

Scout Troop 10
Tours Disneyland
During Vacation

Disneyland, Hollywood, and San Francisco were the high points in a six-day trip to California by Girl Scout Troop 10. The trip was taken as a reward for individual members who earned their Curved Bar, highest award in girl scouting.

The group, accompanied by the troop leaders, Mrs. Harold Gordon and Mrs. Gerald Latham, left Medford June 11 for Disneyland where they spent two days. While there they stayed at the Disneyland hotel and ate many of their meals in the park.

From Disneyland the girls toured Hollywood, attended the Bob Crosby television show, and visited Farmers Market. From there they travelled by bus to San Francisco where they spent part of one day sightseeing before returning to Medford.

Part of the expenses for the trip were earned by the troop through fruit sales, card parties, etc.

Girls who made the trip were Cecile Bell, Donna Childreth, Marilyn Jo Conner, Donna Dell, Donna Demmer, Judy Faulkerson, Barbara Gordon, Donna Jasmann, Julie and Lynn Ann Latham, Anne Matthews, Marion Parsons and Linda Slessler.

Gardeners Plan
Joint Meeting

Roxy Gardeners and Howard Garden club will hold a joint meeting and installation of officers Tuesday, June 26, in Harmony Hall of the Friends church. A covered dish luncheon at 12 noon will precede the meeting and installation.

Mrs. G. W. McBee will be the installing officer. Members are asked to bring table service and articles for display.

Nevita OES Chapter To Observe Birthdays

Central Point—Nevita chapter, Order of Easter Star, will hold a stated meeting Tuesday, June 26 at 8 p.m. at the Masonic Temple, Central Point. Mrs. Melvin McGrew, worthy matron, will preside and Mrs. Robert Chamberlain will be chairman of decorations.

Members having birthdays in April, May and June will be honored.

Dead line Sunday Classified is at noon Saturday.

Meeting Planned
By Herb Society

Rogue Valley Herb society will meet in an all day session, Tuesday, June 26, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Holst, rt. 1, box 118, Lampman Park rd., Gold Hill.

The meeting will start at 10:30 a.m. with the morning session being devoted to making herb scrapbooks. Lunch will be served at noon with herb tea being served by the hostess.

The regular meeting will begin at 1:30 p.m. with the roll call response being "something clever about herbs." Several talks by members discussing herbs will be given.

Members are asked to bring their own lunch with something to be shared as well as the materials for making the scrapbooks.

California
Service of Interest Here

Friends of Miss Betty Svinth, a graduate of Prospect High school, will be interested in news of her wedding to Bowman C. Collins in a ceremony held May 5 at St. Michael's Lutheran church in Berkeley, Calif. The Rev. Otto Bremer officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Fred Svinth of Arcata, Calif. She wore a chapel length gown of imported Chantilly lace over Skinner satin designed with a scooped neckline, basque bodice, and a very full skirt. Her finger-tip veil was held by a Juliet cap, and she carried white orchids and stephanotis on a white Bible.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Herman Simpson, of Las Vegas, Nev., wore a ballerina length gown of pink nylon dotted Swiss. She carried blue marguerites and wore a matching flowered head band and face veil.

Bridesmaid and matron were Miss Barbara Maloy, Eureka, Calif., and Mrs. Arthur Osborne of Hayward, Calif. They were attired in blue gowns and carried pink marguerites.

Miss Ruth Pierce and Miss Donna Green of Richmond, Calif., served as candlelighters.

Little Linda Simpson, daughter of the matron-of-honor, was the flower girl and Jimmy LaMunyon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Weston LaMunyon of Salem, Ore., was ring bearer.

Jim Johnston, Berkeley, Calif., was best man. Al Wrobel, Berkeley, and Don Svinth, brother of the bride from Arcata, were ushers.

Mrs. Svinth, mother of the bride, wore a two-piece navy blue dress with white accessories. Mrs. Sidney Collins, the bridegroom's mother from Los Angeles, was attired in a powder blue one piece mesh dress with pink accessories. They both wore corsages of pink orchids.

Serving and assisting at the reception were Miss Lura Winkler, Mrs. Dave Dezell, Mrs. John Shallebarger, Miss Ann Tucker, Miss Allene Agor, Mrs. Harry Nishie, Mrs. Ladd Griffith and Mrs. Robert Wilson, all Berkeley; Mrs. John Felsler, Arcata, Calif.; Mrs. Weston LaMunyon, Salem, Ore.; Miss Sue Campbell, Richmond, Calif., and Miss Ann Suydam, San Jose, Calif.

