

Miss Marilyn Bohnert, Marine Officer Married in Christian Church Service

Central Point — One of early summer's largest weddings was that of Miss Marilyn Bohnert and Lt. James F. Rice, Myrtle Creek. The ceremony was held Thursday, June 7, in First Christian church, Medford, with the Rev. Donald E. Whitney of Central Point Church of Christ officiating.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bohnert, Central Point, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Rice, Myrtle Creek, Ore.

About 175 guests were present for the double-ring service, read at three o'clock in the afternoon. Mr. Bohnert gave his daughter in marriage. The bride wore a gown of white crystalline which she had made herself. It was fashioned on simple princess lines with full long skirt and was worn with matching mitts. Her fingertip length veil of illusion and seed pearls was loaned by Mrs. Robert Fisher. The bride carried white rosebuds and white pitted sporum.

Miss Doreen Bohnert was honor attendant for her sister. Her gown of bronze-rose crystalline was fashioned similar to the bride's gown but was of ballerina length. She wore matching mitts and carried talisman rosebuds and pitted sporum. Mrs. Dexter Benston, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. John Stuckey were bridesmaids. They wore matching frocks of crystalline with matching mitts. Mrs. Stuckey's gown being dainty rose and Mrs. Benston's of bluish pink. Both carried talisman roses.

Candlelighters were Miss Sharon Coffman and Miss Carol von der Hellen, cousins of the bride. They wore matching white ballerina length dresses with wristlets of pink rosebuds.

The bride's mother wore a street-length dress of soft green flannel, and a small matching hat trimmed with pink and white valley lilies. Her corsage was of pink, rosebuds and white talal.

The bridegroom's mother was attired in a dress of rose-beige shantung with pink-beige hat, beige accessories and corsage of pink rosebuds.

Thomas Rice, Sonora, Calif., was best man for his brother and two classmates of the bridegroom, Lt. Ronald Lethin of Albany, Ore., and Lt. John Burger of Portland were ushers.

Baskets of mock orange blossoms, pink and white peonies, pink and rose lupine and ferns decorated the church sanctuary. Pink blossoms and white bows marked the pews ends. J. R. Cochran, Central Point, sang, accompanied by C. Olin Rice, who also played the wedding marches.

The reception was held in the church reception parlor. The newlywed couple cut the first slice of wedding cake with a sword loaned by Major V. E. Sellers, United States Marine corps, uncle of the bridegroom. The cake was encircled with fresh pink rosebuds. The reception flower arrangements were of peonies, coral bells and lupine in the wedding color theme of pink and white.

Miss Joan von der Hellen, cousin of the bride, and Miss Nancy Chapin, Eugene, cousin of the bridegroom, took charge of the guest book and the bridegroom's cake. Cutting the bride's cake were Mrs. Harry Dunn and Mrs. Mel Williams, aunts of the bride. A cousin, Mrs. Richard Krupp, and an aunt, Mrs. L. C. Lisenbee, served punch. Mrs. Earle Jossy poured coffee. Assisting with the gifts were Mrs. Wallace Ragdale and Mrs. Edward Inman, aunt of the bride.

Lieutenant Rice and his bride left immediately after the reception for Quantico, Va., where the officer will be stationed with the United States Marine corps. His ushers, Lieutenant Lethin

Lieutenant and Mrs. James F. Rice are shown here coming down the aisle of First Christian church in Medford after their wedding June 7. The bride is the former Marilyn Bohnert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bohnert, Central Point, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Rice, Myrtle Creek, Ore. —(Anders Photo)
