

Two Men Trapped In Steam Shovel

Riverdale, N.J. — (U.P.) — Hundreds of rescue workers and police today dug for the bodies of two men known to be trapped in a steam shovel under 50,000 tons of boulders in a stone quarry.

The men were presumed dead. The body of Wallace Van Orden, 32, Bloomingdale, was recovered from the debris at about 9 p.m. Van Orden was the father of three children.

Adlai-Estes Team Seen Sure Winner

Atlanta — (U.P.) — A Democratic ticket with Adlai E. Stevenson for president and Estes Kefauver for vice president could defeat the Eisenhower-Nixon combination this fall, Rep. James Roosevelt said Monday night.

Roosevelt, son of the late President, spoke at the annual convention of the Georgia Association of Petroleum Retailers here.

The California Democrat said he believes President Eisenhower's health is "a proper issue" and called Vice President Richard M. Nixon a "vulnerable candidate in many respects."

"Americans must decide whether they want to run the risk of having Nixon as their president," he said.

Oregon, Washington Guardsmen in Training

Fort Lewis — (U.P.) — Some 9500 Oregon and Washington National Guardsmen started two weeks of summer training here yesterday.

Routine training programs were initiated immediately. A special 786-man recruit training battalion, composed of recruits who enlisted since April 1, was formed at the first day's training.

New Methodist Church Starts at Cave Junction

Cave Junction—Elwood Hussey, longtime mayor and civic leader of Cave Junction, broke ground Sunday at a public ceremony for a new Methodist church, on which construction will begin immediately. It will be situated one block off U.S. Highway 199 in the business section. It is estimated to cost approximately $40,000.

A hundred or more leading citizens of the Illinois Valley community attended the ceremony.

Maine Governor Gets Renomination

Portland, Me. — (U.P.) — Democratic Gov. Edmund S. Muskie, renominated without opposition in Monday's Maine primary, opened his campaign for reelection today.

His Republican opponent said he would take a short "breather" after the grueling campaign. Muskie, who started the nation in 1954 by becoming Maine's first Democratic governor in 20 years, did not have to campaign for renomination. But he scheduled his first electioneering address for a rally tonight in Gray.

Willis A. Trafton Jr., Auburn, speaker of the Maine House, bested two opponents to take the GOP nomination for governor.

With 611 of the state's 630 precincts reported, Muskie had 26,631 votes. Trafton polled 41,408 votes compared to 23,696 for State Sen. Philip Chapman Jr. Former Maine Attorney General Alexander La Fleur had 16,159 votes.

Restrictions Ended On Third Polio Shots

Portland — (U.P.) — The State Board of Health yesterday ended restrictions against third shots of Salk polio vaccine in an effort to cut down the disease during the coming seasonal peak.

The board also extended vaccination priorities to include all persons through the age of 19. The board said that polio cases had been running well below totals of the past several years but that the incidence could increase sharply before the expected peak in September and October.

Dr. Harold Erickson, state health officer, urged parents of eligible children to make appointments soon to insure maximum protective levels before the seasonal high.

'Save Our Sons' Said Communist Controlled

Washington — (U.P.) — A former FBI undercover informant told the House Committee on Un-American Activities Monday that the "Save Our Sons committee" was a Communist controlled organization.

Anzeln A. Czarnowski, of Argo, Ill., told the committee, investigating propaganda among U.S. prisoners of war in Korea, that the SOS was designed to undermine this country's Korean war effort. Czarnowski reported to the FBI about Communist activities in Illinois from 1944 to 1955.

He testified that Mrs. Florence Gostfield, chairman of the "Save Our Sons" organization, has been a Communist party member since 1946. He said Mrs. Gostfield, also of Argo, ran the organization to foster Communist purpose.

Alcoa Foundation Awards Six Grants

Vancouver, Wash. — (U.P.) — Grants amounting to $3000 were awarded today by the Alcoa Foundation to six colleges and universities in the Pacific Northwest that do not receive tax support.

C. S. Thayer, northwest operations manager for Aluminum Company of America at Vancouver, said $500 grants each would go to Lewis & Clark College, University of Portland, and Reed College, all in Portland; Gonzaga University and Whitworth College, both Spokane and Whitman College, Walla Walla.

Dr. O. C. McCreery, assistant secretary of the foundation, said "the Alcoa Foundation realizes the needs of independent colleges and is glad to support the important work they are doing."

Mandatory Poultry Inspections Urged

Washington — (U.P.) — Public health officers, union butchers and veterinarians urged Congress today to make inspection of poultry mandatory.

Dr. Aaron H. Haskins, health officer for Newark, N.J., told Senate Agriculture Subcommittee that 250,000 pounds of poultry were condemned by his office in the 20 months the city has required inspection.

S. W. Barker of the Meat Cutters and Butchers Union said steps should be taken immediately "to stop the flow of filthy, adulterated and diseased poultry through processing plants to markets."

Cannery Officials Discuss Contract

Portland — (U.P.) — Officials of the cannery workers union were scheduled to meet at Hillsboro late today with representatives of General Foods to discuss contract demands.

Cliff Evanson, secretary of local 809 of the union, said a strike deadline, voted 3 to 1 by union membership, was Thursday morning instead of Tuesday as previously reported. He said workers demand a 10 cent raise per hour and a pension plan. A strike would affect 12 plants and some 4000 workers at the peak of the berry picking season.

