

Braves' Haney Wins Seventh; Sox Cut Yank Lead to Four

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer

Fred Haney, still undefeated as manager of Milwaukee, is sitting on top of both the world and the National League but he climbed down long enough to proclaim he is "no miracle man."

"I'd like to say I'm a miracle man," said the smiling, jubilant Haney Friday night after the Braves won the seventh straight game under his management by beating the Giants, 3-1. "But let's face it, I'm not."

"These guys are doing it," he said, gesturing toward his players whooping it up in the clubhouse. "They're playing good ball and we're getting good pitching."

Haney got a whale of a pitching job out of Ray Crone Friday night as the 24-year-old righthander scattered seven hits for his seventh victory.

Homers Win Game

The Braves gave him all the margin he needed to beat Ruben Gomez when Bill Bruton and Eddie Mathews smashed back-to-back homers in the third inning. Crone singled home Milwaukee's final run in the fourth.

The victory kept the Braves a full game ahead of the Cincinnati Redlegs, who took over second place with a 6-0 victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Unbeaten Brooks Lawrence, the ace of Cincinnati's pitching staff, racked up his ninth straight victory while limiting the Dodgers to two hits. The only hits off Lawrence were Carl Furillo's single in the fifth and Jackie Robinson's double with two out in the ninth. Catcher Ed Bailey drove in three Redleg runs with two homers while rookie Frank Robinson hit his 14th homer off loser Sal Maglie.

Al Smith of Cleveland, Braves beat Giants

In the National League, the pace-making Milwaukee Braves rallied to beat the New York Giants, 2-1, on ninth inning homers by Del Rice and Danny O'Connell. Hank Thompson had homered for New York. Warren Spahn got credit for the win over Johnny Antonelli in a duel of ace lefties.

The Brooklyn Dodgers took over second place, 1 1/2 games behind Milwaukee, by scoring three runs in the last of the ninth to beat Cincinnati, 7-6, with Randy Jackson's double and Rocky Nelson's single the big blows. Gil Hodges of the Dodgers hit two homers and Roy Campanella of Brooklyn and Gus Bell and Frank Robinson of Cincinnati hit one each.

Sox Beat Yanks; Late-Rally Games Rejuggle Pennant Race

By United Press

Veteran Jim Wilson of the Chicago White Sox tossed a fancy fourth-inning to beat the New York Yankees, 2-0, on Saturday while a trio of late-rally games helped to rejuggle the hot National League pennant race.

The White Sox's victory, their sixth straight and second in a row over the Yankees, cut the Yankees' American League lead to three games.

Righthander Wilson notched his 10th win of the season, sixth since coming to Chicago in a trade with Baltimore. The Sox scored the only two runs of the game in the sixth inning after Dave Philley was hit by a pitched ball and charged Yankee pitcher Bob Grim. After a couple of punches, Philley was ejected from the game.

Scores on Double

Jim Delsing, running for Philley, scored on Sherman Lollar's double. After Lollar was thrown out trying to stretch the hit, Walt Drope walked after Lollar was thrown out trying to stretch the hit, Walt Drope walked took second on an infield out, and scored on Luis Aparicio's single.

The three-place Cleveland Indians moved six games behind the Yankees by beating Washington, 9-8, with two runs in the last of the ninth. With two on and two out and the Senators leading, 8-7, pinchhitter Jim Lemon singled home the tying run and, when outfielder Whitey Herzog threw Wildly to third, Dale Mitchell came home with the winner. Herzog had driven in five Senator runs, with a triple, home, and walk. It was Cleveland's fifth straight win. Other homers were hit by Jose Valdivielso of Washington and

20-30 Club 1 4 .200
DeMolay 0 8 .000

Medford DeMolay collected two more for its loss column giving it a cellar record of no wins and six defeats.

Next week, Crater Lake Motors, tied at the front with only two games played, takes on Bill's in a Tuesday night game. Crater Lake will also finish a tie game Wednesday with Walt's Lithia Motors that was stopped by darkness last week.

The league is trying to schedule more games for Crater Lake so that it can catch up in the number played.

Monday night Walt's men play the YMCA Ysmen. Tuesday Medford Auto Upholstery attempts to grab at least a tie with fourth place Courtesy Chevrolet in the first game, and Bill's 99 go against 20-30 Club in the second.

