

Women of Moose Hold Initiatin

Women of the Moose held initiation and election of officers at the last meeting of the order June 13.

Initiated were Mrs. Ted Holmes, Mrs. John Wilkinson, Mrs. Lee Couch, Mrs. Loren Slye, Mrs. Charles Long, Mrs. Eldred Moore and Mrs. Keagan Townsend.

The newly elected officers are Mrs. James Roberts, past senior regent; Mrs. Ray Daniels, senior regent; Mrs. Desmond Sweet, junior regent; Mrs. Dewey Gearfield, chaplain; Mrs. John Summerfield, recorder; Mrs. Harry Finley, treasurer.

A "secret pal" breakfast is planned for Sunday, June 24, at the home of Mrs. Mirl Morse, 169 Oak Grove road, at 7:30 a.m.

Names of the secret pals will be revealed at that time. Those needing transportation for the event are asked to call Mrs. James Roberts, 3-4392, Mrs. Morse, 3-5198 or Mrs. R. S. Martin, 3-5243.

Next meeting of the order will be June 27 at the Moose hall.

Swartsleys Here To Visit Relatives

Mr. and Mrs. George (Bert) Swartsley and daughter, Mary Pat, of Salem, Ore., are visiting relatives and friends in Medford. They are guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Brainerd, Valley View dr., Mr. Swartsley's brother-in-law and sister.

Last evening the Swartsleys were honored at a family dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joyce Swartsley, brother and sister-in-law, and tonight the family will be guests of the Brainerds for a barbecue supper.

The visitors will leave tomorrow.

Four Zontians At Convention

Four members of Medford Zonta club will leave tomorrow for Sun Valley, Ida., to attend the annual convention of Zonta International. Attending will be Miss Joe Kirtley, Mrs. Violet Anders, Mrs. Ilean Grigsby and Mrs. Florene Bolton.

This will be the 33rd convention of this international service organization of executive women in business and the professions. Sessions will be June 25-28, and more than 900 delegates and members are expected to attend. Thirteen countries will be represented. Dr. Dorothea Radusch, Minneapolis, Minn., president of Zonta international will give the opening address on "Zonta Futures."

A special feature of the convention will be the first presentation of Zonta's "Nations United" meeting June 28. Representatives of each of the 13 Zonta countries will present views on "What Women Can Do to Assure Peace in the World." Keynote speaker will be Mrs. Eleanor Lansing Dulles of the State Department. She will also speak for a banquet on "Foreign Relations and You."

The international service project of Zonta is the Amelia Earhart graduate scholarship program. Grants of $1200 each are given annually to qualified women engineers for graduate work in the field of aeronautics. To date, 18 young women have used these awards, and the 1956 winner will be announced during the coming convention.

"A Woman's View of the World of Tomorrow" will be one of the program features. Forecasts will concern various occupational fields in the next 25 years.

At the last meeting of the Medford club Mrs. Jean Fish, new president, presided for her first meeting. Mrs. Lorraine Evensen, who has resigned her position as vocal music director for Medford public schools, has also resigned from the club. She was honored with a shower during the luncheon-meeting, held at the Jackson hotel.

Mrs. Evensen and her husband, Paul, will spend part of the summer in Minnesota with her parents.

Cebu Swamp to Meet Saturday Afternoon

Members of Cebu Swamp, Military Order of the Lizard, United Spanish War Veteran, will meet at the home of Col. W. H. Paine, 56 North Orange street, Saturday, July 23, at 1 p.m. Mrs. Winifred Vail will be hostess.

A potluck dinner will be served at 1 p.m. Medford members are to take hot dishes, the Grants Pass members the salads and desserts.

Members are to take articles to be used as prizes for the annual meeting of the Grand Swamp.

Mrs. Renne Grosh and Mrs. Hans Rammim are co-chairman. Mrs. Mabel Nicholson states that there will be a practice of the stunt to be given at the convention in Eugene, July 9. Auxiliary members are always welcome.

District Psychiatrist to Have Practice in Medford

The Southern Oregon Child Guidance clinic will be able to increase its services within the county with the addition of Dr. Harry K. Danielson to the staff as assistant to Dr. John Waterman, of the state board of health.

Dr. Danielson is now working in the state hospital in Salem. He will establish a private practice in psychiatry in Medford beginning July 2.

He will serve as district psychiatrist for four southern Oregon counties, and will devote four days of the month to Jackson county, three of which will be assigned to the clinic.

Miss Mary Vandenburg will continue as full time psychiatric social worker this year. It is hoped that psychometric tests, done through school facilities, will still be available for use at the clinic in diagnostic work.

Dr. Norman Sundberg of Eugene will be at the clinic one day a month as clinical psychologist. Dr. and Mrs. Waterman will continue as consultants to the Jackson county health department staff.

The Child Guidance Clinic offices will remain at 307 Leverette building this year.

A service of the health department, the clinic, is administered by Dr. A. Erin Merkel, health officer; Miss Dorothy Huskey, health educator, and Miss Dorothy Colliard, nursing supervisor.

June Meeting
At the June meeting of the clinic's board of directors, Mrs. Carl Wimberly, president, appointed the following committee chairmen, as approved by the board: Dr. Brandt Bartels, personnel and administration; Robert Minear, publicity and education; Mrs. Roland Homes

OWL TANGLED UP

Bloomington, Ill. — (UP)—A not-so-wise old owl got himself all tangled up in some kite string in a tree on the Illinois Wesleyan University campus. The bird was wise enough, however, to keep hooting until students called the Bloomington fire department to its rescue.

Povidence, R. I. — (UP)—After driving Edwin Cull, 31, 85 for fenders, the judge turned to the defendant, a substitute school teacher, and said: "Write, 'I will not drive again without fenders' 100 times."