The bride received her BA degree from Midland college, Fremont, Neb., and her master's degree in social work from the University of California, Berkeley. Since the fall of 1954 she has been employed as a program director at the YWCA in Richmond.

The bridegroom was graduated from the University of Colorado in Boulder, and later received his master's in physics from UCLA. He served as a lieutenant junior grade in the Navy during the Korean war. In the fall he will teach mathematics and physics at East Contra Cos-

Staff Named For Play

A technical staff for the forthcoming Footlighters' production, "Late Love," now in rehearsal, was named at a meeting preceding Friday night's rehearsal, according to Mrs. Max Wimmer, group president.

Robert D. Stedman, director of the three-act comedy which will be presented five nights beginning Tuesday, July 24, appointed Carl McQuigg, stage manager for the production, and Miss Marianne Moore as rehearsal secretary.

Others appointed by Mrs. Wimmer to carry out details of the production are Clyde Wheaton, who will handle sound and lighting; Miss Kathy Davis, properties; Mrs. Edward C. Kelly, newspaper publicity and Nick Parker who will handle radio and television publicity.

Director Stedman, who in addition to direction has designed the set for the show, has called for a volunteer work party to assist with set building and painting today. All interested in Footlighters activities are invited to turn out and get acquainted with members, and at the same time learn details of set construction. Refreshments will be served the workers during the afternoon, according to Mrs. Wimmer.

Luncheon Planned
By Women's Club

Scottish Rite Women's club will hold a potluck luncheon at the home of Mrs. Edwin C. Root, Three Pines, 5261 Jacksonville highway, Monday, June 25, at 12 o'clock.

All mothers, wives, sisters, daughters and widows of the members of the Scottish Rite bodies are welcome. Table service will be needed.

All members with initials from A to F are to take cakes, those with initials from G to L, salads and initials L to Z, hot dishes.

Members with cars are asked to meet at Masonic temple to pick up those who have no transportation.

Cards will follow luncheon. A crushed peppermint stick makes an excellent flavoring for baked apples. Just remove the apple core and insert the candy before baking.

Wayne Smiths Honor Guests
At Anniversary Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne D. Smith and family were honored at a farewell party June 13 at First Christian church. The party also observed the Smith's silver wedding anniversary.

The Smiths will leave about July 1 for Portland and later will make their home in Alaska. About 50 members of the church attended. Hostesses for the event were Mrs. J. H. Hopkins, Mrs. C. D. Hershiser and Mrs. Wilbur Culp.

The Smiths have been active in First Christian church, Mrs. Smith having been a member of the choir, superintendent of the Sunday School Junior department and secretary of Women's Fellowship. She is also a vocalist, and has sung at many church functions.

The silver anniversary theme was used for table appointments. A silver and white cake, baked and decorated by Mrs. Hershiser, was served. Silver candies decorated the cake table and an arrangement of pink Picture roses, syringia and pink and white candles centered the punch table. Roses from the Hershiser and Culp gardens decorated the rooms. Mrs. Hopkins took charge of decorations.

Mrs. Hershiser cut the cake, assisted by Mrs. Lee Bailey. Mrs. Paul Andrews served punch, and Mrs. A. H. Gregory poured coffee.

Mrs. Gloria Smith, accompanied by Miss Katherine Gou, sang.

Mrs. William Piper presented the honored guests a gift from their friends in the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith were married at Coquille, Ore., June 13, 1931. They came to Medford in 1947 and have lived until recently on Merriman road. They have two children, Nick, who graduated from the University of Oregon with this year's class, receiving a degree in business administration. Nada, the Smith's daughter, was graduated

Sorority Council
To Sponsor Booth
At Horse Show

Medford-Ashland City council of Beta Sigma Phi met recently at the home of Mrs. Nick DeWitt, 320 North Keeneway, to discuss plans for the organization's booth at the horse show which Ladies' Mounted troop will hold in July.

All chapters are taking part and Mrs. Howard Blew of Beta Upsilon is chairman.

Also discussed was the possibility of a Beta Sigma Phi night at the Shakespearean Festival in August.

Medford chapters assisted Miss Lea Gesell, representative from the national office, who founded a Nu Phi Mu chapter here for younger women last week end.

Mrs. Grant Hubbell
To Speak for Women

Eagle Point—A discussion by Mrs. Grant Hubbell of her recent trip to the Oregon State Grange at Pendleton will be featured at the June meeting of Eagle Point Home Economics club. The meeting, to be held Wednesday, June 27, will begin at 12 noon with a potluck luncheon. Members will gather at Mrs. Hubbell's home, Sunset on the Rogue.

Interested ladies belonging to grange are cordially invited to attend, it is stated.
