

Mantle Slams Yankees to Victory; Milwaukee on Top of Slippery NL

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

Mantle connected twice in the New York Yankees' 4-1 victory over the Detroit Tigers Wednesday night to increase his total to 27 in 60 games. Ruth didn't hit No. 27 until the Yankees' 78th game in 1927. Because Ruth closed that season with 17 homers in September it is not too unusual for a player to be ahead of Babe's pace at this stage of the race.

But Mantle's current pace also is faster than the two sluggers who came closest to the mark—Fox had 29 homers at the end of June—a figure Mantle should easily top in the next 10 days—while Greenberg had hit "only" 24 on June 30, 1933. Both wound up with 58 homers.

Yanks' Seventh Straight
With Mantle exploding two drives into the center field stands at Detroit's Briggs Stadium, the Yankees equalled the current season high by rolling to their seventh straight victory. Johnny Kucks received credit for his ninth win although Whitey Ford took over in the eighth and finished up. Billy Hoelt suffered his fourth loss compared to eight triumphs.

The Chicago White Sox remained 5½ games behind the Yankees when they outslugged the Baltimore Orioles, 12-8, in a three-hour and 37-minute struggle. The White Sox overcame an early 4-0 deficit to slug seven Baltimore pitchers for 15 hits including a homer by Larry Doby. It was the White Sox' sixth triumph in seven games.

Al Rosen singled home Bobby Avila in the 10th inning to give the Cleveland Indians a 5-4 edge over the Boston Red Sox, after Gene Wooding tied the score with an eighth-inning homer. Herb Score struck out 10 batters in six innings to reach the 100-mark for the season but relief pitcher Don Mossi was credited with the win. Tom Hurd was the losing pitcher.

The Washington Senators scored three runs on only one hit in the eighth and ninth innings to beat the Kansas City Athletics, 5-4. Connie Grob won his second game for the Senators while Troy Herriague suffered his sixth loss.

Braves Take NL Lead
In the National League, the Milwaukee Braves remained unbeaten under Fred Haney and took over first place when they beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 7-3. Gene Conley went the route for the first time as the Braves scored their fifth straight win. It was the fifth straight defeat for the Pirates and dropped them into fifth place. Milwaukee's road record now is 16-10 for 615.

The Cincinnati Redlegs, 11-14 on the road, dropped out of first place when they were beaten, 3-2, by Curt Simmons and the Philadelphia Phillies. Simmons struck out seven in winning his third game of the season. Stan Lopata's 12th homer of the year gave him his margin of victory.

Carl Furillo's two-run single climaxed a three-run third-inning rally that enabled the Brooklyn Dodgers to beat Vinegar Bend Mizell and the St. Louis Cardinals, 4-2. Roger Craig received credit for the first win of his career over the Redbirds although Clem Labine finished up.

Hank Thompson's three-run homer and Al Worthington's five-hit pitching gave the New York Giants a 4-1 verdict over the Chicago Cubs. Worthington struck out six and walked only one to out-pitch Don Kaiser, who hasn't won since he made his debut with a two-hitter against the Dodgers on June 2.

Bilko Stopped By San Francisco; Seattle Near Lead

By DON THACKERY
United Press Sports Writer

The swing-happy Los Angeles Angels, who have been rockin' and rollin' the Pacific Coast league all season, found somebody stepping on their blue suede shoes today.

Swing was about all the Angels did against San Francisco's Russ Kemmerer Wednesday and they were muted by a 4-0 score. Meanwhile the Seattle Rainiers beat out a 7-6 victory over San Diego and moved into a virtual tie with Los Angeles, only three percentage points behind.

Vancouver tightened up the race by nosing past Hollywood 6-5 and Portland beat Sacramento by the same score to break an 11-game losing streak. The currently hot San Francisco club combined the five-hit pitching of Kemmerer with the heavy hitting of Joe Tanner to even their series with the league leaders.

Heavy Hitter
Tanner crashed a home run, a double and a single to figure in the scoring of all Seal tallies. Marino Pieretti was the victim as the Angels got only one man to third.

In addition Kemmerer snapped Steve Bilko's consecutive game hitting streak at 24 games when he handed the big Angel first baseman the horseshollar. Bob Baatena's double in the bottom of the ninth drove across the winning run for Seattle after San Diego had rallied to tie it with three in the eighth and one in the ninth.

The game was a sloppy one with each side committing four errors. The Padres had 12 hits and the Rainiers 18.

Tom Herrera, third San Diego pitcher, was the loser and relief artist Bill Kennedy got the win, also scoring the winning run.

Mounties Moving
Vancouver won its fourth game in the past six by rallying for three runs in the bottom of the eighth to down the Stars. It was only the second setback for Hollywood in its past 17 games.

Pinch hitter Jerry Jacobs doubled home the tying and winning runs. Fred Baczewski, fourth of five Mountie hurlers, got the win over Lino Donoso for the Stars. Chuck Stevens homered for the Hollywood club.

Bob Borkowski hit a grand slam home run for the Portland Beavers in the fifth inning to bring them from behind and provide a margin of victory. Nippy Jones homered for the losers as Sacramento slipped out of the first division.

The Linescores:
San Francisco 001 020 100—4 10 0
Los Angeles . . . 000 000 000—0 5 2

Vancouver . . . 200 000 130—8 11 2

Roads at Fish Lake Open Now
The road between Fish Lake and Willows lake is being graded this week by the Forest Service and will be ready for week end travelers for the first time this year.

Fishing at Fish Lake is reported good, especially during the past three days. Several rainbow trout between 20 and 25 inches have been caught, one, a 22-inch five-pounder by George McUne Jr., 1158 Court st., Medford.

