Grants Pass	1	2	.333

Medford-Central Point junior American Legion baseball team rolled into first place in District 43 with a 6 to 4 victory over Grants Pass at the fairgrounds Friday evening.

Smooth-styled Wayne Allen, a sophomore at Crater High next year, hurled an eight-hitter for Medford-CP. It was Allen's second conquest of the Grants Pass club. He won a 4 to 0 shutout last Tuesday.

Grants Pass was first to cross the plate with two runs in the top of the second inning. Dennis Echstein led off with a single and was sacrificed to second. Dick Hayes walked. Echstein came home when second baseman Larry Perkins fumbled a ground ball hit by Don Jaquik. Chuck Lasher then rapped out a long double to drive in Hayes with the second run.

Medford-CP came back in their half of the second as Dennis King and pitcher Allen both singled. Steve Wisely drew a base on balls and Ernie Tyler did likewise to walk in the first run. Allen scored the second when Gordon Owsley slammed a ball to shortstop and was nicked at first base.

Both teams collected single runners in the third inning. King for the locals and Hayes for Grants Pass drove the runs in.

In the fourth, Grants Pass went down with Lasher stranded on third base. Medford picked up a run when, with two away, Owsley whipped a single, stole second, and skittered home on a bingle by Perkins.

The visitors got their final tally in the fifth frame as shortstop Owsley mishandled a ball hit by Lasher, allowing Don Jaquik to score from second.

Phil Sward put a number five on the Medford-CP scoreboard in the bottom of the fifth when Grants Pass shortstop Richard Conroy overthrew first base trying to beat Allen. The locals added an insurance run in the sixth. Ron Peery singled with two out. Dick McLaughlin drew a walk advancing Peery to second. The run scored when Sward was safe by a whisker at first base on a grounder.

Jim Smith was the losing pitcher. Both Smith and Allen gave up eight hits.

Medford-CP couldn't connect for anything longer than one-base hits. Owsley got two, Dennis King two, and Perkins, Peery, Sward and Allen one each.

Larry Cochell, Pete Proctor, Dick Hayes, and Jim Smith each netted singles.

The next game for the Medford-Central Point legion team is at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the fairground park, with Roseburg.

Lineups: K H F
Medford-CP — 021 111 x-6 8 5
Grants Pass — 021 010 0-4 8 2
Allen and Sward, Smith and Tipple.

Dennis Echstein for GP wall-poled the longest ball of the game, a triple in the sixth with none on. Echstein previously had singled in the second inning. Chuck Lasher got a double and a single for Grants Pass, and

Larry Cochell, Pete Proctor, Dick Hayes, and Jim Smith each netted singles.

The next game for the Medford-Central Point legion team is at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the fairground park, with Roseburg.

Lineups: K H F

Beavers Edged 6-5; Seattle Retains Lead

By DON THACKREY
United Press Sports Writer

The Pacific Coast League Saturday was in the unusual position of having only two teams playing over 50-50 baseball.

Seattle and Los Angeles held onto their one-two spots in the loop with victories Friday night, but Hollywood and San Francisco dropped decisions and fell to even .500 marks. All other teams were under the even-break record.

Steve Bilko hammered his 29th and 30th homers to help Dave Hillman beat Sacramento

7-1 while Bud Podbielan five-hit Hollywood to give Seattle a 5-1 victory and preserve the Rainiers' one-game edge over the Angels.

Mounties Win Third

San Diego edged past San Francisco 2-1 on the big bat of newcomer Rocky Colavito and Vancouver's Fred Marsh broke a tie in the bottom of the ninth to give the Mounties a 6-5 win over Portland.

Bilko's two big smashes accounted for three of the Angel runs as Hillman kept the Sacs away from the plate until the ninth inning.

Earl Harrist, first of three Solon hurlers, was the loser. Podbielan gained his eighth victory of the season at the expense of Cholly Naranjo as his Rainier mates blasted 13 hits. Seattle got one run in the first inning and was never headed. The lone Hollywood tally came in the seventh frame.

Colavito took the measure of San Francisco by clouting a run-producing double in the second inning and then breaking a 1-1 tie as the leadoff batter in the ninth with a 380-foot home run.

Colavito joined the Padres only Thursday from Indianapolis.

Fifteen Men Stranded

The Seals were studies in frustration as they were unable to take advantage of 12 walks and left 15 men stranded. Starter Pete Mesa issued 11 free passes in five and two-thirds innings on the hill and gave way to Al Gettel who notched the win.

Max Surkunt went the route for the loss.

