

Final Tests for U. S. Olympic Team Pits NCAA, AAU, and Service Entrants

San Francisco — (U.P.) — The final qualifying tests for the U.S. Olympic trials will be held at Bakersfield on Friday and Saturday, when the stars from the ranks of the NCAA and armed services join with club aces in the annual AAU meet.

Six men already have qualified for the Olympic trials in each event from the NCAA meet held Friday and Saturday in Berkeley. Three men from each event have qualified from the armed services.

Another six will win berths in the trials this week end at Bakersfield. That will bring the Olympic trials field to fifteen men in each event—with only three usually picked to go to the Olympics.

Tough Competition
Of last week end's performances, it is going to be tough to beat these men out of that trip—to Australia:

100-meters: Bobby Morrow of Ahlens Christian and Dave Sime of Duke. Morrow beat Sime in both the 100 and the 200 meters but Sime pulled up lame in the latter event. Sime will not compete in the AAU meet but is expected to be okay for the trials.

Shot put: Parry O'Brien of the Air Force, who nearly always is over the 60-foot mark these days; and the surprising Ken Bantum of Manhattan College, who reached that distance for the first time in the NCAA meet.

Butte Falls RVL Victor

Butte Falls handed Camp White its fourth loss of the season by a 6 to 4 margin in Rogue Valley league baseball Sunday.

Camp White had the lead after a two-run second inning, Butte Falls came back to tie with two in the fifth, and then thrallied one in the seventh and three in the eighth for a 6 to 2 lead. Camp White made a try with a pair of counters in their half of the ninth but couldn't overcome the deficit.

Larry Irwin, with a triple, two singles, and three runs batted in held the big bat for Camp White. Jim Irwin had three hits, including a double, at the plate for Butte Falls.

Don Mintz and Bob Nelson, who came on in the ninth, handled pitching duties for the losers; Moore and Baker hurled for Butte Falls. Baker got credit for the victory.

LINESCORES:

Adcock Slugs Record Homer for Milwaukee; NL Race Tightened

By JOHN GRIFFIN
United Press Sports Writer
Putting Joe Adcock back in the lineup was Charley Grimm's last idea as manager of the Milwaukee Braves, and the Sunday slugfest that resulted was the first success in the reign of new skipper Fred Haney.

Six-foot, 4-inch Adcock pinch hit a homer for the Braves in Grimm's last game as manager on Saturday, and jolly Cholly announced big Joe would become a starter again. Haney said he thought Cholly's last idea was a good one, so—

Adcock slugged two homers in the first game and one in the second as the Braves "came to life" with a 5-4, 3-1 doubleheader sweep over the Brooklyn Dodgers.

His second homer decided the opening game, breaking a 4-4 tie, and it was a "Mantle-type" record smasher—the first homer ever hit over the left field roof at Ebbets field — leaving the park at a spot 350 feet from the plate and 83 feet into the stratosphere. The tape measure boys said it carried 500 feet into a parking lot.

Snaps Dodgers Streak
The Milwaukee strong boy's record blow snapped a six-game Dodger winning streak and his next homer, in the second inning of the nightcap, started a two-game Dodger losing streak. Bobby Thomson also homered in this game, a blow that proved the margin of victory.

Milwaukee's sweep, after losing 12 of the last 17 games, helped to turn the National league race into a five-team scramble. Now there are only two games separating first-place Pittsburgh and fifth-place Milwaukee.

The pace-making Pirates took a double drubbing from St. Louis, 3-1 and 8-3. Stan Musial's two-run homer in the first inning was the first game difference since as Tom Poholsky won it with a five-hitter. Three run-homers by Bobby De Greco and Frank Sauer enabled Willard Schmidt to win the second, with relief help from Jim Konstanty.

The Cincinnati Redlegs took second place from Brooklyn by a half-game by splitting a twin bill with the Giants. Homers by Dusty Rhodes, Daryl Spencer, Willie Mays and Bill White gave the Giants a 7-6 win in the opener, but Joe Nuxhall stopped New York on two hits and fanned eight in the nightcap as Smokey Burgess singled home the only run to win, 1-0.

