

Whitey Ford Racks Up 16th Victory As Yankees Drop Hapless White Sox

By JOHN GRIFFIN
United Press Sports Writer

The Chicago White Sox escaped the humiliation of a no-hitter, but they'll never win the American League pennant until they do something about Whitey Ford.

That much was clear today in the wake of Ford's four-hit, 4-2, victory over the White Sox at Yankee stadium Tuesday night—the Yankee's sixth win in six meetings with the Sox this year and Ford's 16th triumph against only three losses to them during his career.

The cocky, pint-sized lefty, who now has beaten Chicago three times this season, had the Sox hitless until Nellie Fox opened the seventh inning with a slow bouncer through off. Ford allowed two runs in that frame before taking hold again to save the victory.

Ford's win boosted the Yankee's American League lead to 4½ games over the second-place Cleveland Indians, who dropped a 9-7 slugfest to Boston, and five games over Chicago.

Berra and Carey
Yogi Berra singled home a Yankee run in the first inning and Andy Carey's two-run homer in the second made it 3-0.

Legion Nine Downs GP in Shutout

Wayne Allen, backed up by almost errorless fielding, pitched the Medford-Central Point American Legion junior baseball team to a 4 to 0 victory over the Grants Pass Legion club at Grants Pass yesterday afternoon.

Allen gave up two hits in the seven innings of play. Both were made by the Grants Pass pitcher, Larry Cochell.

Medford-CP's first inning saw a 1-0 Medford lead. Gordon Owsley walked, Larry Perkins singled, and the two made a double steal. Dick McLaughlin walked to load the bases, and Owsley came home on a sacrifice fly by Eldon Francis.

In the sixth, the local aggregation collected its final three runs. Owsley walked to lead off the inning, stole second and third, and scored as the GP third baseman mishandled a ball hit by Ron Peery.

Peery, on second from the error, scored on a McLoughlin squeeze play bunt.

For the final tally, Francis walked, went to second on a passed ball, and was brought in a single by Dennis King.

Allen rounded out the Medford-CP hitting by netting two or three at the plate during the afternoon.

Medford-Central Point is now pointing for a game with the Myrtle Creek nine at the fairgrounds, 8 p.m. Friday. Jack Sides, manager, and John Kovenz, coach of the locals came home yesterday with high praise for their players and expect a hard fought game Friday night.

Carey singled home another tally in the sixth to offset Chicago's seventh-inning runs singled across by Sherman Lollar and Walt Dropo.

Cleveland had a 5-4 lead over Boston after six innings on a two-run homer by Vic Wertz and a three-run blast by Al Rosen. But Boston teed off for five runs in the seventh inning, including three on Ted Lepcio's homer, to clinch the win.

The see-saw National league race saw the Pittsburgh Pirates regain first place with a 4-3 victory over Cincinnati, which dropped into second place, a half game behind. Cincinnati scored three runs in the first inning with Gus Bell's triple key blow, but Jack Shepard and Bob Clemente each tagged Joe Nuxhall for a two-run homer in the fifth inning to give the Pirates a lead that relievers Roy Face and Nelson King preserved the rest of the way.

Dodgers Dump Cards
The oncoming Brooklyn Dodgers took third place away from the St. Louis Cardinals with a 6-4 victory. Duke Snider's 14th homer, his third in two games, led Brooklyn at bat while Bobby Morgan and Ken Boyer hit Card homers. Carl Erskine was the winner in relief.

In other National league games the Philadelphia Phillies handed the Milwaukee Braves their 10th loss in the last 13 games, 5-2, with a five-run fifth inning rally that included Willie Jones' two-run homer, and Monte Irvin drove in four runs with a homer and a double to give the Chicago Cubs an 8-5 win over his old New York Giant teammates.

Under the Washington lights, Kansas City won the longest game of the year—four hours, 42 minutes — by scoring six runs in the 15th inning to down Washington, 9-3. Harry Simpson, who had homered in the 12th in vain, tripped with the bags loaded in the 15th. The time of the game was only 16 minutes short of the American league record.

Bill Hoelt of the Detroit Tigers gained his seventh win with a seven-hitter as the Tigers took advantage of 13 hits and five errors to beat Baltimore, 8-1.

Stars Start to Rise; Beavers Fall to Angels.
By DON THACKREY
United Press Sports Writer

Anyone who thinks the Hollywood Stars don't have a chance in the Pacific Coast League is forgetting how they write scripts down in the land of busts and comebacks.

As usual in the PCL the past few years—and always in the cinema—the hero Stars start off the season by flailing around in the depths of the second division. Then they start moving.

As of right now the Twinks are out of the doldrums and within a half game of the first division—even though they are still a long hop from Los Angeles.

Tuesday night the Stars topped San Diego 8-5 while the Angels took care of Portland 7-4 to move the Hollywood crew upwards. San Francisco beat Seattle 5-3 and Sacramento downed Vancouver 8-4 in other PCL games.

Hollywood moved to within a single percentage point of the Padres when the Stars put together a six run inning and held off the Pads the rest of the way. Lino Donoso got the win although he needed help in the late stages when the Padres threatened to start re-writing the script.

Dave Hoskins, first of four hurriers for the San Diego club, took the loss.

It was Hollywood's ninth straight win.

In an afternoon game the Angels hit wisely, if not as often as Portland, to take the win and increase their margin in first place to a game and a half.

Casey Wise, Steve Bilko and Bob Speake hit round trippers for the league-leaders—all in the sixth inning—to give them their margin and bring them from behind to victory.

Dick Drott, who wasn't around the whole game, took the win and starter Bob Darnell was the loser.

Jerry Casale starred as San Francisco moved Seattle farther back behind the Angels.

Casale Is Tough
Casale fanned eight, held the Rainiers to nine hits and blasted a long home run in the eighth inning to break a 3-3 tie and give the Seals the ball game.

Bud Podbielan surrendered 14 hits to the Seals and wound up with the loss.

Joe Stanka held Vancouver to one run and four hits in a 1-0 victory.

Colts Meet Grants Pass Here Tonight
The Cheney Colts will aim at the prestige of the league leading Grants Pass Merchants in a non-counting Rogue Valley Baseball league game at the fairgrounds here tonight. Game time is 8 p.m.

The game is scheduled as non-league and neither team will have standings at stake. Presently the Merchants are tied with Glendale in first position with a three-win and no-loss record, and the Colts are hovering in second place, tied with Ashland at two wins and one loss.

Starting lineups for tonight will be:

Colts: Howard Morris, catcher; Eldon Davidson, pitcher; Duane Sides or Bill Caldwell, first base; Maury Churchman, second base; Keith Johnson, third base; Don Johnson, shortstop; Bob Sera, left field; Ed Reinking, center field; Larry Bigham, right field. Bill Caldwell, Kay Kelly and Duane Sides will be available for possible relief duty on the mound.

Merchants: Bob Fisher, catcher; Doug McLean, pitcher; Don Reese, first base; Bruce Brickle, second base; Jay Reese, third base; Chuck Nevi, shortstop; Lew Shaw, Russell Blacksmith, and Glenn Reese, outfield.

The next league games for all eight teams will be on Sunday when Grants Pass is at Ashland, Glendale is at Eagle Point, Cave Junction is at the Colts' fairgrounds, and Camp White is at Butte Falls.

FOURMILE ROAD OPEN
Sid Blood, owner of the concession at Fourmile Lake, reports the road to the lake is now open. Boats and motors are available for visitors.
