

Chiloquin Girl Fights for Life As Attacker Rests in KF Cell

Klamath Falls — (U.P.) — A 38-year-old Mexican immigrant who worked as a railroad section hand was in the Klamath county jail today, suspected of raping and stabbing a 15-year-old girl early Saturday.

Luis Garcia was returned here last night from Yreka, Cal., after waiving extradition. Police said he admitted the attack on the girl, Dorothy Jackson of Chiloquin, but was not clear as to details.

Doctors were continuing their battle to save the girl's life. She was in critical condition from four stab wounds, one of which barely missed the heart.

Vaguely Remembers

After being taken into custody yesterday, Garcia told officers he vaguely remembered being intoxicated and fighting with the girl. Later, officers said Garcia admitted the attack but did not remember knifing the girl. He said he remembered going to the airport and that a fight ensued, police said. Garcia said he remembered two or three other girls beings present but that they disappeared.

Garcia was arrested by Siskiyou county sheriff, Al Cotter and an unidentified California game warden yesterday after he had eluded a heavily armed posse for nearly 48 hours.

Cotter said that Garcia was discovered hiding under a railroad shed at Kegg Pitt, a railroad siding about 43 miles south of here. He threatened the officer with a beer can opener but then was taken into custody without a struggle.

MADE OF RUGGED STUFF—Raymond Havlick, 6, gives his mother, Mrs. Edward Kajor, a reassuring pat on the cheek in St. Mary's Hospital in Chicago. A car ran over the boy's chest and he was believed to be in critical condition when brought into the hospital. However, X-rays showed there were no fractures. The boy had only a slight fever as a memento of his experience.

Faint heart wins not lady fair; Victory smiles on those who dare, There is but one way to woo Think the lady willing too! If she answers you with "No," Do not bow and let her go; It is most likely her "No" is meant But to make more sweet her consent.

—William Linton

What do you consider the ideal period between births? Experts maintain there should be a period of not less than four years between births. They say children so born will have the best chance for a healthy adult life. I have no reason to believe my mother and father planned it, yet I was born five years after my sister. And have enjoyed excellent health practically all my adult life.

So you think hotel charges are excessively high and tipping expectations are too great in this country. Give a thought to Italy. In that country taxes and service charges can increase a hotel bill by 50 per cent. That is, if the rate is $8 a day, the charge on your bill will be $12. In addition to that, you are expected to tip practically everyone who works in the hotel.

Please Note

Many turf enthusiasts do not realize that when they buy a $2 ticket their bet is only for $1.75. The track "take" of 15 per cent is immediately deducted. Also, if it turns out to be a winning ticket, the bettor does not get the complete amount due. "Breakage" is deducted. At one time, tracks paid the winners the exact amount due. For example, at Dade park, Kentucky, in 1931, a horse named Pretty Penny paid off as follows: $7.29 to win; $4.68 to place, and $3.48 to show.

Horses and Women

"What will it do for me?" That is what a woman wants to know when considering the purchase of a dress or hat. The principal desire seems to be that the article of attire will increase the wearer's male attraction. As you know, Margaret Truman's wedding gown was designed by the Italian dressmaker, Micol Fontana. Do you know why? Well, Margaret was wearing a Fontana dress when she first met the man who became her husband. Mr. Daniel's later confided to Margaret: "That dress you are wearing first attracted me to you." So that was a dress that really did something for a wearer. It got her a husband.

Asking

Queries from Clients. Q. Did Nanette Fabray star in the stage musical "No, No, Nanette?" A. No Sir. The show you mention was produced when Nanette was a child actress playing with the Our Gang Film Comedy company. Nancy Welford was the featured player in "No, No, Nanette" in which was introduced the hit song "Tea for Two" . . . Q. Are you familiar with a poem dealing with scandal that starts "Believe not each accusing tongue?" A. Yes, Sir. It is by Richard Brinsley Sheridan and goes as follows:

Believe not each accusing tongue As most weak mortals do, But still believe that story wrong That ought not to be true.