Phils and Cubs Split
In another NL doubleheader, Robin Roberts of the Phils beat the Cubs, 7-1, in the opener with help from homers by Willie Jones and Del Ennis, but the Cubs took the second, 7-4, behind Sam Jones with Eddie Miksis' two-run homer the big blow. The New York Yankees extended their American league lead by 5½ games by beating Cleveland for the third straight time, 9-4, in a single game as second-place Chicago split a twin bill with Washington, win-

Sweikert Has Last Rites

Indianapolis, Ind. — (U.P.) — Funeral arrangements were being made today for Bob Sweikert, made 11th winner of the Indianapolis Speedway classic to give his life for the roaring sport he loved.

Sweikert, who won both the Memorial Day race and the national driving championship in 1955, was killed Sunday when his car hit a retaining wall in a sprint race in Salem, Ind.

His wife was among the 7,000 fans who looked on stunned as Sweikert's car went out of control on the fifth lap of a 30-lap feature race on Salem's high-banked blacktop speedway.

The car crashed into the wall at the first turn. Then it caromed back onto the track, struck a steel guard rail and turned over into an embankment.

The Indianapolis champion was rushed to a hospital, where he died minutes after arrival.

The Studs took the Saturday afternoon opener 3 to 1 behind the four hit pitching of Jerry Droscher.

Two Medford runs crossed in the seventh inning on a single by John Kovenz, a Black Sox error, and singles by Jack Cooney and Bob Selsor. Frank Roelandt, who caught all three games, lined a single to left in the ninth to send Twink Pederson home with the final tally. Duerr hurled for the Sox.

Glenn Elliott, lefty, and ex-Portland Beaver struck out seven Medford players in the night game to shut out the Studs 3 to 0. Don White gave up seven hits on the mound for Medford.

In Sunday's encounter, Drain found Medford hurler Jim Kelly for 10 hits, collecting three runs in the first inning, four in the second, two in the sixth, and one in the seventh. The Studs pushed over two, one, two, and one in the last four cantos but couldn't catch the Black Sox. Aranson pitched for Drain, with Coco relieving.

Twink Pederson led the Studs hitting with three. Roelandt, Cooney, and Kelly each got two, and Toney, Taylor, and Selsor netted one each.

In the other half the league, Coquille and North Bend-Coos Bay split a doubleheader Saturday. They will play a third game Wednesday evening at North Bend.

In the first, North Bend-Coos Bay pitched Bartow against Coquille's Runy and won 2 to 1. The Coquille club came back in the evening with Stephens on the mound to win 4 to 1. Lane pitched for CB-NB, relieved by Lehl in the seventh inning.

Errors Cost Cheney Colts Loss To Cave Junction

A pocketful of errors left the Cheney Colts with a 10-5 loss to Cave Junction in a Rogue Valley league baseball game at the fairgrounds yesterday afternoon.

The Colts outhit their opposition seven to six, but were charged with 13 errors as against four for Cave Junction. Junction picked up two runs in the second and the Colts came back with one in the same inning when Howard Morris, catcher, walked, and Maury Churchman, second base, knocked a long double to left field. The big inning for the Colts was the fourth. Don Johnson, third base, struck out to lead off, then Ed Reinking, center field, and Morris drew walks. Frank Rector, shortstop, boomed a long triple to right center and two runs crossed. Next up, Churchman walked. Shortstop Rector then slipped home when the Cave Junction catcher tossed the ball to second base to catch Churchman on a base stealing try.

The Junction lads got two more runs in the third and one in the sixth. Half their score came from action in the eighth inning, aided by three hits and four Colt errors.

Lou Maurer sent three men home with a nicely timed two bagger. Maurer then came in on a Ron Maurer single and Ron went home when Warren Cook walked and Churchman mis-handled a ball hit by Chuck Campbell.

Churchman and Rector both collected two hits for the Colts, with a double for Churchman and the longest hit of the afternoon, a triple for Rector, included. Harvey Tonn, Ed Reinking, and Howard Morris each got one. Reinking's a ninth inning double.

Ron Maurer was the only Cave Junctionite with more than one hit, netting two one-baggers. Lou Maurer got a double, Chuck Campbell, Ma-burn Campbell, and Les Saffers each a single.

Kay Kelly went the distance for the Colts and Wayne Saffer did the same for Cave Junction.

Cotton Favored Over German

Suzina is a wade-in club fighter whose chief claim to fame appears to be 12 draws in 55 professional bouts. He also suffered 11 defeats. His 32-11-12 records includes 19 knockouts. He was stopped once.

Cotton's 41-10-0 record includes 22 knockouts and not a single draw. He was stopped once. This year he knocked out Lester Felton and won two decisions over ex-contender Giardello, both at St. Nick's on May 7 and May 28. He is 26.
