70th Birthday Observed By Long Walk on Stilts

Jesup, Ia.—(U.P.)—After a day of rugged farm work, Guy Stoddard stepped out on a 20-pound pair of stilts and walked a sentimental mile to the rural school he attended as a boy.

That was the way Stoddard, who farms a 160-acre tract on which he was born near here, celebrated his 70th birthday.

"The walk took me 25 minutes—which isn't much compared with the eight minutes it took me to walk it as a school-boy," Stoddard said. "Still, I didn't know myself, before I started, if I'd be able to make it."