Marsh's hit in the bottom of the ninth produced a run-breaking tally to give Ryne Duren the edge over Billie Werle in a game that had been sea-saw from the start.

It was Vancouver's third straight victory and all were by the same 6-5 score.

Jr. League Baseball To Open

Southern Oregon Junior Baseball league teams open their season next week.

Three divisions make up the league. Pee wees are boys 12 years of age and under, who have not reached their 13th birthday by June 15. The Pee wee southern sector is made up of Ashland, Eagle Point, Central Point, Lone Pine, Medford Tigers and Medford Wildcats. A northern division will be formed of teams in the Grants Pass area. Intermediates are for youths 14 and under who are not yet 15 by June 15. The intermediate list will consist of Central Point, Eagle Point, Ashland and Medford.

Cubs are boys 15-years-old and under who have not reached 16 by June 15. Ashland, Grants Pass and Medford have cub teams.

All games will be played at 3 p.m.

Tuesday, pee wee games include Ashland at Medford Tigers, Medford Wildcats at Central Point, and Eagle Point at Lone Pine. Intermediate encounters are scheduled for Wednesday and include Eagle Point at Ashland and Medford at Central Point. Pee wees play again Thursday, with Lone Pine at Medford Wildcats, Medford Tigers at Central Point, and Eagle Point at Ashland.

Warren LaBounty, Ashland, is president of the junior league.

Small Bore Shoot Here

For the first time in its history, the Medford Rifle club is sponsoring the State Small Bore rifle championship on its outdoor range at the Four-corners of Crater Lake highway.

The finest gunmen from throughout Oregon and several from California will attend. Dates are June 30 and July 31.

A second event of the championship will be the contest of the 10 best metallic sight shooters of this match with the 10 best of England, and the 20 best metallic sight shooters in the international, Interstate and Provincial matches with similar teams representing Montana, Washington, Idaho, British Columbia, Alberta, Manitoba and Saskatchewan.

Special medals engraved with a picture of Crater Lake were prepared for this championship by V. H. Blackinton, Attleboro Falls, Mass. A sample medal is on display at Barkers' men's store and Lamperts Sporting Goods store.

Culys Enter Bowling Tourney

Mr. and Mrs. Gale Culy, 21 Washington st., will represent Medford at the second annual Maxie Kosof Endurance Classic bowling tournament at the Paramount Bowl in Ogden, Utah, next month.

The tournament runs from June 30 to July 31. The Culy's bowl on July 3 and 4.

Men bowl 40 consecutive games for first place prize of $2,000 with handicap. Women bowl 20 games for $500 prize with handicap.

Prineville Boy In Marble Finals

Tallahassee, Fla. (U.P.)—Gordon Jones of Prineville, Ore., battled his way into the championship rounds of the National Marbles tournament here today, along with three other boys who have survived early competition without a defeat.

The double-elimination tournament, sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, ends Saturday night.

The other three undefeated were Kenneth Mollette, Weesbury, Ky.; Robert Godsey, Greenville, Tenn.; and Wayne Vickery, Adrian, Mich.

AW SHUCKS!—Ben Hogan waxes his putter in disgust after missing a putt on the second green in the first round of the U. S. National Open Golf tournament at Rochester, N. Y. Hogan finished the day with a 72. Bob Rosburg took the lead with a two-under-par 68.

IN THE FAMILY—(U.P.)—Two sisters-in-law, each named Mrs. Elizabeth Gagne, went to the hospital the same day and each gave birth to a son.

Baseball School Here Tomorrow

Baseball school for the summer begins at the Medford High school field tomorrow.

Boys aged at least nine and who did not graduate from high school prior to June 7, 1956, are eligible.

Registration starts at 8:30 a.m. at the field tomorrow. Each student is required to pay a $1 fee. Classes will run Monday through Thursday for seven weeks on a two shift basis. The first group will stay from 8:30 to 10 a.m. and the second from 10:30 a.m. to noon.

During the half hour from 10 to 10:30 a.m. each morning, the instructors will present a lecture or demonstration for both groups of boys.

Each boy is to bring his own glove. Baseball shoes are optional, and the school furnishes bats and balls. Anyone who does not have a mitt can probably borrow one of the school's extras for the classes.

Lee Ragsdale is supervisor and Alexa McDonald head instructor. Under these two are Frank Roelandt, Cliff McLean and John Kovetz. The summer baseball school program is sponsored by the Medford public schools.

A special feature of the first week, two films on baseball will be shown during the Tuesday and Wednesday lecture periods. "Play Ball, Son," and "King of Swat" have been obtained through the courtesy of the San Francisco Seals baseball team of the Pacific Coast league.