Sidelights

Has your wife ever been referred to as a "Venus?" Does she know the measurements of Venus De Milo are bust, 37; hips, 38, and height 5 feet 4 . . . A young father of Brooklyn claims he can change a diaper in 11 seconds. He is a graduate of a school for expectant fathers and was the champion diaper changer of his class.

Early Start

When Bob Feller was seven, his father started him practicing pitching. When Bobby Jones was 7, his father gave him a set of golf clubs for Christmas. If you want your son to be a champion or a star in baseball, football or golf, you better get him interested in the chosen sport early in life.

Street Names

What is the most curiously named street in the world? How about that Paris thoroughfare, on the left bank of the Seine, which is named the Rue Du Chat Qui Peche? That translated means "The Street of the Cat Who Fishes." Seems that in the yesteryear there actually was a cat in that location who fished for his food in the Seine.

Borrowed Card

He told officers that the name Salvador Suarez Galan, found on an immigration card in his home, was not his true name. He had borrowed the card from a friend, he told police.

Garcia told officers that he had spent the first night in the woods, eluding the posse that he knew was searching for him. Sunday night he returned to Kegg Pitt and hid under the railroad shed, he said.

The girl was found Saturday afternoon, unconscious and covered with a blanket in a roadside ditch about 40 miles north of here.

Langley Said Ill; Misses Jury Session

Portland — (U.P.) — Multnomah county's vice-probing grand jury worked without the testimony of District Attorney William Langley yesterday but heard several other witnesses before the day was out.

Langley, scheduled to appear before the panel yesterday afternoon, asked to be excused from appearing. The District Attorney was home, ill from a cold, his office said.

Attorney General Robert Y. Thornton said that Langley probably will appear later this week.

James Elkins, Portland night life figure, appeared for the second time before the jury yesterday afternoon in what Thornton described as "a finishing up" period for him.

RETIRED ADMIRAL DIES

San Francisco — (U.P.) — Adm. George D. Murray, USN Ret., died Monday night at Stanford hospital from the effects of a cerebral hemorrhage he suffered a week ago. He was 66.

Clark Gable's Wife Taken To Hospital

Hollywood — (U.P.) — Actor Clark Gable's wife, the former Kay Spreckels, was reported "resting comfortably" today in Cedars of Lebanon Hospital where she is under observation for a possible heart condition.

The hospital said Mrs. Gable, who had appeared in films under her maiden name of Kay Williams would remain under observation for another few days. She entered the hospital quietly last Wednesday after suffering several "spells."

Hospital officials merely reported she was "under observation" and for several days her close friends did not even know that tests were being conducted to determine if she has a heart condition. It was disclosed Monday, however, that Mrs. Gable had complained of faintness and fluttery spells prior to entering the hospital.

The S.S. United States made 22 round trips between America and Europe in 1935 and carried 70,104 passengers, more than any other trans-Atlantic liner.

President Expected To Tell Verdict Soon

Washington — (U.P.) — Sen. Andrew F. Schoepel (R-Kan.) predicted Monday night President Eisenhower will reveal whether he still plans to run for reelection at his next news conference.

Schoepel, chairman of the Senate GOP Campaign Committee, said he is sure Mr. Eisenhower will hold a press conference as soon as he is able. He said he is equally certain that White House reporters will ask the President what he intends to do and "I see no way" Mr. Eisenhower "could avoid giving an answer."

HOT PITCHER

Lumberton, N.C. — (U.P.) — Word got around that a local pitcher was really hot stuff, having pitched his team to a 59-7 victory over an opposing baseball club. But the pitcher, G. O. Mitchell, won't be available for the majors just yet. He does his pitching for the Robeson county, N.C., prison camp team. Last week the team gave the Harnett County prison camp team the 59-7 drubbing.