Courtesy meets Walt's Lithia Motors and the YMCA Ysmen encounter DeMolay Thursday.

The schedule is brief: Monday, Walt's Lithia Motors vs. YMCA Ysmen, Bill's 99 Chevrolet vs. Crater Lake Motors; Tuesday, Medford Auto Upholstery vs. Courtesy Chevrolet; Wednesday, Crater Lake Motors vs. Walt's Lithia Motors (continuation); Thursday, Walt's Lithia Motors vs. Courtesy Chevrolet, YMCA Ysmen vs. Medford DeMolay.

Courtesy Chevrolet team traded places with Bill's 99 Chevrolet Service, and National Guard did the same with 20-30 Club during last week's Jackson County Softball association play.

Courtesy bounced Bill's 99 Wednesday night to put itself in fourth and Bill's in a tie for fifth. National Guard moved up a notch to a sixth place tie by virtue of idleness. Twenty-three club lost its game with McCulloch Chain Saw and lost percentage from .250 to .200.

London — (U.P.) — American pairs won the women's and the mixed doubles championships Saturday in the London grass courts tennis tournament, but Neale Fraser of Australia sprang the surprise of the day when he upset countryman Ken Rosewall in the men's singles final.

Fraser took advantage of one of Rosewall's worst days to win, 7-5, 3-6, 9-7, in the final tuneup for the Wimbledon championships which begin on Monday.

Athea Gibson of New York teamed with Gardner Mulloy of Denver, to win the mixed doubles crown with a 3-6, 6-3, 6-4 triumph over Darlene Hard of Montebello, Calif., and Bob Howe of Australia.

However, Louise Brough of Beverly Hills, Calif., and Shirley Fry of St. Petersburg, Fla., stymied Miss Gibson's bid for a share of two titles when they defeated her and Angela Buxton of England, 6-2, 7-5, in the women's doubles final on the Queen's Club courts.

Marlene Hagge Leads Pack in Ladies PGA

Detroit — (U.P.) — They were still chasing 22-year-old Marlene Bauer Hagge in the third round of the Ladies PGA championship at Forest Lake Country Club today.

Mrs. Hagge, the Asheville, N.C., blonde, who is bidding for her third straight tournament victory, fired a two-under women's par 73 Friday to retain her two-stroke lead over second-place Patty Berg of St. Andrews, Ill., at the halfway mark of the 72-hole $75,000 event.

Betty Jameson, San Antonio, Tex., shared the second round low with a 72 to climb into third place at 148.

She was followed by a quartet at 148 consisting of Louise Suggs, Sea Island, Ga.; Alice Bauer, Sarasota, Fla.; Joyce Ziske, Waterford, Wis., and Mickey Wright, San Diego, Calif.

Musial Doesn't Mind Taking First Base Work for Cards

Philadelphia — (U.P.) — Stan Musial, admired wherever there is baseball and revered in St. Louis left no doubt in anyone's mind today that he is staying in baseball indefinitely.

The Cardinal outfielder-infielder, who has won everything in baseball but the Hall of Fame and that's merely awaiting the end of his career, said emphatically that he is not discouraged at St. Louis and has no intention of retiring.

Musial put what should be an end to all such guessing when he said:

"I'm not discouraged and I'm not quitting."

He also made it clear that he was just as happy playing first base as in the outfield.

"I'll take care of my end of any job they give me in a baseball game," he said. "I've played first base before. I don't mind."

Manager Freddy Hutchinson and General Manager Frank Lane of the Cardinals backed him up, revealing that Musial was agreeable when the switch to the infield was suggested.

"I asked him did he want to work out for three or four days at first and his reply was 'What's

Patty Berg, Marlene Hagge Lead Ladies PGA

Detroit — (U.P.) — Patty Berg, the red-headed veteran from St. Andrews, Ill., fired four birdies in a six-hole stretch today on her way to a 71 and a tie for the lead at the three-quarter mark in the $75,000 ladies PGA championship.

Mrs. Marlene Bauer Hagge, leader through 36 holes, was tied with Miss Berg after the third round. Mrs. Hagge is the leader in money winnings this year, with Miss Berg second.

Richmond, Ind. — (U.P.) — Mrs. Woodrow Moore lost her purse last summer while motoring from Alabama to Richmond. It was returned to her a half year later by a Tennessee woman whose husband found it along the road. The contents were intact—including $7 in cash.