Calhoun Wins, Wants Boyd Bout

New York (U.P.)—Rory Calhoun, unbeaten young Negro middleweight of White Plains, N.Y., will be rewarded with a shot at second-ranking Bobby Boyd at Madison Square Garden in August because of his 22nd straight victory and 12th knock-out Friday night in the Garden.

Calhoun, 21, scored a technical kayo over Willie Vaughn of Los Angeles at 2:28 of the eighth round, after flooring him three times in their nationally televised and broadcast fight. Only 1,500 attended.

Rory, who weighed 160 1/2 pounds to the California state champion's 159, was favored at 13-5.

SHOWS INCREASE

Eugene (U.P.)—The registrar at the University of Oregon said Saturday that enrollment for the 1956 summer session had shown a seven per cent increase over last year. Registration through the third day of the session was 1546.

Regents Calm in Meeting, Hope for Reappraisal

Los Angeles (U.P.)—Regents of the University of California have expressed hope that the Pacific Coast conference would give a careful reappraisal of penalties assessed against the UCLA football team.

The regents in their meeting Friday, however, agreed that the conference's Council of Presidents was the proper agency to evaluate the situation and make what provisions necessary in the PCC code governing aid to athletes.

The meeting had been expected to turn into an explosive session but the regents decided to take a "hands off" attitude after accepting a report of the situation by President Robert Gordon Sproul of the University of California, a unit of UCLA. The regents agreed that the proper approach was being taken towards the problem.

Coaches Praised

Gov. Goodwin J. Knight presided over the meeting and praised the group's attitude towards the problem. The governor declared, "If it weren't for the Waldorfs and Sanders we couldn't afford other sports." Lynn Waldorf is football coach at California and Henry (Red) Sanders is coach at UCLA.

Although going along with Sproul's report, a few of the regents voiced the opinion that the PCC acted before all the facts were known and also believed the penalties against the athletes were too harsh.

Spokane Slips By Emeralds

Rams pro football club, praised Sproul for his actions but at the same time said, "I can't completely congratulate you for the progress made thus far." Pauley said he thought the code governing athletes should be changed and expressed hope the penalties would be reviewed carefully.

At a press conference after the regent's meeting, Knight said he expected the entire situation as it affected California state universities would be reviewed and cleared up by Sept. 1. Sproul refused to comment on the possibility that a forthcoming meeting of the college presidents and athletic representatives might result in easing the penalties against UCLA.

Bill Bottler may be with a last-place team but that doesn't stop him from pitching some top-flight baseball.

Friday night the Spokane hurler hooked up in the Northwest League in a duel with Berlyn Hodges of Eugene and when the smoke had cleared, Bottler had himself a 3-2 victory.

Bottler fanned seven in taking his fifth victory and was in trouble only in the fourth and sixth as Jay Dean of the Emeralds drove in single runs in each frame.

Spokane got one in the first and one in the fourth and the decider came in the sixth on a run-producing single by George Huffman.

Bill Lybeck was just as effective for Wenatchee. He allowed 9 hits to lead the Chiefs to a 7-2 triumph over Salem.

Salem got both its markers in the sixth on a walk and three singles. Ray Webster and Ray Zarl drove in the runs.

Wenatchee got two in the first and added four in the third on four hits including a two-run double by Don Lundberg. Herb Anderson of the Chiefs hit a solo homer in the sixth.

Lewiston topped Tri-City 6-4 with a three-run rally in the seventh. Mac Schmidt's single produced two of the runs and the other scored on a sacrifice fly.

Surprise For Supper

Chicago (U.P.)—Mrs. Jo Ann Peretti, a 23-year-old practical nurse, served her husband's evening coffee and then announced a "surprise." An hour before, she said, she had given birth to a boy. There was no time to call a doctor, so she delivered the baby herself.

Lakers Skin Yakima Bears

Klamath Falls, Ore. (U.P.)—The semi-pro Klamath Lakers upset the Yakima Bears of the Northwest Baseball League, 6-5 here last night.

The Bears led by two runs going into the last half of the last inning. Klamath Falls tied it up and with one out, Laker Manager Dino Restelli tapped a bunt down the first base line to allow the winning run to score from third.

Grant Union Gets New Coach

John Day (U.P.)—Keith Farnam, former University of Oregon basketball player, has been named head hoop coach at Grant Union High school here.

The ex-Webfoot will replace Dewey Hoxie. In addition to his basketball chores, Farnam will coach junior varsity football and teach physical education and science classes.