Satterfield Likes Contender Position

Chicago (U.P.)—Bob Satterfield's victory over sixth ranked heavyweight Johnny Summerlin makes him either a logical claimant to the light heavyweight title or a challenger for the heavyweight crown, his manager, Ike Bernstein, contended somewhat illogically today.

"We'll fight anybody," he said. "If they won't give us a chance in that heavyweight eliminations, we'll claim the light heavyweight title.

There's nobody to beat us out of it, and we can make 175 pounds."

Satterfield, though beaten 21 times in his 66 fight career, weighed only 183 pounds Wednesday night, but overcame Summerlin, 24-years-old and 194 pounds, handily. It was Summerlin's fifth loss in 37 pro fights and ended a 12 fight winning streak.

Medfordites Whittled in Jr. OGA

Two Medford juniors were still in original flite and one in consolation flite contention as the OGA junior golf tournament entered its third round today.

Results of second round play were: (Juniors) Tom Hamlin over Kent Rothrock, Pendleton, 2 and 1, 3rd flite; Gary Harrington over Bob Booth, Eugene, 4 and 3, 5th flite; Dick Sorenson over Rick Meyer, Portland, 20th hole, 11th flite; (Boys) Jim May, Oswego, over Stanley Dowson, 19th hole, 7th flite; Merle Sanders, Portland, over Tom Alley, 4 and 3, 8th flite; Charles Lee, Portland, over John Milne, 2 and 1, 1st flite.

Pam Stacey, girls' division, lost in a consolation round to Mary Moty, Bend, 5 and 4.

Portland (U.P.)—Action in the Oregon junior golf championships began to get down where it counts today with only semi-finalists left in contention for titles in the four divisions.

In the boys' division, Albany's Steve Wright, medalist, moved up with a 1-up win over defending champion Dave Munro.

Joining Wright in the select quartet still hopeful of snagging boys' division honors were Jerry Forester, Riverside; Ralph Helton, Roseburg; and Doug Ragen of Oswego.

Taking places in the junior division semi-finals were Roseburg's Joe Hallmark and Prineville's Ron Weber. Rounding out the quartet were Jerry Cundari of Portland Golf club and Dick Smith of Waverly.

Only medalist in the bracket to fall was Bob Smith. He had knotted for medalist honors in qualifying with Weber, Cundari and Hallmark, all with one-under-par 71s.

In the girls' division, two Eugene lasses qualified for the semifinals and will meet today. Elaine Porritt and Shirley Slegmund moved up along with June Robinson of Tillamook and Molly Murphy of Waverly.

Peewee division performers took a day of rest yesterday but go back into action today with Sutherland's Tommy Kabler rated the lad to beat.

Portland Golf Leaves Eight

Portland (U.P.)—The 1936 medalist and a four-times city champ come face to face in the quarter-final round of the Portland city golf championships today as the field was cut in half yesterday.

Lou Stafford, the medalist this year, and Tab Boyer, after his fifth city title, were matched today after both made it through yesterday's match play.

George Clirch posted a two-under-par yesterday for the day's best card. Also advancing was defending champion Ben Hughes.

In the women's division, medalist Mrs. Dick Grubbs advanced to the semi-finals. In an upset, Mrs. Dale Hilt, runner-up in the 1935 meet, lost to Mrs. Les Kangas.

Medford-CP Battles for First Friday

First place in league standings will be decided when Medford-Central Point meets Grants Pass in an American Legion junior baseball game at the fairgrounds Friday evening. Game time is 8 p.m.

The scheduled Grants Pass-Roseburg game was postponed Tuesday evening because of wet grounds. This left league standings all tied up with each of the three teams having won one and lost one.

Word from Grants Pass is that Coach Gordon Howerton will probably start right-hander Jim Smith on the mound against Medford-CP. The local lineup will be announced tomorrow.

Dead line Sunday Classified is at noon Saturday.

Middlecoff and Kroll Tee Off as Favorites in Philadelphia Golf Tourney

Philadelphia (U.P.)—Cary Middlecoff and Ted Kroll were the hot guns today in a field of 133 which teed off in the Philadelphia Daily News $20,000 second annual golf tournament.

Middlecoff, twice winner of the U. S. Open, was the No. one guy in a field that included most of the great, including Jimmy Demaret, Tommy Bolt, Frank Stranahan, Arnold Palmer, Dow Finsterwald, Vic Ghezzi, Bob Toski, Jim Turnesa, Doug Ford, who tied for first place last year, and a host of newcomers.

Kroll rated highly because he won the meet last year.

Kroll, Stranahan and Turnesa were the first threesome to tee off at 8:48 a.m. EDT.

The top prize money was $4,000, a tidy incentive to break the 272 par for 72 holes over the 6,243 yard Cobbs Creek Course.

The tricky course beat back the par shooters last year when Kroll and Ford tied at 273, with Doug Higgins one stroke behind. Kroll won the sudden death playoff at the second hole.

Preliminary swings around the course for the past two days found the pros guessing that two under par, a 270 score which eluded a field of 138 a year ago, could win.

Middlecoff, the Tennessee dentist, was the one who said 270 was the score to aim for, and that probably 269 could sew it up tight.

The subpar goal was set by the condition of the course. It is under the supervision of George Fazio, who tied with Ben Hogan and Demaret for the Open title in 1950 in his role as a Fairmount Park supervisor, and the vote was that the job was well done.

Last year there was trouble on three greens, the result of the late August flash floods which swept over the bank of the small creek going in and out of the park woodlands. Now the greens are in top condition to challenge good golf.

The tournament runs through Sunday, with the field out after the opening rounds.
