Oddfellows Observe Fiftieth Anniversary

Central Point—Central Point Lodge No. 193, Independent Order of Oddfellows, observed the 50th anniversary of institution with a meeting and program Saturday night, June 16, in Central Point Grange hall. Members and state officers from all parts of the valley and from distant cities attended.

Ellsworth J. Robison, noble grand of the lodge, opened the program and welcomed those in attendance.

The evening was highlighted by the presence of A. J. Hanby, Medford, R. E. Nealon, Table Rock road, and William A. Carter, Portland, Mr. Hanby, 84, and Mr. Nealon, 73, are the only two surviving members present on the evening of June 14, 1906, when the lodge was instituted.

Mr. Hanby gave an enlightening talk on the principles of Odd-fellowship, and Mr. Nealon spoke of the proceedings of the night the lodge was instituted.

The lodge was also honored by the attendance of Mr. Carter, who was grand master of Oregon in 1906 and who as the presiding officer the night the lodge was formed. Mr. Carter, a member of the Gold Hill lodge, still practices law in Portland in spite of his advanced age.

Past Grand Master Ralph L. Russell, Roseburg, delivered the main address of the evening. Lynn Cram, Medford, another past grand master, also spoke.

Three grand lodge officers belonging to the Central Point lodge were introduced. They are John B. Robison, grand herald; A. C. Smith, district deputy grand master and Gerald Kime,

Mrs. Dana Bowers won a prize, and Mrs. W. A. Dyer a guess game prize. Mrs. Clarence Jordan, assisted by Mrs. Blanche Robison, led the group in games.

Refreshments were served by a committee headed by Mrs. Bob Walden, chairman, with Mrs. Lewis Thompson, Mrs. Claude Cooper and Mrs. Harry Bryant as members.

Next meeting of the club will be a picnic Sunday, July 15, in the garden of Mr. and Mrs. Dyer.

Dr. Jouett Bray Leaves for East

Dr. Jouett P. Bray, Lozier lane, left yesterday by plane for Portland from where he took the train for Waterbury, Conn. He will visit his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Robison.

Dr. Bray will stop in Chicago to visit Dr. Janse, president of the National Chiropractic college, and while in the east and also plans to visit Yale university and spend some time in Boston where his family lived in early days.

Returning home Dr. Bray will stop in Seattle to meet his daughter-in-law, Mrs. William D. Bray who will arrive in Seattle from Kobe, Japan on the Hikawa Maru. Mrs. Bray and her children will accompany Dr. Bray home for a 10-day visit here. William Bray, a missionary in Japan, will remain there for another year.

Campfire Girls

Camping Trip
Last weekend the Ayuzunta group camped over-night at the Little Applegate camp ground, the first of their summer camping and hiking activities. The girls pitched their pup tents and did their camping and cooking in small groups. Each group was responsible for their own planning, packing, cooking and clean-up. The girls fished, hiked and tried panning gold.

Members who traveled a great distance to attend the homecoming and anniversary celebration were F. A. Southwell, San Bernardino, Calif.; Fred Farra, San Bernardino, Calif.; and E. L. Lowery, Tacoma, Wash.

Gifts were repented to Mr. Carter, Mr. Hanby and Mr. Russell by J. E. Vincent. Each was presented a plaque with his name engraved on it, as well as the Central Point lodge number and the inscription "50 Years."

Entertainment was furnished by Miss Oveta Walden, Lynn Miller, Pat Connolly and Miss Karon Britton of the Caesar Muzzioli Accordion band. The young people played and sang and also gave solo numbers.

Refreshments concluded the evening. More than 100 attended the event.

Baize, Georgiann Binkle, Jacqueline Chesnut, Sara Hinkle, Joanne Holmstrom, Linda Medcalf, Treva Toenniges and Ann Younger made the trip.

They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Younger, Otho Chesnut and James Freudenburg helped with transportation.

Since the group meets all summer, the girls are planning individual craft projects and more outdoor activities for the summer months.
