Rites Wed Miss Miller, Gene Lowe

Miss Murrayel Darlene Miller, daughter of Mrs. Maxine Miller, 421 Benson street, and Dola G. Miller, Everett, Wash., became the bride of Gene Dellwin Lowe, son of Mrs. Arleta E. Lowe, 1327 Saling street, in rites held Saturday, June 16 at 2 o'clock in Medford Church of the Brethren.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length princess style white gown of lace over taffeta. Her finger-tip veil was fastened with a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a heart shaped bouquet of red roses and white carnations with a cascade of white carnations.

Ballerina length gowns in pastel shades were chosen by the bride for her attendants. The maid of honor, Miss Deana Fuhrer, wore yellow and carried a nosegay of yellow carnations and white sweetpeas. Miss Patricia Miller, sister of the bride, wore aquamarine and carried a nosegay of pink carnations and lavender sweetpeas. While Miss Elaine Lowe, sister of the bridegroom, wore a gown of pink and carried a nosegay of pink carnations and white sweetpeas.

Best man was Floyd Gayner, candlelighter was Murray Miller, brother of the bride, while ushers were Lester Zimmerlee, Ashland, cousin of the bridegroom, and Darrell Lowe, his brother. Officiating at the double-ring ceremony was the Rev. Escil Hiser. Dale Cully played the piano arrangement of the "Lord's Prayer."

Following the ceremony 50 guests attended a reception held in the church. Mr. and Mrs. Gene D. Lowe, both graduates of Medford Senior High school, are now at home at 710 1/2 North Riverside, Medford. Mr. Lowe is employed by Fir Ply Incorporated.

Wedding vows were exchanged between Miss Janice Ethel Burrough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis A. Burrough, 827 Gilman road, and Paul Charles Coggins, 1329 Beekman street in the Community Bible Church, Central Point, Sunday, June 17. The Rev. Paul Kroom officiated at the double-ring ceremony at three o'clock.

The bride's gown of white nylon lace over taffeta was accented by a lace cap and waist length veil. She carried a white Bible with white orchid and orange blossoms. Given in marriage by her father, Miss Burrough had as her maid of honor, Miss Ruth Ann Coggins, sister of the bridegroom. Miss Coggins wore a dress of yellow nylon lace over taffeta complemented by a wreath of flowers in her hair. She carried a fan covered with pink rosebuds.

Cleve Hayes, Central Point, served as best man. Ushers were Keith and Lyle Coggins, Phoenix, cousins of the bridegroom. Miss Marlene Addington sang, accompanied at the organ by Miss Dorothy Lawton. Pink rosebuds and greenery decorated the church. Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church which was attended by 55 guests.

The first piece of wedding cake was cut by the newlywed pair. Mrs. Mike Paulazzo served the cake. Mrs. Luma Burrough presided at the punch bowl with coffee being poured by Mrs. H. H. Brown. Miss Ardis Fellows was in charge of the bride's book with Miss Cherie Paulazzo at the gift table.

College Students Married In Adventist Church Rites

Two hundred guests were present for the ceremony, held at eight o'clock in the evening in Valley View Seventh Day Adventist church. Elder O. E. Schnepfer, formerly of Medford and now of Hillsboro, Ore., officiated.

The reception which followed was in the gymnasium of Rogue River academy. The bride's gown was of slipper satin with bodice of Chantilly lace and train with overlace. Her fingertip length veil was of lace and train with overlace. She carried a bouquet of calla lilies. Dr. Sabo gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Judy Sabo, honor attendant for her sister, wore a frock of orchid-colored crystal-ette with matching hat and carried a basket of pale green net filled with orchid and green marguerites.

Mrs. Cornell Sabo Jr., a sister-in-law, was bridesmatron and Miss Medora Sabo, cousin of the bride from Long Beach, Calif., was bridesmaid. They wore gowns of pale green crystal-ette with matching hats and carried baskets of orchid net with orchid and green marguerites.

