

Couple Married In Church Rites

Phoenix—Miss Linda A. Wittgen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wittgen, 3761 South Pacific highway, became the bride of Daniel P. Fix, Grants Pass, in a ceremony held June 9. It took place at 11 o'clock in the morning at Phoenix Church of Christ, with the Rev. Leslie Dean Pense reading the simple double-ring ceremony. Roses decorated the church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street-length frock of white embroidered nylon and her flowers were a white gardenia encircled with white carnations.

Miss Iona Rae Wittgen, maid-of-honor for her sister, wore a frock of blue nylon printed with pink rosebuds and her corsage was of pink rosebuds and pink carnations. The bride's mother wore an aquamarine linen suit with corsage of gold colored carnations.

Fred A. Heideman, Roseburg, was best man for the bridegroom.

A wedding party was held at the family home following the ceremony. Mrs. Eric de Place, Medford, served the wedding cake.

The newlyweds made a brief wedding trip and will be at home at 625 Southwest Fifth street in Grants Pass. Mr. Fix teaches the eighth grade in the Jerome Prairie school. The bride was educated in the schools of Renton, Wash., and the bridegroom in North Dakota. He has served in the United States Navy.

Miss Hope Lorraine Herriott Married to Thomas J. Tilton

A two o'clock afternoon ceremony June 10 wedded Miss Hope Lorraine Herriott and Thomas J. Tilton. The double ring service was held at the First Methodist church. Dr. Raymond Balcomb officiated.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Herriott, 25 North Peach street, and the bridegroom, who is serving with the United States Air Force, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Tilton, 1032 East Jackson street. The reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tilton at 3:30 o'clock that afternoon. Later the couple left for their wedding trip to Tucson, Ariz., the bridegroom's station.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a princess style gown of white crystalline, and her old fashioned type bouquet was a white orchid with stephanotis.

The bride's attendants all wore princess style frocks to match the bride's gown except in waist length. Miss Louise Harwood, the honor attendant, wore orchid. The bridesmaids, Miss Jackie Craig, a cousin of the bride, Miss Carol Miller and Miss Lorita Jennings, were dressed in blue, pink and green. Their matching colonial bouquets were of daisies. Linda Isaacs, the flower girl, wore a white gown which matched that worn by the bride.

Fredy Puhl served as ring bearer.

Best man was Jack Luttrell. Seating the guests were John Howell, Francis J. Rhodes and Clifford Pedersen.

Yellow and white gladiolus were used to decorate the church. Warren Hanlin sang.

Home Rites Wed Miss Wilma Jones, William Buchanan

Trail — A home ceremony June 8 wedded Miss Wilma Irene Jones and William Buchanan. The rites were read at 8 o'clock in the evening by the Rev. Lewis Collins of Trail Community church at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Saterlee, on Oak drive, Central Point, brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom.

The bride, a 1956 graduate of Eagle Point high school, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Jones, Trail. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Buchanan of Medford.

Mrs. Saterlee was the honor attendant and Mr. Saterlee served as best man.

Mr. Jones gave his daughter in marriage. She wore an aqua blue suit with white accessories and her corsage was of gardenias. Mrs. Saterlee wore a powder blue colored suit and her accessories were pink.

Arrangements of roses decorated the home and the wedding march was played by Mrs. Collins, wife of the minister. She also furnished the songs.

The reception was held at the Saterlee home.

Assisting were Mrs. Lloyd Hammond; Mrs. Sam Jones, Klamath Falls, and Mrs. Lee Curry, all aunts of the bride.

From out of town to attend the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. William Gilpatrick, Myrtle Point, relatives of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. James Venini, all of Portland, relatives of the bridegroom.

The couple made a trip to the Oregon coast and have returned to live at 417 1/2 J street, Medford.

The bridegroom is employed at the Donna mill near Jacksonville.

Former Resident Married Recently In San Francisco

Of interest here is news of the wedding of Olga Elsie Olsen and the Rev. Robert Crawford Strang held May 19 at St. James Episcopal church in San Francisco. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Anna Demian, San Francisco, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Strang, former Medford residents now of Reno, Nev.

The ceremony was attended by about 250 guests and was performed at 1 o'clock in the afternoon by the Rev. Edward A. Weicher Jr., at St. James Episcopal church, San Francisco, home church of the bride. The bridegroom, now a priest in the Episcopal church, assisted the rector at St. James while he was a seminarian. The bridegroom now is serving St. Philip's in the Desert, Episcopal mission at Hawthorne, Nev.

The bride wore a pink nylon tulle gown, ballerina length, and matching accessories. She carried a white orchid with a white engraved Book of Common Prayer, a gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. William J. Prudler, San Leandro, Calif., a sister of the bridegroom, was honor attendant. She wore a pale nylon ballerina dress. Her accessories matched her gown and she carried pink bouvardia.

Marilyn Olsen, daughter of the bride, was flower girl.

William J. Prudler was best man for his brother-in-law, and ushers were Robert Bareilles and George Olsen, son of the bride.

William Miller sang the wedding songs.

The reception was held at the parish hall and a dinner was given at the home of the bride.

The couple made their wedding trip to Hawaii and have returned to live at Hawthorne.

The bridegroom is a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. C. Virgil Strang and Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Strang, all of Medford.

Miss Ora Cox Arrives in City

Miss Ora Cox of Bushnell, Ill., has arrived in Medford to visit friends and is a guest in the home of Mrs. George Canode on Crown avenue. Miss Cox, former Medford teacher and for many years principal of Lincoln school, has lived in Bushnell since her retirement from the Medford system.

She has been active in the Daughters of Union Veterans for many years, and attended state conventions in North Dakota and in Albany, Ore., before arriving in Medford. She also attended the Portland Rose festival.

Jordan-Van Galder Ceremony Held in Central Point Church

Central Point—Miss Darlene Sue Van Galder became the bride of Harold Edward Jordan in a marriage ceremony held Saturday, June 9, at First Presbyterian church, Central Point.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George C. Van Galder, 447 Ash street, Central Point, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Quintin Jordan, 704 Sterling road, Jacksonville.

The Rev. Norman K. Tully of Jacksonville read the single-ring service at seven o'clock in the evening. About 125 guests were present for the ceremony and the reception which followed at the Van Galder home.

The bride wore a gown of white net over satin, ballerina length, and her waist length veil was held by a halo of white gardenias. She carried a white Bible with a white orchid.

Miss Frances Hogue was maid-of-honor and bridesmaids were Miss Mary Lou Van Galder, sister of the bride, and Miss Nancy Adams, Jacksonville, a cousin. They wore pastel colored ballerina frocks of nylon eyelet embroidery and carried nosegays of sweetpeas. Their headbands were of valley lilies.

The flower girls were Sherry and Linda Backes, cousins of the bride. They were dressed in pink and carried nosegays of sweetpeas.

Mr. Van Galder gave his daughter in marriage, and Dick Sanford, Jacksonville, was best man for the bridegroom. Gary West, Jacksonville, and Gary Walters, Medford, seated the
