Lawn Party Given For Sutherlands

Jacksonville — A lawn party held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Keaveny the evening of June 15 honored Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Sutherland, who left Jacksonville last Sunday to live in Sandy, Ore.

Mr. Sutherland, who has been superintendent of Jacksonville schools the last four years, will now be superintendent of the Sandy schools.

About 60 friends and relatives attended. A buffet dinner was served around an outdoor fire.

The Sutherlands' two sons, who are also teachers, and their families were present. They are Mr. and Mrs. Ted Sutherland and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sutherland. Also special guests were M. and Mrs. Ward Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Hatch. The two men were former students of Mr. Sutherland in South Dakota.

The Keaveny's son, Jack Keaveny, Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Huntermann and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Blair of Medford, attended. Mr. Huntermann and Ward Smith provided musical entertainment.

Mrs. Otto Niedermeyer gave an original reading for the occasion after which the Sutherlands were presented a gift as a token of friendship. The cakes served included one decorated by Mrs. Lee Harter with an inscription.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Lee Harter, Mrs. Fred Edins, Mrs. Albert Griffin, Mrs. Roy Martin, Mrs. John Niedermeyer, Mrs. Marion Niedermeyer, Mrs. Melvin Hall and Mrs. Jack Moor-ing.

Miss Elaine Falwell Married To Carlos Marshall VanVleet

Miss Elaine Cathryn Falwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Dean Falwell, formerly of Medford and now of Ashland, was wedded to Carlos Marshall VanVleet June 10 at the First Church of Christ in Ashland. The Rev. O. Wendell Herborn officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. VanVleet, also Ashland.

The bride was gowned in French Chantilly lace and net designed with a waltz-length tiered skirt, fitted bodice and short sleeves. She wore net mitts and her veil fell from a Juliet cap encrusted with seed pearls. The bridal bouquet was an arrangement of white orchids and stephanotis on a small white Bible. Her pearl necklace was a gift of the bridegroom. She was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Edward Tenney was matron of honor for her sister, and the Misses Toby Kay Fox, Beverly Barksdale, and Cathy Clark were bridesmaids. They wore gowns of lavender ballerina length lace and net with matching stoles and yellow crystalline Juliet caps. The bridesmaids carried arm baskets of yellow daisies, and Mrs. Tenney's flowers were lavender orchids.

Sidney Pickell was best man, and Monte Wray, Keith Bond and Bill Allen were ushers. Misses Nancy Pierce and Pat Holt, dressed in identical yellow crystalline frocks, lighted the candles.

Miss Yvonne Stimson was soloist and Miss Jeanne Eberhart was organist for the wedding.

Teresa Tenney, niece of the bride, was flower girl and Scott Thurston was ring bearer.

The bride's mother wore a dressmaker suit of navy and white print taffeta with matching hat and accessories and a pink corsage. The mother of the bridegroom wore a sheath dress of white embroidered linen with black and white accessories

Philip Getchell Stanford Graduate

Mr. and Mrs. Bayard Getchell and daughter, Miss Diana Getchell, returned to Medford Wednesday after being in Palo Alto, Calif., for the graduation of the Getchell's son, Philip, from Stanford university. The young man, an alumnus of Medford High school, received his degree in philosophy. He plans to enter one of the nation's theology schools next fall.

Also attending the ceremonies were the graduate's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Howell, and their two children, Pam and Hugh Jr., Honolulu, T.H.

Friday young Getchell, member of the Stanford university golf team, left by air for Ohio to play in a collegiate tournament. Following the tournament he will return to Medford for the summer.

Mother Attends McKibben-Leach Service in East

Central Point — Mrs. C. F. McKibben has returned from New Brunswick, New Jersey, where she attended the wedding of her son, Lt. Ferney M. McKibben and Miss Mary Rhoda Leach, daughter of Mrs. Walter L. Leach and the late Mr. Leach.

The couple returned recently from a wedding trip to Bermuda, and will be at home at 1905 Norwich road, Glen Burnie, Md., after July 1.

Lt. McKibben was graduated from the Coast Guard academy at New London, Conn., and received an advanced degree in naval architecture and marine engineering from Massachusetts Institute of Technology June 8. His bride holds an AB degree from Douglass college and an M. S. degree from Indiana university. She was on the staff of Simmons college, Boston, Mass. Lt. McKibben will be stationed at the USCG yard in Curtis Bay, Md.

The double-ring wedding ceremony was held June 9 at 4:30 in the Elizabeth Rodman Voorhees chapel of Douglass college. The Rev. Seth C. Morrow performed the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Hugh J. Nelson. She wore a princess-style gown of lace over satin, and carried a white orchid encircled with apple blossom geraniums.

Mrs. Robert L. McCurdy was her sister's honor attendant, Mrs. Marian F. Myers was bridesmatron, and Misses Carol Ann Henke, Mildred Erna Kocornik and Gunnel Maria Sterner were bridesmaids. They were gowned in ballerina-length mauve crystalline dresses with matching hats and carried cascade bouquets of pale pink apple blossom geraniums.

Lt. John G. Beebe-Cerling was best man. Ushers were Lt. Hubert E. Russell, Lt. (jg) Stanley R. Sirignano, Lt. Benedict L. Stable, Lt. Claude R. Thompson and Lt. Roderick M. White. The best man and ushers are all with the U. S. Coast Guard.

Robert McCurdy, brother-in-law of the bride, and Herbert Nelson, cousin of the bride, lighted the candles.

A reception followed the ceremony at Wood Lawn, Douglass college.

For her son's wedding Mrs. McKibben wore a dress of dusty rose lace with matching hat and shoes and a corsage of orchid and delphinium. The bride's mother wore wedgwood blue crystalite with a gold orchid on her purse.

Heat two cups cooked large dry limas briefly in a sauce of 1 tablespoon each chopped celery, chopped chives and butter heated with 1/2 cup red table wine.
