

Memories of '46 Stir Cardinals; Yankees Strike for Sixth Straight

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer

Murry Dickson helped pitch the St. Louis Cardinals to their last National League pennant 10 years ago and today, at 40, he wouldn't mind history repeating itself at all.

Back in 1946, Dickson used his fast ball to win; last night he relied mainly on his knuckler to post a three-hit 6-0 victory over the Dodgers and boost the Cards to within a mere three percentage points of the National League lead.

Dickson's shutout was the first against Brooklyn this season and it was also the first against the Dodgers at Ebbets Field since he, himself, blanketed them as a member of the Phillies on Aug. 22, 1954.

Stan Musial and Bobby Morgan each clipped Sandy Koufax for two-run homers in the first inning and Dickson had clear sailing from then on as he faced only 32 batters and did not permit a base runner to reach second until two were out in the ninth.

Fans Seven Dodgers
Dickson struck out seven and walked only three. The only Dodger batter who gave him any trouble was Pee Wee Reese, collector of all three Brooklyn hits.

The Braves won their fourth game in a row under new Manager Fred Haney and climbed to within a half-game of first place with a 5-3 triumph over the Pirates, who dropped to fourth place.

Lefty Lou Sleater, summoned to Lew Burdette's relief with two out and runners on second and third in the ninth, struck out Bill Virdon to save Burdette's sixth victory. Hank Aaron and Bill Bruton each drove in two runs as Bob Friend absorbed his fourth defeat against 11 victories.

Del Ennis' 11th homer with one on highlighted a four-run rally in the eighth inning that gave the Phillies a 4-2 decision over league-leading Cincinnati. Johnny Klippstein had a three-hit shutout until the eighth when a walk, a single by Marv Blaylock and Stan Lopata's triple tied the score. Ennis then followed with his homer, which was the 244th of his career with the Phillies and broke the previous club record of 243 held by Chuck Klein. Jack Meyer pitched the last two innings, struck out four batters and was rewarded with his fourth victory.

Shutout For Antonelli
Southpaw Johnny Antonelli of the Giants shut out the Cubs, 2-0, on five hits while striking out seven batters and walking none. The Giants got to Bob Rush for a run in the second inning on Willie Mays' triple and Bill Sarni's sacrifice fly, then added another run in the seventh on a walk, a sacrifice and a single by Daryl Spencer.

In the American League, the pace-setting Yankees reeled off their sixth straight victory when they beat their No. 1 nemesis, Frank Lary of the Tigers, 5-3.

Lary, a three-time winner over the Yanks this season, had a 3-0 lead going when New York tied the score on Yogi Berra's double, singles by Irv Noren and pinch hitter Elston Howard, a walk, an error and an infield out. Another double by Berra, plus a walk and two singles added a Yankee run in the eighth and winning pitcher Tommy Byrne homered in the ninth.

Pierce Gets No. 10
Left-hander Billy Pierce of the White Sox became the first American League pitcher to win 10 games when he defeated the Orioles, 5-1, with the aid of homers by Minnie Minoso and Larry Doby. Pierce scattered eight hits and struck out eight as he kept the second-place White Sox within 5½ games of the Yankees.

Home runs by Vic Wertz and Al Smith helped the Indians snap a six-game losing streak with a 9-7 triumph over the Red Sox. Wertz' 16th homer with two on climaxed a six-run uprising in the second inning but it was Smith's two-run homer in the fourth that turned out to be the decisive blow. Bob Lemon notched his eighth victory although knocked out in the ninth when the Red Sox rallied for three runs. Ted Lepico homered for Boston.

Roy Sievers drove in five runs with his 16th and 17th homers to lead Washington to a 10-5 victory over Kansas City. Bunky Stewart went the route for the Senators to gain his third victory although he gave up homers to Hector Lopez, Harry Simpson and Joe DeMaestri.

Jose Santiago was the loser.

Robinson of Reds May Be Only Rook All Star Starter

New York — (U.P.) — Slugging Frank Robinson, Cincinnati's 21-year-old left fielder, may be the only rookie named to start on either of the major league All-Star teams.

Robinson took over the lead for the left field starting berth on the National League All-Star team today with 12,711 votes so far as compared with 12,253 for runner-up Rip Repulski of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Otherwise, there was no change in the leaders. Mickey Mantle of the Yankees continued to lead all others with 36,639 votes while teammate Yogi Berra was second with 33,978. Pittsburgh first baseman Dale Long led the National League players with 31,787 votes.

Voting for All-Star players, which is being handled by newspapers, radio and television stations, will close Friday, the ballots are being counted by Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick's office.

Crater Lake Tops DeMolay

Crater Lake Motors overran Medford DeMolay for its second win and for the losers' fifth loss of the season in Jackson County Softball association play last night.

Final score was Crater Lake 12, DeMolay 3.
Ed Reinking swung a heavy bat for the victors, clubbing homers in the second and sixth innings. Winning pitcher Clearly opposed Hale for DeMolay.

The sole game scheduled for tonight pits Bill's 99 Chevron Service against Courtesy Chevrolet. Tomorrow evening it's Chris Drugs vs. DeMolay and McCulloch Chain Saw vs. 20-30 club.

Payette River Searched For Bodies of Two Men
Banks, Ida. — (U.P.) — State policemen, sheriff's deputies and scores of volunteers searched several miles of the Payette river and its banks near here today for the bodies of two Canyon county men who drowned when their canvas boat was overturned by the current yesterday afternoon.

Frank Tucker, 26, Caldwell, and Hans Haas, 24, Nampa, were missing in the stream. One of the men disappeared beneath the water while would-be rescuers tried in vain to reach him with ropes as he clung to the overturned boat on its swift voyage downstream.

PHILLY FATHER
Philadelphia — (U.P.) — Elmer Valo, the Philadelphia Phillies outfielder, has become a father for the fourth time. His wife, Anna, gave birth to their second daughter Tuesday.

Plywood Delegates Hear Sales Promotion Plans
Gearhart — (U.P.) — The Douglas Fir Plywood association, concluding its 20th annual meeting here yesterday, heard plans for a broad sales promotion designed to increase fir plywood output to 7.5 billion feet by 1960.

W. E. Difford, managing director of the association since 1938, announced a four-phase program which he said would keep plywood demand "going forward each year." The four points all related to additional home and school construction.
