The Medical Roundup

Persons Who Think Blasphemous Thoughts

Many good people tell me they are distressed because, at times, nasty and distressing thoughts come to them. They may think how wonderful it would be to get up in church and swear at the preacher, or it occurs to them that it would be fun to kick the crutch out from under an old lady! Sometimes a person so troubled will go to his physician, his psychiatrist, or his minister and ask, "Why do these awful ideas come to me—a decent and usually kindly person?" The answer is that they just do, and the wise person does not have horrors over them.

Walter Alvarez

It would interest such persons to turn to the Scientific American for April, page 118, in which there is a story about Lewis Carroll, of "Alice and the Looking-Glass" fame. Because he suffered much from insomnia, he used to amuse himself, as he lay awake, solving mathematical problems in his head. As he said, he used these mathematical stunts "as a remedy for 'sceptical thoughts' which seem for the moment to uproot the firmest faith . . . blasphemous thoughts which dare unbidden into the most reverent souls . . . unholy thoughts which torture with their hateful presence the fancy that would fain be pure."

Many will remember that "Lewis Carroll," the Rev. Charles L. Dodgson, was in holy orders. He was an odd genius. If such a man was bothered by unpleasant and undesirable thoughts, we can stop blaming ourselves, and stop worrying when uninvited obscene thoughts occur to us.

Dr. Alvarez hopes his readers will understand that it would be impossible for him to answer requests for information or to attempt to diagnose by mail.

Speaker at Rotary Sees U. S. Economic Picture as Bright

The economic picture for the U. S. looks bright for the remainder of this year and for 1957, according to Walter E. Elieson, field executive for the National Association of Real Estate boards, who spoke at the Medford Rotary club luncheon Tuesday.

In the address, "Good Business Ahead in Building Better Communities," Elieson warned against possible inflation which might be sparked by current steel negotiations and urged a feeling of confidence and optimism on the part of the public. Some dark predictions concerning heavy installment buying should be discounted, the speaker said. Installment debts should only be measured by national income and percentage-wise the picture is good.

Estimated Income

In April U. S. income was up $2 billion, with personal income for the year estimated at $313 billion, the speaker said. Sixty-five million people are currently employed in this country, an all-time high.

American families are now averaging four to five children, with young parents who have never experienced depression and the need of going without. This has made one and two bedroom homes obsolete and has increased the demand for all types of goods and services.

The construction industry, a dependable barometer of economic trends, is experiencing a record year in building factories, public buildings and roads, he said. Department of commerce and SEC surveys indicate a continuation of the boom in major construction.

Medford and the Rogue valley are in a favored position in the bright future, Elieson told Rotarians. More and more, industry is seeking locations on the basis of "a nice place to live" for employees.

The speaker was introduced by Mark A. Goldy, Rotary program chairman and local realtor.

Chotiner's Letters Protest Senate Probe

Washington — (U.P.) — Former GOP campaign strategist Murray M. Chotiner has written to all lawyers in Congress, protesting a Senate investigation of his law practice.

Chotiner, Vice-President Richard M. Nixon's manager in 1952 and previous campaigns, said it is "most unfair" for the Senate Investigating Subcommittee to subpena his records and demand a list of all his clients who had government dealings since the GOP captured the White House.

His letter, written from his office in Beverly Hills, Calif., said if the subcommittee could get this information from him, "then no lawyer in the United States who is prominent in political activities is safe from similar expeditions."

TEACHER CELEBRATES

Detroit — (U.P.) — Josephine Lee, a Flint, Mich., school teacher, was sentenced to two days in jail and fined $75 Tuesday for drunk driving. She told the court: "The kids aren't the only ones glad when school let out."

STABBED — The body of Marilyn Marie Fink, 19 (above), clad in her torn and twisted night-clothing, was found by her grandfather, Fred C. Mark, in her bedroom of their Pasadena, Calif., home. Police are searching for Kenneth Pashby, 27, a distant relative who had spent part of the night in an adjoining room. Detective Richard Jamison said the pretty blonde had been stabbed through the neck and slashed across the chest. There were indications that her neck was broken.

Air Force Pilot, Wife Quit TV Quiz

New York — (U.P.) — An Air Force jet pilot and his wife quit a television quiz show Tuesday night while they were ahead with a total of $64,000.

Capt. Thomas O'Rourke, 34, and his wife, Bobbye, Fairborn, Ohio, announced they would retire from "The $64,000 Question" with their combined winnings. Each had won $32,000 last week as separate contestants by answering questions about Sherlock Holmes.

Another contestant, peg-legged Peter Freuchen, 70 - year - old Danish explorer, sailor and author, apparently won $8000 with bilingual answers to a three-part question dealing with the "Seven Seas."

Freuchen asked permission to answer the question in Danish, his native tongue, because he feared he might make a mistake in English.

A Danish translator will check a tape recording of Freuchen's answers and the result will be announced next week.

Apple Crop Predicted Worst in Four Years

Atlantic City, N.J.—(U.P.)—The annual survey of apple growers indicates the country's 1956 apple crop will be the worst in four years, weighing in at some 20,000,000 bushels less than last year's production of 105,293,000 bushels.

The results of the survey were revealed by the National Apple Institute at the opening of its annual convention Tuesday. The convention, with delegates from the nation's 35 apple producing states in attendance, ends today.

Only nine states estimated the apple crop in 1956 will be larger than last year's.

Early and heavy freezes in Washington were given as the major cause of the expected decrease in that state. Washington apple grower estimated their crop will be about 12,000,000 bushels under last year's production of 28,600,000 bushels.
