

Braves, White Sox Nab Doublebills To Cap Streak Week in Major Loops

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer
The red-hot Milwaukee Braves and Chicago White Sox were chief beneficiaries today of a phenomenal "streak week" which affected the fortunes of all 16 major league clubs.

Talk about streaks, get a load of some of these:
1. The Braves made it 10 victories in a row under new manager Fred Haney when they swept a doubleheader from the Giants, 6-2 and 7-1, to stretch their National League lead to two games. The Giants have now lost four straight.

2. Marty Marion's souped-up White Sox ran their winning streak to eight games and climbed to within four percentage points of the American League lead by beating the Yankees twice, 14-2 and 6-3. The Yanks have a streak of their own going — four losses in a row.

3. Cleveland clicked off its sixth victory in a row by lick the Senators, 7-2, thus moving within 4 1/2 games of first place.

4. Pittsburgh snapped their eight-game losing streak by beating the Cubs, 1-0, in a rain-shortened nightcap after losing the opener, 5-3.

And 5—Baltimore extended Detroit's losing streak to eight games by sweeping a doubleheader from the Tigers by identical scores of 3-2.

In the other games Sunday the Cardinals ended a four-game losing streak by defeating the Phillies 8-4, in the first game of a twin-bill but the Phils bounced back to win the finale, 3-2; Cincinnati took a pair from Brooklyn, 10-6 and 2-1, and Kansas City topped Boston, 5-2.

O'Connell, Mays Homer
Milwaukee took advantage of four unearned runs in the opener against the Giants and then capitalized on three more unearned runs in the nightcap. Pitcher Jim Hearn's error in eighth inning of the opener helped the Braves put together their four-run cluster, which included a three-run homer by Danny O'Connell. Lew Burdette held the Giants to four hits, including a homer by Willie Mays. Gene Conley was the winner in the nightcap although he gave way to Dave Jolly in the seventh after rain caused a 22-minute delay in the game.

Larry Doby slammed a three-run homer in each game to help the White Sox to their victories over the Yankees. Doby's second homer of the day, off Mickey McDermott in the first inning gave ex-Yankee Gerry Staley a fine start and he was ahead all the way. In the opener, Sherm Lollar drove in four runs with a homer and a double to pave the way for Billy Pierce's 11th triumph. Whitey Ford suffered his fourth loss as the White Sox hammered out 18 hits for 28 total bases.

Lemon Wins Ninth
Home runs by Earl Averill, Bobby Avila and Al Rosen carried Cleveland's Bob Lemon to his ninth victory in a game limited to 5 1/2 innings because of rain. A scheduled second game was postponed. Rosen's homer off Hal Griggs, was the 1,000th hit of his big league career. Lefty Bob Wiesler was the loser.

The Pirates just got in under the wire with their nightcap victory over the Cubs scoring a run in the fifth shortly before the game was called because of rain in the sixth. Newly acquired Spook Jacobs singled home Eddie O'Brien with the only run of the game to give Laurin Pepper his first victory.

The Cubs broke a 3-all tie in the eighth inning of the opener when Dee Fondy scored on an error and Walt Moryn homered. Frank Thomas homered for the Pirates. Reliever Vito Valentinetti was the winner and Roy Face the loser.

Lightburn Picked To Beat Josato
New York — (U.P.) — Lightweight contender Ludwig Lightburn of British Honduras is favored at 11-5 to beat welterweight Jake Josato, Philadelphia toughie, tonight in their TV DuMont 10-rounder at St. Nicholas arena.

Lightburn is the wagering choice because of his speed, skill and punch. Also, he has had more professional experience than the Philadelphia mauler, who surprised the experts by stopping Arthur Persley in the sixth round last December.

BEAVER VEEP PICKED
Portland — (U.P.) — Clyde Perkins was named Saturday as a director and vice-president of the home-owned Portland Beaver baseball team. He replaces sportscaster Art Gleeson in the post.

Ump Target After Seals Lose Twice To San Diego

Vancouver, B. C. — (U.P.) — The Portland Beavers seek to break even in their four-game series with the Vancouver Mounties tonight before heading home for a meeting with league leading Seattle.

Portland is expected to send Bob Alexander, seeking his sixth win, to the mound. The two teams were idle yesterday. Portland won the first game of a Saturday doubleheader.

Legion Game On Tuesday

Medford-Central Point American Legion junior baseball team will be out to protect its lead in District 43 on Tuesday night.

The locals host Roseburg at the fairgrounds diamond at 8 p.m.

Roseburg holds the only loop win over Medford-C.P., taking the season starter for both clubs 1 to 0 in a torrid pitching duel. The Douglas county team got only one hit in the early game but gained its lone score on a walk, a passed ball and an error. Medford hit safely twice in that game.

Coach John Kovens of the locals said that either Ernie Tyler or Wayne Allen may hurl tomorrow. Allen has pitched in the two Medford-C.P. victories. Kovens, however, may rest him so far as pitching is concerned on Tuesday. Whichever of the two is not chucking will be in right field.

Probable thrower for Roseburg is Dick Smith, who was the moundsman for the state B champ Glide high school team during the spring.

Rogue Valley Gals Victors

Rogue Valley girls softball team made a successful week end invasion of California, defeating Durham 11 to 1 on Saturday night and Orland 9 to 7 on Sunday afternoon.

Bernice Bigham hit two homers and Jean Bitterling won triples for the RV gals on Saturday while Doris Hickson and Pat Schroeder also homered. At Orland Ellen Callaghan, Dorothy Shearin and Bitterling all got two hits in three times up.

The Rogue Valley team goes to Dunsmuir, Calif., Tuesday evening.

PROHOVICH SIGNS
Chicago — (U.P.) — Don Prohovich, Holly Cross college shortstop named to the college All-America baseball team, has been signed by the Chicago White Sox and optioned to Colorado Springs, Colo., of the Class A Western league.

After a five minute argument play was resumed and presently the game was over and Steiner surrounded by enraged spectators. One squared off in front of time. Another walloped him in the back. Cushions flew like buckshot.

Win Streak Ended
Hollywood downed Seattle in the opener 7-2, to end a nine game winning streak both for the Suds and reliable Elmer Singleton, who finally was tagged with his fourth defeat as Ben Wade went the route to post win number six.

Howie Judson blanked the Stars with a two-hitter in winning the finale, 2-0.
Steve (The Bomb) Bilko smashed his 31st home run as Los Angeles drubbed Sacramento 9-1, in their opener.

The Sacs woke up for three runs in the sixth inning of the finale to edge Los Angeles, 5-4.