Pamela Beddoe was flower girl and Ricky Minder, cousin of the bride from College Place, Wash., carried the Bible. Pamela wore a frock designed similar to the bride's gown and carried a tiny white basket filled with white daisies.

Miss Carol Sabo, sister of the bride, and Miss Sandra Sayles, a cousin, lighted the candles. They wore blue crystal-ette dresses with matching hats and carried blue candles tied with bows and daisies.

Dwight Pflugrad, Pendleton, was best man for his brother and ushers were Ronald Davis, cousin of the bride from Portland, Jack Sabo, a cousin from Lodi, Calif., and Edison Ewing, Pendleton, uncle of the bridegroom.

Miss Shirley Paulson, Ashland, was organist, and vocal soloists were Mrs. Dwight Pflugrad, College Place, and Joe Hoyt. Large baskets filled with white gladioli and white wedding bells decorated the church. The candelabra held white tapers.

Mrs. Victor Sabo and Mrs. Ernest Sayles, aunts of the bride, poured and Mrs. Orval Davis, aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake, assisted by Miss Norma Brainard and Miss Patty Kennedy. Miss Rose Marie Beltz took charge of the guest book and Miss Jewelle Thompson, Miss Margie Hanson and Mrs. Harold Hanson the gifts.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a boucle suit of Copenhagen blue with navy blue accessories and a corsage of pink roses and shattered carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue lace dress with yellow accessories and a corsage of yellow roses and shattered carnations. In Medford for the wedding were the bridegroom's parents from Pendleton, Mr. and Mrs. Orval Davis and sons Ronald, Thomas and Steven, Portland; Dr. and Mrs. Victor Sabo and daughter Medora, Long Beach, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. John Sabo and daughter Jellinda, Santa Monica, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Sayles and sons Gary and Douglas and daughter Sandra, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Minder and sons Ricky and Nicky and daughter Rhonda, College Place; Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Boyd, Roseburg, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Pflugrad, College Place; Varree Pflugrad and son David, Mr. and Mrs. Edison Ewing, Linda and Eric and Miss Cleora Pflugrad, all Portland, and Jack Sabo, Lodi, Calif.

The bride, a graduate of Rogue River academy, is now a student at Walla Walla college, College Place, Wash., and is employed in the office of the registrar. The bridegroom, a student at the same college, is a graduate of Laurelwood academy.

An August wedding is planned.

Students to Wed In August Rites

Camp White — Mr. and Mrs. Norman Caldwell, Camp White, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Virginia, to Willard L. Westfall, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lloyd Westfall, Forest Grove, Ore.

Miss Caldwell is a 1954 graduate of Medford High school and both young people were students at Pacific university, Forest Grove, last year.

An August wedding is planned.

Williams Couple Plans Fall Rites In Medford Church

Williams — Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Parsons of Williams, Ore., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Lois Parsons, to Harold Vencill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vencill, also of Williams.

The wedding is planned for early fall and will be held at West Main Church of Christ in Medford. Miss Parsons is a graduate of Central Point High school and attended Southern Oregon college and Oregon State college. Her fiancé was graduated from Williams schools and served three years with the United States Air Force, including duty in Germany.

Keep dessert for a barbecue menu on the simple side. Wedges of orange chiffon cake with a compote of canned cling peach slices and pitted Bing cherries laced with a bit of dessert wine would be an excellent choice.

Simmons Family Here from East

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herbert Simmons and two of their sons, Charles Herbert Jr., and Robert R. Simmons, are in Medford as guests of Mrs. Simmons' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Ruhl, 2404 East Main street. The family plans to return home to Mt. Kisco, N.Y., the latter part of this week.

Pieces of tangy fresh pineapple, sweet plump prunes and cool cantaloupe make a happy threesome for a fruit cup or summer salad.

Muffins made with orange rind and raisins are partyish to serve with any kind of a fruit salad. Wonderful too for a family brunch on Sunday morning.
