Staley Hoard of Australia, 1-6, 6-3, 6-3.