Mother Saves Son From Gorilla's Grasp

London — (U.P.) — A mother fought and won a tug-of-war Monday with a 300-pound gorilla that grabbed her seven-year old son as he tried to feed the animal a corned beef sandwich at London's Whipsnade Zoo.

The gorilla seized young Kenneth Kennan's hand as he offered the sandwich. The mother, Mrs. Peggy Kennan, 33, had lifted her son over the protective wiring around the cage so he could get close.

When the gorilla seized her son Mrs. Kennan grabbed his other hand and pulled until the animal turned him loose. Kenneth was bitten on the hand and fingers.

Two weeks ago, a ten-year old boy, Tony Murphy, was fatally mauled by a lion at the Whipsnade Zoo when he climbed over the protective railing around the cage.

45 Cases of Disease Reported Last Week

A total of 45 cases of communicable diseases, two of them amebic dysentery, were reported last week to the Jackson county health department.

Among those reported were seven cases of chicken pox, one infectious hepatitis, two cases of infectious mononucleosis, four influenza, 26 cases of measles, one salmonella, and one whooping cough.

Astoria Voters Approve School District Budget

Astoria — (U.P.) — Voters here yesterday approved by a vote of 247 to 137 a $431,000 school district budget. The sum was $117,000 over the six per cent limitation.

The North Dakota Agriculture college says that sowing flax early—at wheat or oats time—helps get flax ahead of weeds and summer heat.

Reedsport Accountant Sentenced To Prison

Portland — (U.P.) — R. H. W. Leathers, a Reedsport accountant, was sentenced to 30 months in prison here yesterday on a charge of violating the federal income tax law.

A jury had found the 58-year-old Leathers guilty of preparing a false tax return for a client, Russel A. Peterson.

Testimony Ends in Federal Case Here

Testimony ended Monday afternoon in the federal case against Noble C. Standley, James Adamek and Wilbur Merchen of Standley Bros. Logging Co., Powers, charged with income tax evasion.

Standley left the witness stand shortly after 3 p.m., and Judge Gus Solomon dismissed the jury until 9 a.m. Tuesday.

Arguments by counsel and the judge's instructions to the jury are expected to consume most of the day. The case began last week.

Two Boys Missing In Kelso Vicinity

Kelso, Wash. — (U.P.) — Two boys were reported missing in rugged mountain country about 60 miles northeast of here today and some 30 men were out searching for them.

Missing were William Reese, about 18, and Rocky Hendricks, who had gone on a hike Sunday afternoon. They were believed to be in the vicinity of Lakeview Peak lake near Lake Merrill, according to the Cowlitz county sheriff's office.

Reese is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reese of Yale and was reported to be an experienced woodsman.

Allen Dulles Rapped For Soviet Estimates

Washington — (U.P.) — Senate Democrats criticized Director Allen W. Dulles of the Central Intelligence Agency today for making estimates of Russia's progress in intercontinental missiles and atomic power on a television program.

Sen. Clinton P. Anderson (D-N.M.), chairman of the House-Senate Atomic Committee, noted Monday that Dulles consistently has declined to give such estimates in public session of Senate committees.

Sen. Henry M. Jackson (D-Wash.), said he supported Dulles, previous position. But he said now Dulles has an obligation to testify on such matters in public session of the appropriate Senate committees.

Portland Mayor Signs Pinball Ordinance

Portland — (U.P.) — Pinball machines became illegal in Portland city limits at 1:15 p. m. when Mayor Fred Peterson affixed his signature to the ordinance which said that voters favored ban of the devices in the May 18 primary.

The mayor notified Police Chief Jim Purcell Jr., that the ordinance was now in effect and ordered him to proceed immediately to enforce it.

All owners of establishments open to the public that have the machines will be subject to arrest if they fail to have the machines removed.

Loscutoff Signs

Boston, Mass. — (U.P.) — The Boston Celtics of the National Basketball Association announced here yesterday that former Oregon star Jim Loscutoff has signed his contract with the club for next season.

Ex-Defense Secretary Ford Foundation Trustee

New York — (U.P.) — Robert B. Anderson, former deputy secretary of defense, has been elected a trustee of the Ford Foundation, it was announced today.

Anderson, who also served briefly as secretary of the Navy, and as a civilian aide to the secretary of the Army, is president of Ventures, Ltd., a Canadian holding company with international mining interests.

Sunday, Feature Editors In Portland Conference

Portland — (U.P.) — The annual meeting of the American Association of Sunday and Feature Editors opened here yesterday.

A round table discussion is scheduled for tonight between the journalists and members of the medical profession with the subject "Behind the Antiseptic Curtain."

Vandervelden Named State DAV Commander

Salem — Joseph Vandervelden of Forest Grove, a veteran of the Korean conflict, was elected state commander of the Oregon department of Disabled American Veterans at the four-day convention here recently.

Other officers elected included William H. Manley, Eugene, senior vice commander; Lloyd DeLat, Klamath Falls, junior vice commander; Dorr Quayle, Portland, treasurer; and Mrs. Olive Adams, Klamath Falls, chaplain.

The DAV adopted a resolution as not favoring the retrogressive movement away from the national policy regarding veterans' pensions as advocated by the President's commission on veterans affairs.
