

June, traditional month of brides, brought many weddings among young people of the Rogue valley. Among the June brides was Fidelia Janet Boone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Boone, 1526 West Main street, whose wedding to Gary Lee Boshears, son of Mr. and Mrs. Miner Boshears, 408 South Grape street, took place Sunday, June 17, at First Presbyterian church. The reception which followed was at the Jackson hotel. (Landis-Shangle photo)

Another June bride is Mrs. Harold Hall Muchow, Portland, before her wedding June 16 in Rose City Park Methodist church, Portland, the bride was Marlene Joan Vincent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Noble T. Vincent, 10 South Graveland avenue, Medford. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Muchow, Portland, and the newlyweds will live in that city. (Edris Morrison studio)

Mrs. Edward A. Gillooly is the former Patricia Hampson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Thurston, 1641 Ridgeway avenue. Her wedding to Mr. Gillooly took place June 17 at Sacred Heart Catholic church. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gillooly of East Rutherford, N. J., and the newlyweds traveled to that state on their wedding trip. They will be at home later in Berkeley, Calif. (Brainerd photo)

June Brings Weddings

A ceremony at Valley View Seventh Day Adventist church wedded Miss Harriet Janet Sabo to Richard D. Pflugrad. The bride is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Cornell Sabo, 257 Winema Way, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Pflugrad of Pendleton. The young couple will live at College Place, Wash., where both attend Walla Walla college. The wedding was followed by a large reception. (Brainerd photo)

Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Gillooly (Patricia Hampson) are shown leaving Sacred Heart Catholic church after their wedding June 17. Pictured (left to right) are Mrs. Charles H. Thurston, the bride's mother; Mr. Thurston, Carolyn Jo Parter, who was flower girl; the newly-wedded pair, Miss Marilyn Gillooly, who was maid-of-honor, and Miss Mikell Thurston, sister of the bride, bridesmaid, and small Brian Parter, her cousin. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Don Harding, married June 9 in Ashland Church of the Nazarene, are living at 217 South Riverside avenue, Medford. The bride is the former Mildred Claraine Lovaas, Ashland, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harding, Talent. Mr. Harding and his bride made a trip down the Oregon and California coasts as a honeymoon. (Memory Lane studio)

Guests at the wedding of Fidelia Boone and Gary Boshears last Sunday afternoon lingered long enough after the reception to shower the newlyweds with rice as they left the Jackson hotel. The couple motored up the north coast beaches on their wedding trip. The bridegroom, who was commissioned an ensign in the United States Navy when he was graduated earlier this month from Yale university, will report soon for duty in Hawaii. The couple will fly from San Francisco to the islands the first week in July. (Landis-Shangle photo)
