

Dancers To Study In Los Angeles

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Aldrich of Miss Pat's Dance studio and nine of their advanced students left yesterday to spend two weeks of study and sightseeing in Los Angeles.

The students on the trip are Marcia Issacs, Carol Jones, Glenna Hobbs, Martina Wyatt, JoAnn Johnson, Karen Stelle, Sandra Pemberton, Karen Adele Johnson and Cherie Aldrich.

The group will stay at the Hotel Statler and will attend a seminar to be given by the National Association of Dance and Affiliated Artists in the hotel. The students will take lessons from approximately 50 different teachers from all over the world. Tap, ballet, acrobatic, ballroom, Spanish, baton, modern and Hawaiian dancing will be taught.

Plans have been made for the young people to visit Disneyland, Farmers' Market, the Mexican Village and Knotts Berry Farm. They will attend the Greek theater and on July 4 will attend a fireworks display at the Coliseum. Also planned are tours of movie and television studios.

The group stopped in Redding, Calif., Monday where Mrs. Jean Mottern was hostess for a breakfast.

The studio will reopen July 11.

Three Musicians To Give Program

Three Medford musicians, Caroline Andrews Werner, soprano, Richard D. Werner, violinist, and Bruno Pellegrini, piano accompanist, will give a special assembly concert Wednesday, June 27, at Southern Oregon college. The concert, set for 2 p.m., is open to townspeople without charge.

Mr. Werner will open the program with three violin solos, "Legende" by Wieniawski; "Cavatina," by Raff and "Tambourin" by Rameau-Kreiser.

For Part II of the program Mrs. Werner will sing "Phyllis has such Charming Graces," by Clara Edwards; "The Swallows" Dell Acqua and "My Hero" from Oscar Straus' "Chocolate Soldier."

For his second group Mr. Werner will play "Berceuse et Priere" by Ovide Musin; "Poeme" by Fibich; "Hills" by Cecil Burleigh; "Andantino" by Martini-Kreiser and Gardner's "From the Canebrake."

Part IV will be another group of solos by Mrs. Werner. Included will be "Musetta's Waltz" from Puccini's "La Boheme," "Were My Song with Wings Provided" by R. Hahn; "Love has Wings" by Rogers and "Giegeuner" from Coward's "Bitter-sweet."

The program will conclude with two soprano solos with Mr. Werner playing violin obligati. In the group will be "Angel's Serenade" by Braga and "Tee Yeaux" by Rabey.

USWV Auxiliary Department Head Makes Visit Here

Mrs. Bessie Sutton, Corvallis, Ore., past department president of the United Spanish War Veterans' auxiliary and honored toad of the grand swamp of Oregon, Military Order of the Lizards, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Anderson, 803 Pine street, Medford, June 16 and 17. She attended a dinner and meeting of Colonel Sargent auxiliary at Redman hall Sunday. The officers and colors of Rogue River auxiliary, Grants Pass, were also guests at the meeting and dinner.

Mrs. James Cech, auxiliary president, presided over the business meeting. Mrs. Sutton was presented a corsage by past department president, Mrs. Harry Barneburg. Mrs. Don Anderson, department senior vice president, was also presented a corsage.

Plans were made for auxiliary members to attend the department convention and the grand swamp convocation at Eugene July 8 to 11. Mrs. Mabel Nicholson and Miss Donna Unger were elected delegates and Mrs. Josephine Widner and Mrs. Ralph Atwood alternates. Miss Unger will also serve as a department platform aide.

The annual picnic for the members will be held in Lithia park in Ashland August 5. The Ashland members will be in charge of arrangements. All Spanish American War veterans and their families are invited to attend. Mrs. Katherine Sweetland, President of Rogue River auxiliary, announced that there would be a practice in the VFW hall in Grants Pass, Sunday, July 1 at 10 a.m. Officers and members from Medford are to take salads and desserts for the luncheon at noon.

Many Women Acquire Swim Suit Wardrobe

Some figures for the opening of the summer swimming season: The average American woman now owns a wardrobe of bathing suits—anywhere from two to six which cost her $15 to $20 each. These statistics come from Beautif Mills, which says sales of swim wear have tripled in the last 30 years. This year the industry expects to sell more than 3.5 million suits.

Return

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Watrud, 210 Ashland ave., have returned from Yakima where Mr. Watrud attended the thirty-third annual conference of certified public accountants.

William J. Beal, early agricultural scientist at Michigan State University, was the first man to cross-fertilize corn, ushering in hybrid corn.
